

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

NOTE.—Of these churches, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted in the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

On motion of the Secretary, the certificate of the Lay Delegates from Calvary Church, New York, was accepted, though technically defective.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower reported, in behalf of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Parishes, that application for admission into union with the Convention had been received from St. Andrew's Church, Fishkill Landing, and from Holyrood Church, New York, and that the papers in both cases were in due order ; and recommended that said parishes be admitted into union with the Convention.

On motion, the recommendation was adopted and the aforesaid churches were admitted.

The time for recess having arrived, the Convention adjourned for one hour.

On reassembling, the Secretary reported that he had appointed the Rev. George F. Nelson, D.D., Superintendent of the New York City Mission Society, the Rev. Robert Morris Kemp, of Trinity Parish, New York, and the Rev. R. S. Mansfield, Rector of Christ Church, Suffern, as Assistant Secretaries, and that, in the absence of the Rev. Mr. Mansfield in Europe, he had appointed the Rev. Robert VanKleeck Harris, Rector of Christ Church, Red Hook, as a special Assistant.

The following report was presented by the Secretary :

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE AND PROPERTY OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF NEW YORK FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 25, 1900.

The following is a list of the various Trusts :

Diocesan House, 29 Lafayette Place, and an endowment Fund of $50,000, the income of which is to be expended for its support and maintenance. The real estate is leased to the Bishop and the entire income paid to him.

Land, Church Building, Rectory, Parish House, and School House at Eighty-ninth Street and Madison Avenue, leased to the Church of the Beloved Disciple. Endowment Fund and securities of the par value of $186,473.92, the income of which is to be applied to the maintenance and preservation of the church and its work, but no income shall be expended for alterations to the church or for a Mission Church.

Land, Burial Plot, and Glebe Plot, with Church Building, Parish House and Rectory, near Scarborough, Westchester County, leased to St. Mary's Church, Beechwood, Endowment Fund of $9,206.82 ; the income to be expended for repairs and conducting services in the church.

Land and Church Buildings at Cruger's, Westchester County, occupied by the Church of the Divine Love.

Land, Church Buildings, and Rectory at Verplanck's, Westchester County, occupied by St. Barnabas' Church.

Land and Church Buildings at Rosendale, Ulster County, occupied by All Saints' Church.

Land and Church Building at Yonkers, occupied by Christ Church.

Land and Church Building at Tuxedo Park, occupied by St. Mary's Church.

Land at Ellenville, Ulster County, with Church Building and Rectory, leased to St. John's Memorial Church.

Land and Church Building at Newburgh, leased to the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Endowment Fund of $5,500; the income to be paid semi-annually to the Pastor, Rector, or other head of St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church, in the town of Bedford, Westchester County, in addition to his regular salary.

Land and Church Building known as the Worthington Memorial Chapel, in the town of Greenburgh. Endowment Fund of $5,000, the income of which is to be applied to the repair and maintenance of the chapel and grounds.

Endowment Fund for the support of St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal Church, Mamaroneck, consisting of bonds of the West Shore Railroad Company of the par value of $4,500.

Endowment Fund, All Angels' Church, New York City. This fund is to accumulate until it amounts to $50,000. It amounts at this date to $16,461.46.

Land at Yonkers, New York, with Church Buildings, leased to St. Andrew's Memorial Church. A very extensive addition has been made to this property during the past year by donations from Mrs. William F. Cochran. Additional land was deeded to the Trustees adjoining the former holdings, and the church buildings were greatly enlarged.

Property on the south side of East Eighty-eighth Street, east of Second Avenue, held by St. James' Church. This Corporation holds a reversionary interest in this property in case the Church Corporation should fail to comply with the terms of the deed of gift. Endowment Fund of $200,000 to be invested, and the income paid over to the Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. James' Church to be applied to the use, maintenance, and support of said property in East Eighty-eighth Street.

In addition to this, an Endowment Fund of $89,010 has been received, to be held by this Corporation, and the income paid to St. James' Church so long as it shall be entitled under the terms of the agreement to receive the same, and afterwards to Trinity Church Corporation of the City of New York.

Land at Harrison, Westchester County, New York, with Church Building thereon. As no Church corporation has been formed to hold this property, a lease was made to Rev. William W. Kirkby, Frank German, James A. Burnham, and William H. Beers, who agreed to maintain the property in repair and provide church services, the property being occupied and held in connection with Christ Church at Rye.

Fund of $5,000 held under the will of Elizabeth D. Eaton, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be used to provide fitting and proper burial of the poor connected with that parish.

The term of office of two of the Trustees, Henry Lewis Morris and Edmund L. Baylies, will expire October 1, 1900, and two persons should be elected by the Convention for the term of four years to succeed them.

The Treasurer's Report, submitted herewith, shows in his charge securities and cash of the estimated value of Five hundred and seventy-one thousand one hundred and fifty-two dollars and twenty cents.

Income received and paid out, Twenty-five thousand two hundred and sixty-five dollars and eighty-three cents.

The Treasurer's accounts have been examined and found correct by the Executive Committee, consisting of William Alexander Smith and George R. Schieffelin.

HENRY LEWIS MORRIS,
Secretary.

Endowment Fund of $200,000 to be invested, and the income paid over to the Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. James' Church to be applied to the use, maintenance, and support of said property in East Eighty-eighth Street.

In addition to this, an Endowment Fund of $89,010 has been received, to be held by this Corporation, and the income paid to St. James' Church so long as it shall be entitled under the terms of the agreement to receive the same, and afterwards to Trinity Church Corporation of the City of New York.

Land at Harrison, Westchester County, New York, with Church Building thereon. As no Church corporation has been formed to hold this property, a lease was made to Rev. William W. Kirkby, Frank German, James A. Burnham, and William H. Beers, who agreed to maintain the property in repair and provide church services, the property being occupied and held in connection with Christ Church at Rye.

Fund of $5,000 held under the will of Elizabeth D. Eaton, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be used to provide fitting and proper burial of the poor connected with that parish.

The term of office of two of the Trustees, Henry Lewis Morris and Edmund L. Baylies, will expire October 1, 1900, and two persons should be elected by the Convention for the term of four years to succeed them.

The Treasurer's Report, submitted herewith, shows in his charge securities and cash of the estimated value of Five hundred and seventy-one thousand one hundred and fifty-two dollars and twenty cents.

Income received and paid out, Twenty-five thousand two hundred and sixty-five dollars and eighty-three cents.

The Treasurer's accounts have been examined and found correct by the Executive Committee, consisting of William Alexander Smith and George R. Schieffelin.

HENRY LEWIS MORRIS,
Secretary.

The Rev. E. C. Saunders offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That a special committee be appointed to present the claims of the widows and orphans of clergymen.

The Chair appointed the following as such committee—the Rev. E. C. Saunders, the Rev. C. T. Olmsted, D.D., and Mr. Anson Phelps Stokes.

The Rev. George F. Nelson, D.D., Superintendent of the New York City Mission Society, presented the following report :

Report

OF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 15, 1900.

In presenting its sixty-ninth annual report the City Mission Society wishes first of all to express its thankfulness for the generous help which has prospered its labors. During the past year our staff of workers has included twenty Clergymen, one Deaconess, five Lay Readers, and a large corps of teachers. Our Missionaries have been on duty in seven Chapels—including the Chapel of Christ the Consoler, Bellevue Hospital, and the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, Almshouse—three Mission Houses, fifteen hospitals, seven asylums, and ten prisons, besides the House of Refuge for Juvenile Delinquents and the House of Detention for Witnesses. They have celebrated the Holy Communion 497 times in public and 156 times in private ; baptized 264 children and 31 adults ; presented 262 persons for Confirmation, including 40 at the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, Almshouse, and 111 at two Confirmations at the House of Refuge ; solemnized 41 marriages and officiated at 207 funerals. They have made 99,182 visits ; distributed 46,333 books and 115,947 periodicals. The aggregate number of Church Services has been 3,569 and the aggregate of attendances 236,982, the number of attendances varying from 14,000 to 24,000 a month. The aggregate of attendances in the Sunday-schools has been 1,676 teachers and 31,904 scholars—the monthly aggregate of attendance of teachers being from 34 in summer to 205 at other seasons, and the monthly aggregate of attendance of scholars being from 643 in summer to 4,336 in other months. The following statement of funds received during the past year is furnished by the Treasurer, viz. :

Church Collections	$13,540 57
Contributions.....	13,082 02
Interest, rents, and dividends...	18,114 25
Fresh Air Fund.....	4,414 17

We are gratefully indebted to the Rev. Dr. George William Douglas, of Grace Parish, and to the Rev. Dr. James S. McIlvaine for their valued help for some months in presenting the cause of the City Mission to congregations, and we hope that the Rectors and Vicars of our city churches and chapels will continue to favor the Society's large and urgent work by arranging for an offering in its behalf at some Sunday service, and by giving our Missionary at the same time an opportunity to make the Society's annual appeal.

At St. Barnabas' House—the largest and the oldest of our Mission Houses—1,472 homeless women and children have been sheltered for periods of time varying from a day to a month. The lowest number of beneficiaries under its roof in any one month was 91 and the highest number was 142. The number of meals furnished, including those sent to the Day Nursery at God's Providence Mission, amounted to 122,997. Though this Mission House costs the Society $10,000 a year, no one who knows anything of the excellence of its management and usefulness can doubt that it is a wise as well as a merciful expenditure. The House is fortunate not only in having a Matron who is a Deaconess of most admirable fitness in every way for her important post, but in having also an Advisory Board of ladies of Grace Church, who, under the presidency of Mrs. George S. Bowdoin, have generously volunteered their services.

God's Providence Mission has well maintained its reputation for busy benevolence. Indeed, it is, as it has long been, so thronging with charitable activities from day to day that any increase of its work would seem to necessitate an addition to the building, which is already spacious and well adapted to its uses. The Day Nursery, Kindergarten, Industrial School, Cooking School, Girls' Friendly Society, Boys' and Girls' Guilds, Reading Room, Circulating Library, etc., have been the principal features of the Mission House on week days; and it is a specially interesting fact that the Sunday-school and Sunday services in the Chapel under the same roof are attended principally by young people of Jewish parentage. The number of children at the Day Nursery has varied from sixty to eighty a day. The daily attendance at the Kindergarten has usually been about seventy, and Miss Duncan, whose thorough work is worthy of unreserved praise, has achieved results which are gratifying to all who are interested in the little ones under her care. The Industrial School, under the excellent management of Mrs. Foster, numbers 260 teachers and scholars.

We are glad to report continued progress at the Chapel of the Messiah. On the evening of May 20th the Minister-in-charge presented to the Bishop of the Diocese 65 candidates for Confirmation, including 4 from the Home for Colored Men and Women. This Chapel is situated in a new but thickly populated tenement district, and has noble opportunities. At present, however, the only room it has, except among the pews, for schools and guild meetings, is in a basement, where light and air are always defective. The Sunday-school now numbers about five hundred, and the present accommodations are insufficient. The Chapel greatly needs a Mission House. Here is an opportunity for a Memorial building that shall stand like a beacon on a stormy coast. Here is an opportunity to reach and touch multitudes of groping and tempted youth with the light of wisdom and courage. Who is able and willing to respond to it?

On the evening of May 24th twenty-two candidates were confirmed at St. Ambrose's Church. One of the two clergymen assigned to duty at this Mission has lived during the past year in the Parish House adjoining the Church, and he has thus been enabled to give more attention to the schools and other organizations, and to keep also in closer contact with tenement dwellers of the neighborhood. As is well known, most of the families close by are Italian. We have recently completed arrangements to minister to them in their own tongue, and accordingly services in Italian will soon be inaugurated at St. Ambrose's in addition to those which we now have in English and German.

Our Italian Mission, called the Church of San Salvatore, has continued in a temporary place of worship at No. 40 Bleecker Street since the church edifice in Mulberry Street was removed on account of the opening of a new street. The congregation is principally composed of men, and it has held together notwithstanding the inconvenience of the present accommodations. The Men's Club—a provident association—numbers seventy, and has a goodly balance in the savings bank. The Sunday-school, Industrial School, Tre Terese's Club, Guild of Santa Filomena, etc., are gratifying evidences of this Mission's usefulness and of the debt it especially owes to Mrs. Bowdoin, Mrs. Bowker, Miss Newbold, Miss Edgar, and Miss Acritelli for the conspicuous constancy of their interest and coöperation. Twenty-four candidates were confirmed on the evening of May 17th. It is hoped that the Special Committee recently appointed to consider the question of choosing a site for the new Church will soon report, and that work on the edifice will soon begin.

The death of the Rev. Alberto Pace on January 27th was a great loss to the Italian Mission. He had been the Minister-in-charge of it for twelve years. He was a man of faith and good works. Though long before the end he had been told by high medical authority that he had incurable heart disease, he continued his active ministry till within two weeks of his death; and the memory of his eloquence and sympathy is all the more treasured by his bereaved flock because they knew something of what it cost him to continue on duty while his heart strings were warning him that they were ready at any moment to snap asunder.

Among the past year's new enterprises of the City Mission, we desire to mention the new Reading Room at 625 West 42d Street. A young lady of an up-town parish having generously offered to pay the rent, we opened this new free reading room last winter on the ground floor of a tenement house, formerly occupied as a drinking saloon, and the daily attendance on week-day evenings has been from fifteen to forty.

The contributions to our Fresh Air Fund were more than ever liberal, and we were more than ever sensible, last summer, of the value of such a fund in view of the extraordinary heat which for much of the season oppressed the city, and laid its heaviest burden upon children of poverty.

Rethmore Home—the cottage at Tenafly which Mrs. J. Hull Browning most kindly supports for us—was again the scene of rare comfort and contentment for a hundred and fifty children sent there in parties of twenty-five at a time for a two weeks' sojourn. Two hundred and thirty-seven beneficiaries were sheltered at North Mountain Home near Haines Falls, mostly for a week and a half, and we are glad to report not only that the rent was inexpensive and the railroad fare greatly reduced, but that special sums amounting to $269.67 were received in aid of the Home from sympathetic friends in the neighborhood, chiefly in Onteora Park and Twilight Park. Twenty-five young men were sent to the House of St. John the Divine, Tomkins Cove, for two weeks; two hundred children to Life-Farm for the same length of time on the generous invitation of the managers; and many were sent to Priory Farm and other places in the country. Fifty-three hundred excursionists were sent by steamer and barge to groves on the Sound.

The thought of the Fresh Air Fund not inaptly suggests that large number of persons to whom summer and winter are alike, so far as liberty of action is concerned. However oppressive the summer's heat, multitudes of men and women are languishing behind the bars of our prisons with no friend to lead them forth to green fields or breezy shores. We rejoice, however, that they are not neglected on the spiritual side even in summer, and we may well believe that not infrequently their spiritual lungs take deeper and sweeter draughts of hope and good resolve just because the faithful Missionary speaks to them his heavenly message. Many proofs of the practical value of the City Mission's work in prisons, as well as out of prisons, come to us from time to time in many ways and cause us to thank God and take courage. Not long ago one of our chaplains received from a prisoner a letter of which the following is an extract:

"I know that I am a sinner, and I want God to save me from sin. If it was not for sin I would not be in this prison cell to day. Some day I hope that I will be free by the help of God. Some day! So all I ask of you is to please pray for me. I know that my dear mother is praying for me at her home that was once my home till I went the wrong way. Please pray for me."

Those of us who are trying to carry the Gospel to prisoners or to those other multitudes whose home is the garret, or the hospital, or the almshouse, can never forget what a friend we lost when the summons came to the late Professor Egleston to step up higher. Although he had recently resigned his place as a member of our Executive Committee, his love still bound him to its aims and endeavors.

Like the treasures of his learning, the treasures of his sympathy rejoiced to find expression; and for many years they freely poured themselves into every channel of the City Mission's active life. May such a spirit stir in the hearts and hands of all those to whom works of mercy look for support!

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. NELSON,

Superintendent.

NEW YORK, September 15, 1900.

The Archdeacon of Westchester offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention, in accepting the annual report of the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, which has just been presented, desires to express its deep sense of the importance of the Society's work, and its cordial recommendation to the clergy and laity of the City and Diocese to give to that work their unremitting and generous support.

The Rev. Walter A. A. Gardner presented the following report:

Report

OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR SEAMEN IN THE CITY AND PORT OF NEW YORK.

In presenting their report this year the Board of Managers are encouraged by much that has transpired looking to the advancement and opening up of the Society's work. The men are coming to us. They are realizing that we are their friends, and accordingly are showing a grateful appreciation of the efforts being made in their behalf. The more this spirit spreads, the more will the Society be able to accomplish. Naturally the sailor is seriously affected by legislation, and during the past year a big stride has been made toward bettering his condition. Two acts have been passed by Congress and have gone into effect, so that now he cannot be imprisoned for desertion in home ports; and for desertion in foreign ports the duration of imprisonment cannot exceed one month, and even this is left discretionary with the courts. All forms of corporal punishment on shipboard have been prohibited under severe penalties. The law gives him enlarged space, a warm and ventilated room, and a more sanitary schedule of provisions. "Blood money" for shipment of seamen is forbidden. Moreover, all masters and mates of steam vessels, and of all sailing vessels of over 700 tons burden, are required to take out a license, after examination as to capacity, character, and conduct, which license is revocable on satisfactory evidence of bad conduct and violation of law. It is apparent that these new provisions should, by restraining and eliminating brutal officers, greatly reduce the cruelty and terrorism heretofore practised upon seamen.

The coöperation of societies for aiding seamen in New York, which still continues, has been followed by a national conference held by similar societies in Boston during three days in October last. Delegates from the Atlantic seaports, from Nova Scotia to New Orleans, and from the Lakes, attended. Our Society was represented by two delegates, methods of work were compared, results reported, and eloquent and effective addresses were made by Bishop Lawrence, President Eliot of Harvard and Rev. Dr. Gordon of the old South Church, and other eminent men, thus greatly stimulating the interest in behalf of seamen.

The conference appointed an international committee to extend the work of seamen's aid to other ports and to promote the establishment of officers for legal aid to seamen like that promoted by our Board during the current year in New York. The result of this "legal aid" movement is so extraordinary as to call for special mention. Uniting with other societies, our Board has contributed to the support of a competent attorney who gives his entire time to investigating the complaints of common seamen, and in redressing their wrongs by collecting claims for arrears of wages unlawfully withheld, and in prosecuting in courts of law their persecutors and the land sharks who prey upon them while waiting and seeking for employment. Over seven thousand dollars of arrears of wages have been collected by this legal aid office, and hundreds of robberies and personal assaults have been prosecuted and the offenders punished by the courts. The enactment of humane laws is important, but they can only be made effective by their enforcement. To promote such enforcement, we have obtained the appointment of a special police officer whose entire time is to be given to the protection of seamen at the time and place of payment, shipment, and discharge, where they are most exposed to outrage, robbery, and abuse. And in order to shield seamen from acts of violence at sea, growing out of their ignorance and inefficiency, we have established schools for practical seamanship and for navigation, which have been enthusiastically recognized by the class of men whose interests we are organized to advance.

The death of Mr. Vanderbilt deprives our Society of one of its most devoted and zealous supporters. He well deserved these words of kindly appreciation contained in the resolution passed by our Board: "For twenty-six years past Mr. Vanderbilt has been a faithful friend and earnest co-worker in the care and in the management of this Society for the benefit of seamen. He never lost an opportunity to give to it his personal attention with a modest, kindly Christian spirit, and in recording this slight tribute of respect and love to his memory, the Board of Managers of the Society desire to mark his connection with their work as a bright example of a true, practical American gentleman, striving always to do his duty in the service of our Lord."

For several years past our income has fallen so far short of our necessary expenses as to create a deficiency so large that it threatened very seriously to cripple our future usefulness. Fortunately this strained state of affairs has been somewhat relieved by a generous legacy under the will of Charles H. Contoit. Still, the needs of our Society are pressing and our funds very inadequate, as will be seen by a glance at the Treasurer's statement.

It is hoped that the churches, upon which we mainly depend for support, will realize this fact and make their contributions more liberal. The growth of our foreign trade, extending now far beyond its former limits, will naturally demand an extension of our shipping interests. If more sailors are to be ministered to and protected, we must have more money for the work.

A careful examination of the reports of our Chaplains for the past year will show how very encouraging have been the results of our efforts, and we trust will so commend the interests of our Society to the friends of the seamen as to insure us the means wherewith to go on and do very much more.

TUESDAY, December 12, 1899.

The Rev. Dr. Cole presented the following report :

Report

OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE TO THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK, SEPTEMBER, 1900.

The past year has been one of many and radical changes, but, we believe, of improved efficiency and increased prosperity for the College. Since our last report to the Convention the Trustees have decided to abolish the preparatory course heretofore connected with the College as soon as the students already entered shall have completed their course. Although this does away this fall with the class that has usually been one of the largest in the institution, the number of students entering at the beginning of this year shows a considerable increase over that of last year, and men are already entering for next year. The Trustees have also withdrawn the "special course" for candidates for Holy Orders, and in its place merely offer an opportunity for men who are older than the ordinary college student to elect whatever subjects in the college curriculum they need to complete their preparation for technical work.

In the College proper several important changes have been made. The number of lectures in chemistry has been doubled, and the kind interest of Mr. John Jacob Astor has enabled us to enlarge and refit our laboratory and to offer experimental work in chemistry adequate to the purposes of the course. A department of oratory has been established, and well-organized and efficient work is done in that subject by all the classes in the College. The work of the department of philosophy has been extended and deepened, and more mature methods introduced. The courses in English and history are to be greatly improved in both scope and method during the coming year.

Dr. John C. Robertson has been obliged by ill-health to take a year's leave of absence, and his work in the department of Greek is carried on this year by Acting Prof. Herbert B. Foster, a graduate of Harvard and a Doctor of Philosophy of Johns Hopkins University.

At the last Commencement, on June 15th, the Warden was formally inaugurated by the Right Reverend the Bishop of the Diocese, six men received the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and four men were given certificates that they had completed the special course.

The College is now absolutely free from debt, and we mean to keep it so. However, it was only by the strictest economy and by many makeshifts, often prejudicial to the best educational results, that we were able this last year to keep our expenses within our income. As the only distinctly Church College within the limits of the metropolitan Diocese of our Church, we feel that St. Stephen's College has a right to expect such financial support as will relieve us from these disadvantages. The present administration has for its ideal nothing short of the most efficient and intelligent methods and the best results. It rests with the individual members of the Diocese to determine whether we shall be given the equipment that will enable us to realize this ideal.

LAWRENCE T. COLE,

Warden.

The Rev. F. Landon Humphreys, D.D., presented the following report :

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND.

The purpose of this fund is, first : to assist insufficiently paid clergymen who may be officiating anywhere in the Diocese, and, second : to assist organized parishes in the purchase of glebe lands and the building of rectories

When we come to think of the comparative poverty, honorable though it be, of some of our faithful, hard-working clergy, the advantage of helping them and their struggling parishes through such a fund as this will be readily seen.

The fund is guarded by such rules that only the most worthy and deserving may secure assistance—yet the Trustees could use very much more than the income now at their disposal.

Your attention is, therefore, very earnestly called to this fund, which promises such an opportunity to those who may be seeking a worthy object for bequest and endowment.

Because of the confidential nature of much of the assistance rendered, little can be made of it in a report such as this. The Trustees have met from time to time during the past year and made such grants as the income from the fund at their disposal would allow. The fund at their command and the nature of its investment, and the grants made from it, will appear in detail in the report of the Treasurer herewith appended.

President.

Secretary.

W. PIERSON HAMILTON,

Treasurer.

Examined and found correct.

WM. ALEXR. SMITH.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Humphreys, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for Mr. George Coppel and Mr. Wm. Pierson Hamilton, to succeed themselves as Trustees for the term of three years. The Secretary reported that he had cast the ballot, and the Chair declared them duly elected.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the following report :

Report

OF THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL COMMISSION.

The work of the Sunday-school Commission during the past year has been largely preparatory, laying the foundations for the future. It has set itself to the task of creating a higher ideal of what the Sunday-school is, to make clear its educational character, to raise up and train an order of teachers that shall better realize the dignity and seriousness of their calling. In presenting this Report, the Commission fully understands the preliminary nature of the year's work. But it desires to say at the start that not a step has been taken that has not been distinctly forward, and not an effort made that has not been constructive. We have been less concerned to accomplish sudden results than to lay the foundation for permanent advance.

I. The statistical feature of the year's work is not without encouragement. The Lectures in the Christian Knowledge Course last autumn were attended by over 570 different persons. Following these lectures, a Winter Course on the Life of Christ was given in Grace Chantry by the Rev. John P. Peters, D.D., Rector of St. Michael's Church, New York, and a Spring Course in the Church of the Incarnation, on the life of St. Paul, by the Rev. George R. Van De Water, D.D., Rector of St. Andrew's, and Chaplain of Columbia University. These lectures were of singular charm and value throughout. At the three courses there was an attendance representing nearly 800 different persons, most of them directly identified with Sunday-school work.

In May an all-day conference was held in the Crypt of the Cathedral, and in the evening at St. Michael's Church, presided over by the Bishop of the Diocese, at which about 500 persons attended, 100 of whom were clergy. It was in all respects a notable conference, both in the interest thus shown and the importance of its discussions. During the past year nearly 300 letters have been received by the Secretary alone, 6,500 circulars and notices have been distributed, 40,000 copies of the Reading Courses have been published, and over 2,000 of these issued to date. Letters of inquiry have been received from all sections of the country, showing the far-reaching interest felt in this Diocesan movement for better schools.

II. The publications of the Commission.

1. The Course of Lectures on the "Principles of Religious Education," originally delivered in the autumn of 1899 in St. Bartholomew's Church, New York the Rev. Dr. D. H. Greer, Rector, and published by Longmans, Green & Co., of New York and London, with an introduction by the Bishop of New York. The object of these lectures may be briefly stated as follows : It is widely felt that our religious schools are not doing their proper work. The Church has stood still, while the day-school has been advancing along the lines of educational reform. The study of pedagogical principles has been made an essential in secular education, while the Church has entirely overlooked it, as applied to her Sunday-schools, and almost completely ignored it in the training of her clergy. And she has done this in spite of the fact that in theory the Teaching Function of the Church is her most ancient and characteristic one, and lies at the very heart of her commission.

The basic principle, therefore, underlying these lectures is that the Sunday-school is a school. Its problems are educational problems. Its scope of instruction, its curriculum, its text-books, charts, maps, the equipment and training of its teachers, the hours and times and places of its work—all these are questions to be considered in the light of educational principles. Hence it is important to consider religious education first from the standpoint of acknowledged leaders in the cause of secular education. This course of lectures, covering roughly the entire field, each lecture presenting its own point of view, and all converging on the one general object, was arranged and carried out with the generous coöperation of the following gentlemen : The Rt. Rev. Wm. Crosswell Doane, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of Albany ; the Very Rev. George Hodges, D.D., Dean of the Cambridge Divinity School ; Prof. Charles DeGarmo, of Cornell University ; Dr. G. Stanley Hall, President of Clark University ; Prof. Frank Morton McMurry, Professor of the "Theory of Teaching," in Teachers' College, Columbia University ; Prof. Charles Foster Kent, of Brown University, and Prof. Richard G. Moulton, of Chicago University.

To these were added the following members of the Sunday-school Commission : Prof. Nicholas Murray Butler, Dean of the Department of Philosophy, Columbia University ; Dr. Walter L. Hervey, of the New York Board of Education, and former president of the Teachers College and the chairman of the Commission.

The particular topics covered by the lectures were : "The Relation of Religious Instruction to Education as a Whole," "The Educational Work of the Christian Church," "The Present Status of Religious Instruction in England, France, Germany, and the United States," "The Content of Religious Instruction," "The Making of a Course of Study for Sunday-schools," "The Preparation of the Teacher," "The Religious Content of the Child's Mind," "The Use of Biography," "The Use of Geography," and "The Bible as Literature."

2. "A Manual on the Four Gospels," by the Rev. Dr. J. L. Hurlbut, said by competent authority to be the best and most compact manual on this subject yet published, and eminently useful for Bible classes.

3. A syllabus to accompany Mr. Patterson DuBois' book, "The Point of Contact in Teaching." Educators all agree upon the high value of DuBois' book to secular and religious teachers. Dr. Walter L. Hervey, who is a member of our Commission, prepared this syllabus to enable teachers to study the book more practically and helpfully. It is the work of one who is himself a distinguished educator, and will be found extremely useful.

4. The Normal Reading Courses. These reading courses, twelve in number, have been arranged with a view to providing for those teachers who have never had the privilege of special pedagogical training, and satisfactory preparation for their work, the most practically helpful sort of information. The Course No. I, on "The Principles of Religious Teaching," is absolutely fundamental to effective work. The other courses can be undertaken, either individually or in classes, in any parish in the Diocese. They cover very thoroughly all the subjects taught in our Sunday-schools. The list of required books in any course is small, but carefully selected, and in addition to these, the lists of optional books are notable for their completeness and detail. Whatever be the scheme of lessons used in any school, these reading courses furnish a selection of books for the teacher's private study of unusual value. Nowhere else, we venture to say, can an equally valuable bibliography of religious knowledge be found for both clergy and teachers.

As indicating the impression made so far by the work of the Commission, and these published reading courses, letters of inquiry have been received from some fourteen different States, and it is hoped that they will be found useful by Sunday-school workers outside our own Diocese. These lists will be found full of practical help in choosing books for teachers' reference libraries.

III. The work proposed for the year.

1. In the City of New York the Commission has arranged a series of training classes, to be held at different centres, so that teachers in varied sections may be equally accommodated. These classes are of two grades :

(a) The advanced class, having a course of ten lessons, with a fee of five dollars ($5) for the course.

(b) The elementary classes, giving five lessons each, at a fee of two dollars and a half ($2.50).

The subject covered by the advanced class will be "The Principles and Methods of the Art of Teaching." It will be conducted by Prof. John F. Reigart. It is much to be desired that each parish choose at least one representative to attend this valuable class. The elementary classes will deal with the following topics : "The Point of Contact, or How to Teach," taught by Dr. Walter L. Hervey, Examiner of the New York Board of Education ; "The Art of Story-telling," taught by Prof. Franklin T. Baker, of Columbia University, and "How to Find the Point and How to Make it in Teaching," taught by Miss Emma G. Sebring, of Columbia.

These classes will prove invaluable aids to all Sunday-school teachers. They approach the subject of teaching from the simplest and most elementary, and yet the most thorough point of view.

The Commission now requests that the rectors, superintendents, and teachers at once take this matter up. The membership in these classes must necessarily be extremely limited, and we ask that the names of those who desire to avail themselves of this unusual opportunity be sent so soon as possible to the Secretary of the Commission. It is not often that teachers can secure instruction from the foremost educators in this city and Columbia University.

Where teachers might not be able personally to meet the expenses of such classes, the Commission begs to suggest that schools and parishes could make no better investment of their funds than to select two or more teachers to receive such a training, as representatives of the Sunday-school. The benefit to the school would be most marked.

2. Outside the city. It is obviously impracticable to organize similar training classes outside the city. But this does not make it impossible for village churches to arrange for effective work in this direction. The Commission makes, therefore, the following suggestions:

a. The teachers of any Sunday-school can take up as a class, or individually, the study of Course No. I. on "The Principles of Religious Education." This can be done under the direction of the rector. But in many cases it will be possible for the rector to enlist the interest of some public school teacher, whose special training can be brought into requisition for the benefit of the Church. The fact that in the majority of cases the secular teacher may not be a communicant of our own Church is certainly no valid objection to such a course. The Church can here, as in many other instances, make wise use of the expert knowledge and skill within her reach.

b. The Commission also proposes to make arrangements to secure the occasional visit of certain highly accomplished educators to parishes outside of New York City, at a minimum of cost. The inspiration of such a visit upon the teachers of any Sunday-school will only be realized by those who shall make a trial of it. This suggestion is not a visionary one. The thing has been tested and has proved its worth. The bane of much of our Sunday-school work is the sense of its inefficiency, an inefficiency that grows out of its indefinite methods, and an incessant activity that follows no proper law.

The presence and counsel of the thoughtful public school teacher, or an accomplished educator from some great university, will go far towards awakening a new ideal of their work, and putting a fresh enthusiasm and faith into the hearts of our teachers.

(c) The question has no doubt been asked: What has the Commission accomplished in the way of lessons? Has it any scheme ready for use? The question is a natural one. Let us frankly answer it. The Commission has no scheme ready to present, but there is a reason for this:

1. If the purpose of the Commission were to prepare a series of lessons after the manner of those so well known, e.g., the Joint Diocesan, the International, or even the Blakeslee, the problem would be of the simplest nature. But this is not, as we understand it, the purpose for which the Commission was created; and further, the Church in her charter declaration, the exhortation to godparents in the Office of Holy Baptism, goes beyond this. She declares that her children are to be taught "the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, the Ten Commandments, and all the things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health." In short, the Church passes beyond the above systems of lessons, and beyond the covers of the Bible itself, into the sphere of religious education. Here the problem changes from the simple one of selecting lessons from the Bible to the deeper one of constructing a scheme of education which shall cover the work the Church contemplates. In other words, the Church is the teacher of the Faith; and she commands us to do her work as teachers. Once concede this, and we find that the work of religious teaching takes its place beside all other educational work. We cannot, therefore, concede that the work of the University and the High School demands any more serious study on the part of the State than the Theological Seminary and the Sunday-school demand on the part of the Church. The spirit of impatience, no less than the spirit of indifference, must be dismissed. The Sunday-school has a relation to the Church far too serious for us to neglect as profound a study of its educational problems as we are willing to give to those of the secular school.

In accordance with this conviction, the Sunday-school Commission has appointed a special committee to take up the question of curriculum. This committee has already arranged to work in conjunction with gentlemen connected with Columbia University, and has the assurance of coöperation from representatives of other universities with a view to the best available order of subjects in the course of study for our Sunday-schools. The preparation of manuals and lessons will follow, and it is believed that in the near future the Commission will be able to present definite and concrete results as a working basis in our schools.

IV. In conclusion, the Commission desires to call the attention of the Convention to the importance of pedagogical training in our theological seminaries. The ministry of the Church must possess an educational power. It is directly responsible for the teaching of the young, yet it is notably deficient in its training for that duty. The theological school may make an educated ministry, but more than this, it must make a ministry of educators, men who have learned the art of the teacher, men who know the heart and mind of childhood and who bring into their priestly and pastoral life the not less sacred skill of the teacher. The theological school without its chair of Pedagogics should in this age be no longer possible.

The Commission simply asks that the clergy and Sunday-school teachers of the Diocese will make every effort to test the practical value of the proposals laid before them, believing that in this way the whole question of the Sunday-school will take on that higher importance and dignity which belong to it in the life of the Church.

PASCAL HARROWER,
Chairman.

The Secretary presented the following report, which, on motion, was made the order of the day immediately after the recess on Thursday :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE ESTABLISHMENT AND REMOVAL OF CHURCHES.

Your Committee recommends the amendment of Canon XIV. by the addition of the following paragraph :

Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which such work is situated, may be prosecuted temporarily at such point, or points, as may be from time to time designated by them ; but such work shall not be continued more than one year, nor shall any building for such work be erected until the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee shall have been obtained in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sections of this Canon.

Number the three paragraphs as Sec. I., II., and III.

The Rev. George R. Van De Water, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That in view of the important responsibility resting upon the Ministry of the Church in the religious education of the young, it is the conviction of this Convention that special preparation and training for this work should be given to all candidates for Holy Orders ; and, secondly, that to this end a thorough practical training in the principles and methods of Religious Pedagogics should form a part of the curriculum of all institutions for theological learning.

The Rev. J. M. Chew presented the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATE LAW RELATING TO INCORPORATION OF CHURCHES.

This Committee on the State Law relating to Incorporation of Churches, consisting of the Reverend Secretary of this Convention, Thomas R. Harris, D.D., Hon. Delano C. Calvin, Mr. George Macculloch Miller, Mr. George Zabriskie, and myself, to whom three successive Conventions have committed matters relating to proposed amendments of the law, in order to devise such amendments, to confer with the ecclesiastical authorities of the other dioceses in the State, to secure their concurrence, and the passage by the Legislature of these amendments, now makes a final report.

The proposed amendment, requiring that the trustees or vestry of an incorporated parish shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property, without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the diocese to which such church belongs, was presented by this Committee to the last Legislature (having secured first the approval of the other dioceses, or a majority thereof), and was enacted into a statute, which now governs all parishes in this State.

The Committee calls attention to the effect of these various amendments, to clarify the involved language, to rectify or reconcile the contradictory provisions of the State law, and to simplify the action of new parishes, or of old parishes when desired by them : (1) in securing rotation of office in their vestries ; (2) in holding their annual elections in the Advent season ; and (3) by this final important amendment a new obligation is laid upon all parishes, which is neither an attempt to concentrate power in the executive authorities of the diocese, nor an interference with established charter rights of parishes, nor a useless restriction, but a precautionary and useful check upon the hasty despoliation of parishes, by requiring episcopal advice for the alienation of the real property with which a parish may be vested.

All necessary forms of legal papers, for the use of parishes in conforming with the law, having been prepared by this Committee, may be obtained from the Secretary of this Convention.

In conclusion, the Committee has found the duty of conferring with the authorities of the other dioceses a pleasant one ; and their experience shows that such conferences, on matters relating to common interest, are helpful and suggestive, and not barren of results.

The Committee proposes to the Convention the following resolution :

Resolved, That the State Law relating to Incorporation of Churches, passed in 1895, so far as it refers to this Church, with the amendments since then adopted, be printed in the Journal of this Convention.

JOHN MARSHALL CHEW,
Chairman.

The resolution appended to the report was adopted.

The Rev. D. H. Greer, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Convention authorizes the appropriation from the Diocesan fund of $500, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to meet the expenses of the work of the Sunday-school Commission—the said sum to be expended subject to the approval of the Bishop.

The Rev. J. M. Chew offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Bishop, clergy, and laity of the Diocese of New York, in Convention assembled, extend their profound sympathy to the Bishop, clergy, and laity of the Diocese of Texas, in their sorrows and losses occasioned by the recent memorable and awful disaster ; together with the assurance of their hearty thanks to Almighty God for the indomitable faith and courage with which the people of Texas are preparing to retrieve their material losses and to continue the work of God in that State.

Resolved, That this resolution be communicated to the Bishop of Texas by the Secretary of Convention.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to renew the appointment of a Committee to visit the Church Schools of the Diocese as opportunity may be afforded them and invitation be given, and that such committee be asked to report at their convenience as to the various opportunities for instruction under Church auspices afforded within the Diocese.

The Secretary presented the following report :

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE DIOCESAN FUND.

The Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund respectfully recommends to the Convention the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That there be paid to the Clergy attending the Convention who reside more than twenty miles from the place of meeting, and whose parishes have contributed to the Fund as required by the Canon, ten cents for every mile of the distance from their respective parishes, and that the remainder be appropriated to paying for the printing of the Journal of the Convention, and the canonical, customary, and prescribed expenses of the Diocese.

Resolved, 2. That the contribution to be required, according to Canon XV. of the Diocese, from every congregation of the Diocese to the Diocesan Fund for the Conventional year 1900-1901 be one and one-half per cent. on the amount of the salary of its clergyman.

Resolved, 3. That the sum of $250 be appropriated for expenses at the See House, 29 Lafayette Place.

AUGUSTUS WIGGIN.

WM. N. DUNNELL.

On motion, the foregoing resolutions were adopted.

On motion, the Convention adjourned until Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, September 27, 1900.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Morning Prayer was said by the Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Wm. M. Grosvenor, D.D., Rector of the Church of the Incarnation, New York; the Rev. D. J. Evans, Rector of Grace Church, Middletown, and the Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., Secretary of the Convention.

The Bishop of the Diocese took the chair, and the minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

On motion, the calling of the roll of delegates was omitted, and delegates present to-day but not present yesterday were requested to send their names to the Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. Octavius Applegate, D.D., the Convention voted to sit as the Board of Missions immediately after the consideration of the proposed amendment to Canon XIV.

The Right Reverend the Bishop of the Diocese presented his Annual Address, and after reading a list of Bishops, Presbyters, and Laymen deceased during the past year, called the Convention to prayer, which was said by the Rev. Wm. M. Grosvenor, D.D., Rector of the Church of the Incarnation, New York.

The Rev. Thomas Richey, D.D., in accordance with a notice given by him at Wednesday's session, offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to report to the next Convention of the Diocese whether it is expedient at this time to take steps towards the division of the Diocese of New York ; and if so, to pre-ent for consideration some plan whereby the corporate relations of the new dioceses may be preserved intact, so far as the work of missions and Church extension is concerned, and the relations of the Bishops of the several dioceses to the Cathedral of the Metropolitan See as honorary members of the Cathedral body and entitled to prebendal stalls in the same.

After considerable discussion, the resolution was not adopted.

On motion of the Rev. Wm. J. Seabury, D.D., the following resolution was referred to the Committee on Canons :

Resolved, That Rule I., subsection 8, of the Rules of Order be amended so as to read :

"The Receiving and Referring of Reports, to be included in the Journal, and read if called for by vote of the Convention, as follows:"

The Secretary reported to the Convention the following nominations, in accordance with the provisions of Canon IX. :

The Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D., withdrew his name from the list of nominations for Deputies to the General Convention.

On motion, the rule of order requiring the calling of the roll of the names of the clergy and parishes in connection with the elections was dispensed with.

On motion of Mr. George Zabriskie, the following extract from the Bishop's Address was referred to a special committee to report to the next Convention, viz.:

The first is as to some such Canonical or other disciplinary provision as shall more effectually than at present discourage Parochial intrusion, whether by individuals or by parishes, and which shall affirm and enforce the right of the Diocese to define Parochial boundaries, and attach some definite penalty to invasions of them.

The Chair appointed as such committee :

The Rev. JOHN P. PETERS, D.D.

The Rev. J. LEWIS PARKS, D.D. Mr. GEORGE ZABRISKIE.

The time for recess having arrived, the Convention adjourned for one hour.

On reassembling, the Inspectors of Election presented their reports :

The Rev. Wm. R. Huntington, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted by a rising vote :

Resolved, That this Convention has noticed with regret the absence from his accustomed place, by reason of illness, of the Rev. Dr. Dix, Rector of Trinity Church and President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese ; that it sends him affectionate greeting, together with an expression of its earnest hope that, by the blessing of God, he may be speedily restored to health and to the manifold activities of his historic cure.

The order of the day being called, the Rev. Dr. Harris, in behalf of the special committee on the amendment of the Canon as to the establishment and removal of churches, offered the following amendment, which was adopted by a concurrent vote of both orders :

Amend Canon XIV. by the addition of the following paragraph :

“ Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which such work is situated, may be prosecuted temporarily at such point or points as may be from time to time designated by them, after consultation with the rectors of the three nearest parishes ; but such work shall not be continued more than one year, nor shall any building for such work be erected, unless the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee shall have been obtained in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sections of this Canon.”

Number the three paragraphs as Sections I., II., and III.

The Rev. Wm. R. Huntington, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That the Bishop of the Diocese, as head of the Cathedral body, be requested to investigate the indignities alleged to have been offered to the clergy of the Pro-Cathedral by the police authorities of the district in which the said Pro-Cathedral is situate, and, if just cause be found, to make formal protest, in the name of the Church, to the Mayor of New York.

The Convention proceeded to sit as the Board of Missions.

The Rev. Amos T. Ashton presented the following

Report

OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS

The Board of Managers of Diocesan Missions respectfully report as follows :

1. The Archdeacon of Dutchess reports that the general condition of the work is satisfactory. There are ten stations under the care of the Archdeaconry, the same number as last year, and none have been able to relinquish any portion of the aid hitherto given them. There is hope, in the case of three or four stations, that either the amount granted may be reduced or that the station itself may raise a larger sum of money, that the missionary may have a fairer living stipend.

Amenia Union still remains under the care of the Rev. Dr. J. S. Clark. Unfortunately, the invested funds of this parish, forming a partial endowment, have been unproductive. The Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Diocese who had charge of the fund were obliged to foreclose the mortgage in which the money had been invested, and the amount of $395 which came from this fund to the support of the parish was borrowed by the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry on their personal note, in the expectation that the fund may be profitably reinvested within the next twelve months.

The Church services at Dover Plains are carried on by Mr. A. C. Burdick, a Lay Reader, under the supervision of Dr. Clark, who once a month administers the Holy Communion. The project for building a church is still in abeyance. To make the most of the opportunities at this station would involve a change in the arrangement of our working force which at present is considered inexpedient.

St. Mark's Church, Carthage Landing, which for four years past has been served by a Lay Reader, Mr. W. H. Reeve of New Hamburg, is now under the charge of the Rev. J. H. Ivie, Rector of Trinity Church, Fishkill. The people at Carthage Landing will contribute $300 per annum for the support of the service.

The station at Glenham, under the care of Rev. Mr. Ivie, is in a satisfactory condition. There is a good prospect that within two or three years this parish will be able to give up some of the appropriation now made toward its support.

At Hopewell Junction the work still continues encouraging. Much has been done in the improvement of the property, and an effort is now making to provide a house for the Missionary. The Rev. Mr. Probst and his wife are most devoted and efficient workers in the field.

At Lithgow the Church is served by the Rev. Mr. Duncan, from Millbrook. The establishment of a Sunday-school has been a measure of marked advance in the work of the last year.

At Pine Plains the Rev. Mr. Grubbe is in charge, to the complete acceptance of the people. The Church exerts an influence in this community second to no other religious body. It is a matter of regret, and a reason for our sympathy, that impaired health has prevented Mr. Grubbe from prosecuting missionary work in the adjacent country, which he might otherwise have done.

At Pleasant Valley we are fortunate in having the energetic services of the Rev. Frederick Smith. All that can be done in the community, it is believed, is done by Mr. Smith for the Church.

At West Pawling the work continues largely in the direction of teaching school and general religious influence. The work promises to be of more importance this coming winter, but we can hardly hope at present to establish much in the way of Church service.

Two of our missionaries, we feel, receive very inadequate stipends, $600; and our efforts must be directed to increasing the independence of certain other places, and of rousing the stations to which these two missionaries are appointed to a fuller sense of their obligation and responsibility.

2. The Archdeacon of Orange reports that during the past year twenty-one mission stations have been served by fourteen missionaries. The year has been notable for much spiritual fruitage in Baptisms and Confirmations.

Under the Rev. Henry Barker, St. Thomas' Chapel, at Rifton Glen, has been completed, formally opened, and regularly used. It supplies Church services to a community of five hundred people.

St. John's Church, High Falls, was consecrated by the Bishop of the Diocese, July 12th, the Archdeacon reading the sentence of consecration. The Rev. W. J. C. Agnew, the missionary, has labored in this field, which includes St. Peter's, Stone Ridge, and St. John's, High Falls, for ten years, giving five services each Sunday besides those on week days.

Services have been regularly maintained during the summer at Greenwood Lake, Orange Co., and at Christ Church, Meads Mount, and at St. Bartholomew's, Big Indian, both the latter in the Catskill Mountains region of Ulster County.

Substantial progress has been made in this Archdeaconry since its organization in 1887. Fifteen hundred dollars then appropriated have since been released. This has been accomplished by two modes—the first that of parishes becoming independent of missionary aid, and the second by the voluntary surrender of a part of the missionary stipend. The Archdeaconry is now an incorporated body, with its carefully selected Committee on Trust Funds, as well as on Land Titles. Careful guardianship, intelligent management, and scrupulous application of all property or funds given to it, or willed to it, may be relied upon. The Archdeacon would respectfully remind the members of the Church of the paramount necessity of the missionary work of the Diocese, and he begs to suggest that the Convention give its approval to some such plan of endowment to Diocesan Missions as may commend itself to its collective wisdom, and that this Board of Missions authorize the presentation of such suggestion in its annual report.

3. The Archdeacon of Westchester reports that the year has been marked with good signs of spiritual and material activity. The annual reports of our missionaries show efficient service. There is a call for new missions, with the increasing number of Church families removing into our Archdeaconry.

In former years we have had to report the depletion of our towns, villages, and hamlets by the removal of families or young men and women to the city. The tide is changing as homes are being acquired within reasonable distance of the city, and in some portions of Rockland County this steady movement is going on, and it means that the Church must be ready to shepherd her children, and to give them in their new environment her spiritual guidance and privilege. Often this can be done by the rectors of parishes near enough to minister to such places, illustrations of which may be seen in St. Mary's Chapel, Sherwood Park, Mount Vernon, All Saints', Harrison, and others. But in some places this is not possible, and the Archdeaconry should do the work. The Archdeaconry in its three counties represents the efficiency, or lack, with which the mission work can be done. Westchester, with its large parishes and able constituency, is the first; Rockland County, with few strong parishes and less able following, is the next; while Putnam County affords the type of a purely missionary character, whose work is largely to be supported by our Diocesan or Archdeaconry treasury. This Archdeaconry contributes generously each year a large sum, but with the work going on and with the opening door confronting us, we shall still have to ask for the continuance of sympathy and aid from the Diocesan Board of Managers.

The mission at Lewisboro, under the Rev. C. M. Selleck, "has reached its boundary line between the past and the future; struggle has had its period, success its sunrise." The newly consecrated chapel is winning new friends; the services are commending the Church to home-born and stranger, offerings are larger, and special donations are increasing at Lewisboro and Salem.

The Rev. Mr. Bolton at Pelham, the Rev. Mr. Buckmaster at Tuckahoe, and the Rev. Mr. Holmes at Pleasantville are carrying on a work, in their respective fields, of increasing interest.

The Rev. Mr. Cruger and the Rev. Mr. Chamberlaine continue their faithful labors in their respective Missions.

In Rockland County the Rev. Thomas Stephens ministers with singular devotion to the three churches—St. Paul's, Spring Valley, St. John's, New City, and St. Stephen's, Pearl River—holding services as well at the County Almshouse. His work is always vigorous, and its influence extends throughout the whole county.

The Rev. Mr. Masker serves at Haverstraw, Tomkins Cove, and Jones Point. He reports an increased attendance at Church services.

The Rev. E. D. Sutcliffe is doing efficient work at Lake Mahopac and at Richardville. At Lake Mahopac $900 have been raised towards the Rectory Fund.

The Rector of Brewsters, the Rev. Frank Heartfield, adds to his duties by his untiring devotion to two Missions near by at Tilly Foster Mines and Dean's Corners.

The Rev. Mr. Meldrum serves faithfully at Christ Church, Patterson.

We have good cause to be grateful for the earnest coöperation of our clergy and parishes in the work and its support. And we would here acknowledge how thankful we are to the Diocesan Board of Managers for their generous help.

With a mission field ever growing in interest and bearing good fruit for every effort put forth ; with a devoted band of missionaries who stand in their lot, endure hardness, but work with added vigor year by year ; and with a warm sympathetic interest and large offerings from the clergy and churches in our Archdeaconry, we have good reasons to thank God and take courage in our work.

4. The Archdeacon of Richmond reports :

In summing up the work for the past year, there is much cause for encouragement. The reports of the missionaries from the several stations indicate a general welfare, and steady progress.

The Chapel of Our Father, at Mariners' Harbor, has sustained a great loss in the death of the Rev. Dr. Sweeny, who took charge of the Mission in December, 1899. By his faithful labor and earnest ministrations he had endeared himself to the entire community, and the prospect of growth and prosperity seemed assured. The mission is now under the care of the Rev. Wm. A. Swan. The financial condition of the mission is encouraging.

The Rev. Mr. Lawrence reports steady growth at St. Simon's, Concord, as well as an increase in the number of communicants and a gratifying activity in the various parish organizations. The resources of the mission are extremely limited, while the needs are constant and pressing.

At Garretson's the services have been well attended, the parish organizations are in a prosperous condition, and all financial obligations have been met. It is hoped that when a site can be secured, a new chapel will be erected.

The Rev. Mr. Locke, at New Dorp, has made the past year memorable by the erection of a beautiful and commodious chapel, which has been completed without debt or encumbrance, and the prospects of the mission are very favorable.

At Eltingville, Mr. Locke reports a sound financial condition, with a steady, though not large attendance at the services.

The Rev. Mr. Fair, at St. Stephen's Church, Tottenville, has continued his labors with gratifying success. His report shows great activity in the parish, and a most conscientious pastoral care on his part. The amount of money raised by the parish is very creditable, and the Archdeaconry hopes to increase the financial aid given to this work.

It is with great regret that the Archdeacon reports the retirement of Mr. Bache McE. Whitlock, for many years our efficient Treasurer. On account of physical infirmities, he has been obliged to resign his office.

5. The Archdeacon of New York reports that the Archdeaconry during the past year has continued, as its chief work, the work of Church Extension in the new parts of the city. Work among foreign-speaking peoples has been carried on as heretofore, chiefly by the special churches, having these special missions in charge, under the oversight of the Archdeacon.

The call for the work of Church Extension is imperative and constantly increasing. The growth of the city, especially in the Borough of the Bronx, beyond the Harlem River, is beyond all precedent. "The stimulus to development in the upper portions of the city is shown by the fact (stated in an official Municipal Report) that in the Borough of the Bronx plans were filed last year for 2,500 new buildings, at an estimated cost of $20,000,000, compared with 1,400 buildings in 1895, at a cost of $8,000,000."

Into this region pour in a constant stream the wage-earners, clerks, teachers, and mechanics of small means, who need, and many of whom long for, the Church and her services, and are unable of themselves to establish and support the Church. To save these suburbs to Church influence, and to save these people, who migrate thither from the old downtown parishes, to the Church of their baptism, chapels must be planted and maintained for a while by the Church at large.

This city, as restricted to the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx (the boundary of the Archdeaconry of New York), increases its population at least 100,000 a year. This is at the rate of 2,000 a week, and this explains the rapid growth of the suburb of the Bronx. It is the wisdom of the Church to secure plots of land, and erect temporary buildings upon them, before the completion of the underground road doubles at least the price of land.

In such measure as the means put at its disposal by the churches and individuals has allowed, the Archdeaconry of New York, during the year just closed, has sought to minister to this crying need. The chapels, Sunday-schools, and services heretofore sustained have been invigorated, and several new points have been secured for the establishment of such Sunday-schools and services as Lay Readers can conduct. St. Stephen's, at Woodlawn; St. George's, at Williamsbridge; St. David's, in East 158th Street; St. Edmund's, at Mt. Hope; St. Alban's, High Bridge; St. Margaret's, St. Simon's, and The Advocate have been prosecuted with vigor, and a new parish, The Atonement, still farther west, has been started.

In brief, the result of the year's work shows both the need and promise of the work. To it the churches should be actively astir.

It is gratifying to record that during the past year many more churches have received the Archdeacon into their pulpits than before, and that more collections have been taken.

The work of the Archdeaconry of New York is therefore prosperous, but its very prosperity is an index of its increasing need.

All which is respectfully submitted.

The Rev. Thomas L. Cole presented the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Board of Managers of Missions be requested hereafter, in making its annual report, to provide that, apart from such items of the report as are general in character, those items which pertain particularly to any Archdeaconry shall be presented by the Archdeacon of that Archdeaconry.

The Rev. Thomas L. Cole presented the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Board of Managers be instructed to provide copies of the map of the Diocese, reduced in size, for the use of the members of the Board of Missions, and to make proper distribution of the same.

The Board of Missions adjourned, and the Convention resumed its session.

Mr. George Macculloch Miller offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That two thousand copies of the Bishop's Charge be printed separately and distributed under the direction of the Secretary.

The Rev. Charles F. Canedy, D.D., presented the following report :

Report

OF COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Committee on the General Theological Seminary respectfully report the vigorous progress of that Institution.

The new buildings, formally opened last May, are, in construction and scope, altogether worthy of the honored names they bear.

It should be a matter of Diocesan record that, by the blessing of God, during the term of service of the present Dean the number of students and professors has nearly doubled ; five endowed fellowships have been established ; to the old stone buildings have been added the beautiful chapel, the fire-proof library, Sherred Hall with its commodious lecture rooms, the noble refectory and gymnasium, six dormitories, the deanery and five houses for professors, at a cost of more than seven hundred thousand dollars, while the endowment has grown from about one hundred thousand dollars to more than a million and a quarter.

At the meeting of the Board of Trustees last year, a minute was adopted expressive of the appreciation by the Board of the eminent services of the Dean for a period of twenty years.

Your Committee agree with the Trustees, that "no nobler example of loving labor and sacrifice is found in the American Church—an example which has inspired others to emulation in generosity, liberality, and devotion. And we note with special pleasure not only this material development, but also a corresponding advance in sacred learning, ministerial culture, and spiritual power."

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES F. CANEDY.

CHAS. F. HOFFMAN, JR.

Mr. John A. Beall offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Convention a readjustment of the territory of the several Dioceses within the State of New York would be of advantage to the work of the Church in the State ; and that a conference of the Bishops of said Dioceses and of representatives of the several Conventions thereof for the consideration of the subject is desirable ; and, therefore, that a committee be appointed to act with the Bishop of this Diocese to secure such conference and to represent this Diocese thereat.

The Chair appointed as such committee :

The Rev. W. R. Huntington, D.D.

The Rev. Thomas Richey, D.D.

The Rev. Prescott Evarts.

Mr. J. V. V. Olcott.

Mr. Albert E. Tower.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower offered the following resolutions, which were adopted :

Resolved, That the Sunday-school Commission, as appointed at the last Convention, be continued.

Resolved, That the Committee on Special Services and Public Meetings for Convention be continued.

The Rev. J. M. Chew offered the following resolutions, which were adopted :

Resolved, That the future of the Orient seems to this Convention to be brighter, because of the martyred blood of those native Christians in China who, in the spirit of our forefathers in times of the conversion of the Gentile world of the West, have remained steadfast in the faith, under persecution, even unto death ; that they might bear witness to the glory of God's mercy in Jesus Christ, and enduring to the end obtain the crown of life.

Resolved, That this Convention sends greeting and cheer to our brethren there, who, we trust, have escaped the worst of the recent calamities, but are still under the temporary eclipse of their best endeavors to convey into Asia the Light of the World.

Resolved, That the Convention sends, therefore, through its Secretary, to the Bishop of Shanghai a copy of this resolution, as a word of sympathy and encouragement from his brethren at home.

Mr. Geo. Macculloch Miller presented the following

The receipts from assessments during the year have been sufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary, but, no additions having been made to the capital of the fund during the year, the same assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of the year ending September, 1901. The Trustees therefore recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are hereby, authorized to assess the parishes of the Diocese at the rate of one per cent. upon the salaries paid to the clergy, for the purpose of raising the moneys needed for the Episcopal Fund, in lieu of the collections provided for by Canon.

GEO. MACCULLOCH MILLER.

JNO. MCL. NASH.

Two matters, I think, require the attention of the Convention, concerning which I trust that appropriate action will be taken before our final adjournment.

The first is as to some such Canonical or other disciplinary provision as shall more effectually than at present discourage Parochial intrusion, whether by individuals or by parishes, and which shall affirm and enforce the right of the Diocese to define Parochial boundaries, and attach some definite penalty as to invasions of them.

The other is as to the appointment of an assistant to the faithful Treasurer of this Diocese, our honored friend and servant Mr. James Pott. Mr. Pott enters with the coming year upon his fortieth year of service in that office, and has earned, as I think you will agree with me in saying, not only our grateful and affectionate respect for long and large service, but also some partial relief at least from the burden of its manifold details.

Commending you to God and the word of His grace, I pray that He may go with us to the new tasks that are before us.

HENRY C. POTTER,

Bishop of New York.

This community is entirely dependent on the factory with its allied branches, such as log cutting and the like. Until the autumn of 1898, this church was under the care of the Methodist minister in Phoenicia. Mr. and Mrs. Schwarzwaelder, communicants of St. Paul's Church, in Flatbush, L. I., owned (as now) the church, the factory, and nearly the entire village. By a peaceable arrangement with the Methodist minister the Methodist services were discontinued. Mr. Schwarzwaelder remodelled the church, invited the oversight of the Archdeaconry of Orange and the Diocese of New York, and under proper ecclesiastical authority settled a priest as pastor in February, 1899. On June 1, 1899, I succeeded him by an arrangement with Mr. Schwarzwaelder, and with the permission of the Archdeacon. Bishop Potter later confirmed the arrangement and appointed me missionary to this cure. Mr. Schwarzwaelder's help, and that of his devoted wife, are invaluable. They pay almost all the expenses. The work prospers, but it has much old-time prejudice to overcome.

This parish was incorporated in 1899. Its first vestry was elected July 3, 1899. Its first Rector assumed his duties, September 21, 1899. A small building is used as a place of worship. The fund for the erection of a new church amounts to $5,000 to $6,000. The cornerstone of the new structure was laid by the Bishop of the Diocese, May 25, 1900. As a "Sunday-school" and as a "Chapel," this work here has had an existence of some thirty years.

The Island Chapel is not the property of the Church, but its use is given us by the Trustees. During the months of July and August, and on one Sunday in June and one in September, a lay reader is employed and works under the direction of the Archdeacon of Orange. Many summer guests come to the Lake, and arrangements are made for the celebration of the Holy Communion on such Sundays as the services of visiting priests may be obtained. The Rev. Dr. John P. Peters, Rector of St. Michael's Church, New York, who has occupied a cottage some miles away, has been very good to us in this respect. The Archdeacon of Orange, who is in charge, makes regular visitations to this Mission, and baptizes the infants and adults, and administers the Eucharist and catechises the Sunday-school and visits the members of the congregation.

Church closed from February (1899) until September (1899), when the present Rector took charge. I have had to entirely reorganize the Parish. It seems to me to be of "more than local interest" that this Parish, originally started for the poor and neglected folk of Tivoli, should now, after a period of some thirty odd years as the chapel of a private school, again be the church of the people, all seats free, with a resident Rector.

A new altar, reredos, and mural decorations for the chancel are to be finished on November 1st, as a memorial of Rev. Dr. Charles F. Hoffman, for many years the Rector of this parish and its most munificent benefactor. A new Rectory has been erected adjoining the church on West End Avenue, at an expense of forty thousand dollars. A new stone choir-rail and pulpit, richly carved, designed, and executed by Karl Bitter, has been given by Mrs. Sarah R. Cornell, in memory of her husband and her two sons. It is expected that this costly gift will be consecrated on All Saints' Day.

During the year the bonded debt of this parish has been liquidated.

By the favor of the Bishop, our chief Sunday morning service has, since August, 1899, been held in the Crypt of the Cathedral; the Sunday-school and Guilds being held in a flat which we rented for that purpose.

We have acquired title to a most desirable site for a new church on the east side of St. Nicholas Avenue, between 114th and 115th Streets, at the junction of Seventh and St. Nicholas Avenues. We are about to file plans for a church, parish house, and rectory combined. With the cost of the land this will require an outlay of from $85,000 to $90,000, towards which sum we have, during the past year, got subscriptions of $17,000, $10,000 being already paid in. We ask for the prayers and alms of those who love the Church of Christ.

The services have been the Holy Eucharist daily. A second Eucharist and Morning and Evening Prayer on Sunday, also special services Friday evenings, winter and summer, and on very many other occasions, with sermons and catechisings.

This parish was incorporated May 8, 1897. Permission was granted it by the former Rector, the Rev. George H. Houghton, D.D., to continue until June to use Transfiguration Chapel. In June of that year a hall was rented at 230 Amsterdam Avenue, where Bishop Potter made his visitation in 1898. Services continued in a rented house, 221 West 69th Street, where Bishop Potter made his visitation in 1899. This property, including a lot 60 x 100 ft., was purchased last year, mainly through the generous contributions of the Bishop and the city clergy, and other noble friends. The house has been taken down and the basement of a portion of the church built. This crypt forms a very satisfactory church for the time being, and here Bishop Seymour, acting for Bishop Potter, confirmed the class in 1900.

This property is valued at $46,500.

In October, 1899, overtures looking to the consolidation of the two parishes were made by the Rector of St. Ignatius' Church. The matter was referred to the Bishop.

The large amount expended "For the Poor," is due to the generosity of a friend of the parish living elsewhere. The Ladies' Aid Society, with the co-operation of Mrs. Wm. H. Hoppock, sister of our late Senior Warden, Mr. Wm. W. L. Voorhis, paid for the laying of a handsome parquet flooring in the choir and sanctuary and on the steps to the altar. This present was given to "the Glory of God and in memory of deceased members of the Ladies' Aid Society," and forms a handsome and permanent improvement to the church building. The Ladies' Aid Society have also permanently improved the church property by paying for an iron railing fence, seventy-five feet long, erected in front of the church building. They have also helped to preserve the church building by paying for painting the exterior of the building. The Bishop of the Diocese visited this parish and confirmed forty-one candidates on the evening of May 27, 1900, too late for insertion among the statistics of this report. Twenty-nine candidates were presented by the Rector; two by the Rev. Wm. L. Evans, M.A.; and ten by the Rev. R. H. Wevill, of Highbridge. Adding 31 to the "Present Number, 360," in the report makes the "Present Number," after May 27th, just four hundred. One thousand dollars were paid on the mortgage last January, thus reducing it to fourteen thousand dollars.

The Rev. Edward H. Krans, LL.D., died on April 6, 1900, and by reason of his death we are unable to make this report as complete as we would like. From some of our funds invested upon bond and mortgage we have derived but small income, and one mortgage is now being foreclosed. Rev. Warren C. Hubbard, M.A., is in charge of the parish, pending the securing of a permanent Rector.

The church was closed from November 10th to December 10, 1899, both exclusive, to undergo extensive repair and renovation as well as interior decoration. A new carpet was laid over the middle aisle, and, later on, the roof, outside trimmings, doors, and stoop were painted.

The rectory has also received a new furnace, and the roadway through the property has been improved. St. Agatha's Guild, composed of girls from eight to fifteen years of age, organized January, 1900, sent at Easter a box of garments, made by themselves during the winter, to St. Giles' House for Crippled Children.

Services at Sherman Park have been necessarily suspended the past year.

The Sunday-school report includes 80 scholars at St. John's Chapel, and 10 officers at the same.

The chapel hitherto known as St. Andrew's Chapel, Evergreen Park, is now being set up at Arlington for the use of the people of St. John's Chapel, it having seemed undesirable to continue the work at Evergreen Park.

This report of services does not include those held at the chapels. At Saint Andrew's Chapel weekly service was held on Sundays until December 1st. At St. John's Chapel services have been held every Sunday, with celebration of Holy Communion on 1st Sunday in each month, excepting in August, 1899.

The new chapel is at last a reality. Ground was broken for the building August 28, 1899. The corner-stone was laid by the Venerable the Archdeacon of Orange, September 9, 1899, with the assistance of several visiting clergy, and in the presence of a large congregation.

The chapel was opened for divine service on Sunday, December 31, 1899, when the Rev. Thomas Burrows, of Rondout, preached the sermon.

The chapel has cost about $2,000, including furniture and heater, and substantially all is paid for. In order to effect this a sum of $600 has been advanced on mortgage and is still owing.

The congregation is increasing and encouraging. The work that was some years ago disheartening has now a bright future before it.

This parish has met with a very great loss in the death of Mr. H. Walter Webb, who had been for some years one of its Wardens, and whose loyal service and generous gifts had done much to build up the little country parish he loved so well. His name will be long remembered tenderly not only by his fellow-workers in St. Mary's, but also by the many in the neighborhood whose lives had been brightened by his generous gifts.

The present Rector assumed charge of this parish August 1, 1899. The above report is as full and correct as is possible under the circumstances. *Since October 1, 1899, donations and subscriptions have been sent in, so that the church (which was in very dilapidated condition) is being enlarged, thoroughly renovated, and beautified. A cloister and beautiful porch of cut stone is being added. The organ is being rebuilt and enlarged, and many improvements are being made. The corner property (house and lot) adjoining the church, has been purchased; a library and free reading-room is being established, part of the house being reserved for the sexton.

The work it is hoped will all be accomplished, and benediction and confirmation services take place some time in June. A full report of the whole work will be made in the next annual report.

The mission work at Christ Chapel, Tappan, is still continued, and many improvements have also been added there. Mr. George Heyn, Lay Reader for this parish, has done a good work and accomplished much in lay reading and in the Sunday-schools, of which he is superintendent.

APPENDIX D.

CLERICAL REPORTS.

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received reports, according to the Canon, from the following clergymen of the Diocese, not having parochial or missionary charge :

THE REV. WILLIAM S. BOARDMAN

"Begs to report : That during the Conventional year just expired he has officiated occasionally in the city of New York. He has of late assisted frequently in the services of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Paris, France."

THE REV. C. W. E. BODY, D.D.,

"Begs to report : That, in addition to the discharge of his various professorial and other duties at the General Theological Seminary, he has, during the year, preached a number of times in this and other Dioceses. He has also been actively engaged in the work of the Joint Commission of the General Convention on proposed new Marginal Readings of the Bible."

THE REV. CHARLES A. BRIGGS, D.D.,

"Reports : That, in addition to his regular duties as Professor in the Union Theological Seminary and to his literary labors on the Hebrew Lexicon, etc., he has officiated and preached frequently in the Pro-Cathedral and other churches in this and other Dioceses."

THE REV. MERRIWETHER BRODNAX

"Respectfully reports : That during the last twelve months he has officiated as he has had opportunity."

THE REV. P. K. CADY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports to the Bishop of New York: That during the past Conventional year his clerical work has been confined to the discharge of his duties as a Professor in the General Theological Seminary."

THE REV. CHARLES W. CAMP.

"During the canonical year just passed, I have officiated as opportunity and ability were afforded me, my ministrations being principally in the territorial limits of the Diocese of Long Island, and largely in the parish of the Church of the Resurrection, Richmond Hill, in which I reside. I have celebrated the Holy Communion 28 times, I have preached 17 sermons, and I have otherwise officiated 26 times—a total of 71 services from September 1, 1899, to September 1, 1900."

THE REV. HENRY A. DOWS

"Respectfully reports : That during the Conventional year he has rendered assistance from time to time to the Chaplain of the House of the Annunciation, and to the Rector of St. Luke's Church, in New York City."

THE REV. WILLIAM DU HAMEL

"Reports : That during the past year he has been officiating regularly in the Diocese of Delaware."

THE REV. ARTHUR WESTWORTH H. EATON

"Respectfully reports : That during the past year he has officiated as often as opportunity has offered or his school duties have permitted."

THE REV. RANDALL C. HALL, D.D.

"I beg leave respectfully to report : That during the past year I have occasionally assisted in the services of the Church in different places. During the past summer I officiated and preached in Stony Creek, Conn."

THE REV. A. N. HENSHAW, PH.D.

"Since I last reported, I have preached from time to time, and have assisted regularly in the Sunday service in Trinity Church, Plattsburgh."

THE VERY REV. EUGENE AUGUSTUS HOFFMAN, D.D. (OXON.), LL.D., D.C.L.,
Dean of the General Theological Seminary.

"Respectfully reports : That during the past year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as Dean of the General Theological Seminary, and frequently officiated for his brethren in this and other Dioceses. He has officiated at 4 marriages and 2 burials, all of which are recorded in the parishes to which the parties belonged."

THE REV. WILLIAM HUCKEL

"Respectfully reports : That during the past Conventional year he has been engaged in the public services of the Church."

THE REV. T. A. HYLAND.

"My health during a considerable portion of the past year has been so poor that I have been able to perform but very little duty. I have preached 10 times, and occasionally assisted in the services of the Church."

THE REV. RALPH WOOD KENTON.

"I have regularly performed my duties as Professor in the Amity Theological School, New York City. Last spring I was duly elected to the Chair of Apologetics and Christian Ethics in this school, and, at present writing, I am about to enter upon the duties of this office. Frequently during the year I have officiated and assisted at divine service in various churches, and it has given me great happiness to be able to assist several of the clergy as projected in my report of last year. I have officiated at 1 funeral, 2 weddings, and 3 baptisms."

THE REV. JOHN VAUGHAN LEWIS, D.D.

"I have to report : That since October 1, 1899, I have officiated on two Sundays and during Holy Week and Easter, in the Diocese of New Jersey. No other duty has been offered me, although I have endeavored to make known my willingness to serve, in every way except standing in line in the market place Fridays. I am too far from the great cities for that, if there were no other objection. I have been quite able for moderate work for two years past, and have sought it in vain during this Conventional year."

THE REV. W. G. W. LEWIS.

"I report: That during the past year I have been permitted to officiate during part of Lent, and since July 19, 1900, at the Home for Old Men and Aged Couples, as temporary Chaplain; besides, I have celebrated the Holy Communion 4 times, and assisted at public services several times in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre."

THE REV. ROBERT LOWRY

"Reports: That during the past year he has preached 6 times, and officiated at many services."

THE REV. ARTHUR MASON

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been occupied with his duties as Chaplain of the House of the Holy Comforter, Free Church Home for Incurables, New York City."

THE REV. HARRY W. NANCREDE

"Reports: That he continues to reside in Europe and that he has officiated frequently in All Saints', Rome, and elsewhere."

THE REV. D. BRAINARD RAY.

"Since the fall of 1897, I have administered the Holy Communion 36 times; have baptized 6 children; have attended 8 funerals; have performed 7 marriages; have preached 57 times; have taken the duties of Chaplain in St. Luke's Hospital for 1 month, holding services daily in the wards and in the Chapel; and have made many calls on the sick. I have also officiated at St. Luke's Home several times."

THE REV. EDWIN B. RICE

"Bids leave to report: That during the past year he has been steadily employed with his duties in connection with the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society at the Church Missions House in the city of New York."

THE REV. JOHN J. ROBERTS, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That he has no longer any official connection with St. John's, Sandwich, Mass."

THE REV. GEORGE SEABURY

"Respectfully reports: That he has, for personal reasons, spent almost the whole of the Conventional year in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, where, on one occasion, to fill an emergency, he conducted a week-day service—his only clerical duty during the year. Continued ill-health forbids the performance of any active duty, even if it were open to him."

THE REV. WILLIAM J. SEABURY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That he has attended as usual, since the date of his last report, May 1, 1899, to the duties of his professorship in the General Theological Seminary, and has exercised his ministry as occasion required, having officiated in celebrating Holy Eucharist 20 times; assisting at celebrations 9 times; reading morning and evening prayer 29 times; preaching 27 times; assisting at services 31 times; and delivering catechetical lectures 30 times—having also baptized 1 infant, solemnized 2 weddings, and officiated at 3 funerals."

THE REV. C. THEODORE SEIRT, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged, without intermission, in his duties as Professor of Moral Theology and Christian Philosophy in the General Theological Seminary."

THE REV. CORNELIUS B. SMITH, D.D.

"During all my ministry on the East Side, I have hoped that a great Parish settlement would be established near the river. Within the past year this vision has been realized beyond all my hopes in the completion of the remarkable group of buildings erected by Miss Sarah R. Melander, and endowed with $200,000 by St. James' Parish. I desire to put upon record my thanks to God for the beautiful Church and Chapel of the Holy Trinity, with Parish House and Vicarage, placed in the midst of people of moderate means. I have officiated and preached almost constantly in various churches, including those of my own parish."

THE REV. J. J. ROWAN SPONG, M.A., B.C.L., LL.B.

"During the year ending August 31, 1890, I have celebrated the Holy Communion 40 times; assisted at the same, 5 times; said the Litany, 67 times; Matins, 137 times; Evensong, 128 times; short offices, 58 times; administered Holy Baptism, twice; officiated at the burial of the dead, 8 times; gave religious instruction, 17 times; preached, 41 times; made 10 pastoral visits. In addition to the above, I assisted 5 gentlemen in their preparation for Holy Orders."

THE REV. J. FREDERICK TALCOTT.

"I would report: That during the past year I have continued my mission work as heretofore in this Diocese."

THE REV. WALTER THOMPSON, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past Conventional year he has officiated and preached 45 times; married 1 couple; officiated at 8 funerals; and celebrated the Holy Communion 11 times."

THE REV. ERNEST VOORHIS, Ph.D.,

"Begg to report: That he has continued officiating as Missionary for the City Mission Society, conducting services at the various city prisons and elsewhere as requested by the Superintendent; that he has baptized 1 infant; married 1 couple; and celebrated the Holy Communion 6 times. During the year past he has continued scholastic duties as formerly."

THE REV. WILLIAM WALSH.

"I was ordained Deacon by the Venerable Bishop Onderdonk, in St. Mark's Church in the Bowery, on the sixth Sunday after Trinity, July 3, 1842. I was admitted to Priest's Orders by the Venerable Missionary Bishop of the Northwest, Dr. Jackson Kemper, in the Chapel of the Nasholah Mission, to which I belonged for a time at Prairieville, now Waukeesa, on the third Sunday after the Epiphany, January 21, 1844. As I recall the past, it suggests both regret and satisfaction, and withal a feeling that I have been faithful in any parochial charge placed in my hands. For years past, with the consent and approval of our former revered Diocesan, Bishop Jackson Kemper, my services have been given chiefly as assistant to the Rev. R. Emery, Rector of Newburgh, as well as occasionally to other Rectors and to Missions."

THE REV. BENJAMIN WEBB

"Respectfully submits the following report of his services for the year ending with August 31, 1900: Celebrated the Holy Communion 163 times; assisted in the same service 5 times; ministered Holy Baptism to 3 adults; solemnized Holy Matrimony once; rendered the office for the Burial of the Dead once; said Morning and Evening Prayers 68 times; assisted in the latter once; and preached 12 times."

THE REV. JOHN W. H. WEIBEL

"Respectfully reports: That during the Conventional year he has officiated and preached 6 times, and assisted in the service twice, being prevented by sickness from doing more."

THE REV. PELHAM WILLIAMS, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That he entered upon his duties as Chaplain of the House of Mercy, Inwood, on the first Sunday in Advent, 1899. Since that day he has officiated, offering the Daily Eucharist, serving at Daily Evensong; and on Sundays, adding to these services Matins and Sermon. Sixteen girls were confirmed on the Feast of St. Barnabas."

* This is undoubtedly far below the real amount given by the Diocese for religious and charitable purposes.

Year after year the Secretary has added this note to the table of contributions. Under "Special Offerings, including Legacies" he has included such extraordinary gifts as have come to his knowledge. This year our own figures on this page show how utterly inadequate are the parochial reports to show the amount given by this Diocese for charitable and religious purposes. The amount given for Diocesan Missions is more than double the amount reported in the parochial reports for all diocesan purposes, while the amount reported by the Treasurer of the Board of Missions alone is over $100,000 in excess of the amount reported by the parishes as contributed for all objects outside the Diocese.

COMPARISON OF STATISTICS.

The following tables have been prepared by the Secretary to illustrate the growth of the Church in the Diocese of New York during the nineteenth century. The first table gives the statistics of six years, selected because they mark crises or turning points in our history. The year 1801 was the year in which Bishop Provoost resigned his office and Bishop Moore was elected as his successor as Bishop of New York. The feebleness and hopelessness of the Church are best shown by the fact that no convention had been held from 1797 to 1801. From the Journal of General Convention we learn there were 21 clergy resident in the whole State, and we find from the Diocesan Journal that 23 churches and chapels were represented at the convention, either by their clergy or by lay delegates. In 1838 the first division of the Diocese took place, and the Diocese of Western New York was set off. Bishop Onderdonk in his address to the Convention of 1839 gives the number of clergy and churches in the undivided Diocese in 1838. In 1839, the year subsequent to the division, the Journal gives us the first attempt at any table of diocesan statistics. It must be remembered in making comparisons that these statistics were very meagre, and that many of the parishes made no report at all. This was especially the case with the statistics of Sunday-school work. In 1868 the second division took place, and Albany and Long Island were set off. The statistics for 1869 show how far the strength of the mother Diocese had been reduced, and give us the means to compare the strength of the Church to-day with that of thirty years ago. These years, it will be observed, divide the century into three periods, 1801 to 1838, 1839 to 1868, and 1869 to 1900. The immense growth in the number of communicants will be noticed at once; but hardly less remarkable as showing the immense increase in the Church's influence as a social factor are the statistics of marriages and burials. It may be interesting to note the fact that there are to-day in the one Diocese of New York nearly as many communicants as there were in the Church in the United States fifty years ago.

In the second table will be found a summary of the statistics for each year from 1875 to 1900. During the period of 25 years the number of baptisms has increased 40 per cent., the number of confirmations 100 per cent., the number of communicants nearly 150 per cent., the number of marriages 160 per cent., the number of burials over 50 per cent., and the number of Sunday-school teachers and scholars about 100 per cent.

In the third table will be found a summary of baptisms, confirmations, marriages, and burials, arranged in periods of five years each. This table will be useful as showing at a glance how uniform and steady has been the growth of the Church during this period.

“ “ Diocesan “	114,537 56
“ “ General “	117,682 98

Expenditures for All Objects, including amounts not specified as for Parochial, Diocesan, and General Objects.....	$2,108,363 03
Special Offerings for Pious and Charitable purposes, including Legacies, not included in Parochial Reports.....	$2,280,000 00
Grand Total for All Objects *.....	$4,388,363 03

* This is undoubtedly far below the real amount given by the Diocese for religious and charitable purposes.

Year after year the Secretary has added this note to the table of contributions. Under “Special Offerings, including Legacies” he has included such extraordinary gifts as have come to his knowledge. This year our own figures on this page show how utterly inadequate are the parochial reports to show the amount given by this Diocese for charitable and religious purposes. The amount given for Diocesan Missions is more than double the amount reported in the parochial reports for all diocesan purposes, while the amount reported by the Treasurer of the Board of Missions alone is over $100,000 in excess of the amount reported by the parishes as contributed for all objects outside the Diocese.

COMPARISON OF STATISTICS.

The following tables have been prepared by the Secretary to illustrate the growth of the Church in the Diocese of New York during the nineteenth century. The first table gives the statistics of six years, selected because they mark crises or turning points in our history. The year 1801 was the year in which Bishop Provoost resigned his office and Bishop Moore was elected as his successor as Bishop of New York. The feebleness and hopelessness of the Church are best shown by the fact that no convention had been held from 1797 to 1801. From the Journal of General Convention we learn there were 21 clergy resident in the whole State, and we find from the Diocesan Journal that 23 churches and chapels were represented at the convention, either by their clergy or by lay delegates. In 1838 the first division of the Diocese took place, and the Diocese of Western New York was set off. Bishop Onderdonk in his address to the Convention of 1839 gives the number of clergy and churches in the undivided Diocese in 1838. In 1839, the year subsequent to the division, the Journal gives us the first attempt at any table of diocesan statistics. It must be remembered in making comparisons that these statistics were very meagre, and that many of the parishes made no report at all. This was especially the case with the statistics of Sunday-school work. In 1868 the second division took place, and Albany and Long Island were set off. The statistics for 1869 show how far the strength of the mother Diocese had been reduced, and give us the means to compare the strength of the Church to-day with that of thirty years ago. These years, it will be observed, divide the century into three periods, 1801 to 1838, 1839 to 1868, and 1869 to 1900. The immense growth in the number of communicants will be noticed at once; but hardly less remarkable as showing the immense increase in the Church's influence as a social factor are the statistics of marriages and burials. It may be interesting to note the fact that there are to-day in the one Diocese of New York nearly as many communicants as there were in the Church in the United States fifty years ago.

In the second table will be found a summary of the statistics for each year from 1875 to 1900. During the period of 25 years the number of baptisms has increased 40 per cent., the number of confirmations 100 per cent., the number of communicants nearly 150 per cent., the number of marriages 160 per cent., the number of burials over 50 per cent., and the number of Sunday-school teachers and scholars about 100 per cent.

In the third table will be found a summary of baptisms, confirmations, marriages, and burials, arranged in periods of five years each. This table will be useful as showing at a glance how uniform and steady has been the growth of the Church during this period.

* Adopted October 11, 1796 ; and Amended October 17, 1827 ; October 2, 1834 ; October 4, 1839 ; September 29, 1843 ; September 26, 1850 ; September 28, 1860 ; September 28, 1882 ; and September 26, 1889.

ARTICLE I.

THERE shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the last Wednesday in September in each year, in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being ; or, in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause occurring after the designation of the place of the meeting of the annual Convention, the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee may point another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church ; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee ; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly received into this Diocese, and settled in some Church which is in union with this Convention ; and of Lay Members, consisting of not exceeding three Delegates from each Church, to be chosen by the Vestry or Congregation : and Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, and Clergymen engaged as Professors or Instructors of youth in any College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, and Clergymen engaged as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated Charitable Institution, may be members of the Convention. No Clergyman, however, shall have a right to a seat in the Convention, unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with prayers and a sermon ; and the preacher shall be nominated by the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention ; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate in one body ; and in voting, the Clergy shall vote by individuals, and the Laity by Congregations ; and when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention, prior to the last Wednesday in September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Delegate or Delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to a vote for each Church or Chapel ; and a majority of votes of the two orders jointly shall be decisive ; but if in any case it be required by five votes, the two orders shall vote separately in the manner aforesaid, and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision. In the case of electing a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, agreeably to the mode last prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows : A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention ; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANONS.

Adopted October 2, 1834 ; and amended October 4, 1839 ; October 1, 1841 ; September 30, 1842 ; September 29, 1843 ; September 27, 1844 ; September 26 and 30, 1845 ; September 29, 1848 ; September 26, 1851 ; October 1, 1853 ; September 29, 1859 ; September 28, 1860 ; October 2, 1863 ; September 27, 1866 ; November 15, 1867 ; September 29, 1870 ; September 28, 1872 ; September 25, 1873 ; September 28, 1877 ; September 26, 1884 ; October 1, 1885 ; September 30 and October 1, 1886 ; September 29, 1887 ; September 27, 1888 ; September 26, 1889 ; September 25, 1890 ; and October 1, 1891 ; September 27 and 28, 1893 ; September 27, 1894 ; September 26, 1895 ; October 1, 1896 ; September 30, 1897 ; September 29, 1898 ; September 27, 1900.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged ; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only ; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

SEC. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "General Regulations of Ministers and their Duties," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record ; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop ; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received, the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least thirty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least thirty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. A quorum, which shall consist of thirty Clergymen and Delegates from thirty Congregations, being present, the President, ex officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 16. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 17. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulaions of the Convention ; which copy shall be duly certified by the residing officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting ; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same ; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York ; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just ; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention ; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC. 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary ; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5.—Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one ; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the next stated Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and of which the collection and distribution shall not be otherwise regulated.

SEC. 2. His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee acting under its authority.

SEC. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee ; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants, Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

SEC. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors ; the name of each adult baptized ; the name of each person confirmed ; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witness or witnesses required by the civil law ; the name of each person buried ; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church ; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

The list of Communicants shall embrace all within his Cure as nearly as can be ascertained, and he shall also keep a list of the families and adult persons in his Cure, as far as practicable.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Funerals ; and of the number of Communicants in his Parish or Church, and of all other matters that may throw light on the state of the same.

SEC. 4. In every case where a Parish is without a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose ; and the annual Parochial Reports shall be presented or forwarded to the Bishop by the Wardens of the Parish.

SEC. 5. Upon the dissolution of a Parish the Register, provided for by this Canon, shall immediately become the property of the Diocese, and the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention shall cause the said Register to be deposited with the Bishop, to be under his care for the legitimate purposes thereof.

CANON VIII.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

A Committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, in accordance with the Canon * thereof, to assist the Bishop in preparing a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, and a list of the Clergy, to be presented to the General Convention.

CANON IX.

Concerning Elections.

SEC. 1. Elections by ballot, when required by these Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention.

* Canon XX., Sec. 5, Title I.

and when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election.

SEC. 2. The mode of conducting the nominations and elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council, shall be as follows :

Any member of the Convention may send to the Secretary, in writing, on or before the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations, signed by himself, for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and for members of the Federate Council. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the second day's session, in the form of a ballot, on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first ballot these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent ballots, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. No ballot shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled, and the number of vacancies to be filled shall be printed on each ballot.

The Secretary shall provide a board, to be hung up in a conspicuous place, near the entrance to the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations so received, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council; and these names shall also be printed on the back of the ballot provided by the Secretary.

CANON X.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall, at each second regular annual meeting next succeeding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. It shall also elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen, as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned ; which Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies, or Provisional Deputies, for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. 2. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention, during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to perform its duties ; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. And the Bishop shall in like manner designate from the same list of Provisional Deputies one or more, as the case may be, to supply any deficiency in the representation of this Diocese which may in any way occur. And the person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

CANON XI.

Of Deputies to the Federate Council.

At every stated Convention there shall be an election by ballot of eight Clergymen and eight Laymen to serve as Deputies at any meeting of the Federate Council that may be held before the next Annual Convention of the Diocese. And in case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the Deputies so elected, such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop.

CANON XII.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention a Standing Committee shall be elected by ballot, to consist of four Clergymen and four Laymen. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical members and Lay members of the Committee.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to, or enjoined upon, the Clerical members of said Committee; in which cases such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the authorities of such vacant Parish to consult with the Bishop of the Diocese before proceeding to fill the vacancy.

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment of New Places of Public Worship.

SEC. 1. In places where the Church is already established, no new Parish shall be formed, or new Church or Chapel be established, or new Congregation be gathered, nor shall the site of any existing Church, Chapel, or Congregation be changed without the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese and the formal approval of the Standing Committee. But such action of the Standing Committee shall not be taken until previous notice has been given, and due proof thereof furnished the Committee, by the parties moving therefor, to the Rectors and Vestries of the three Churches or Congregations whose places of public worship shall be nearest to the site proposed for the new place of worship, nor until at least one month has been allowed such Rectors and Vestries to present any objections they may have.

SEC. 2. In places where the Church is not established, the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall be sufficient for the formation of a new Parish.

SEC. 3. "Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which such work is situated, may be prosecuted temporarily at such point or points as may be from time to time designated by them, after consultation with the Rectors of the three nearest Parishes; but such work shall not be continued more than one year, nor shall any building for such work be erected, unless the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee shall have been obtained in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sections of this Canon."

CANON XV.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. The fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese, now provided, together with that which may be hereafter contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund for the Diocese of New York," incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 14, 1845. The Trustees composing said corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a congregation in this Diocese to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made by said congregation in aid of the fund for the support of the Episcopate ; and in the case of a vacant parish, this duty shall devolve on the Wardens and Vestrymen. The amount of each annual collection or contribution shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and shall be reported by the Trustees to the Convention at the next stated meeting thereof, after such collection or contribution shall have been made, and shall be entered on its Journals.

SEC. 3. So long as the income of the fund is inadequate to the support of the Episcopate, and an annual assessment shall be made, under the authority of the Convention, for supplying the deficiency therein, the payment of such assessment by a Parish shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined by Section 2 of this Canon.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. A statement exhibiting the condition of the said fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON XVI.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 1. Every congregation in the Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the Day of its annual meeting, such a per cent. on the amount of the salary of its Cler-gyman as shall have been ordered by the preceding Convention, to provide for necessary expenses.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Convention to retain annually out of this fund one dollar for each Clergyman in the Diocese. The moneys thus retained shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of the General Convention at each meeting of the same.

SEC. 3. A copy of this Canon shall be transmitted annually to every Church in the Diocese by the Secretary of the Convention.

CANON XVII.

Of Contributions for Church Objects.

SEC. 1. In every Parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied.

SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the New York Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 2. (I.) The Missionary Work of the Diocese shall be conducted by a Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions, sitting as such as often as the business of the Board may demand.

SEC. 3. (I.) The Diocese shall be divided into five Archdeaconries, to be named, respectively :

1. The Archdeaconry of New York, comprising the County of New York.

2. The Archdeaconry of Richmond, comprising the County of Richmond.

3. The Archdeaconry of Westchester, comprising the Counties of Westchester, Putnam, and Rockland.

4. The Archdeaconry of Orange, comprising the Counties of Orange, Ulster, and Sullivan.

5. The Archdeaconry of Dutchess, comprising the County of Dutchess.

(II.) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three Lay Delegates from each Parish and Mission Station, elected in such manner as the By-laws of the Archdeaconry may direct, provided that such Lay Delegates from Mission Stations shall not have the right to vote upon any question involving the appropriation or apportionment of moneys. It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry [1] to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such Missionary Work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several Parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same; [2] to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all Missionaries and other agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries; [3] to have full management of its funds ; [4] to provide that careful statistics as to the population and condition of communities and the results of Missionary Work be collected and preserved.

(III.) The Executive Officer or Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Bishop, and confirmed by the Archdeaconry at a regular meeting, and shall continue in office until his successor be appointed. It shall be his duty [1] to superintend all Missionary Work conducted by the Archdeaconry ; [2] to have direction of all Itinerant Clergy and Associated Missions ; [3] to make full and regular reports of the same to the Archdeaconry ; and [4] in the absence of the Bishop to preside at all meetings.

(IV.) Each Archdeaconry shall adopt its own by-laws, elect annually its Secretary and Treasurer, and make before the Annual Meeting of the Board of Diocesan Missions a full report of its year's work to the Board of Managers hereinafter described.

SEC. 4. (I.) There shall be a Diocesan Board of Managers, which Board shall also be the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop, the five Archdeacons, Secretaries and Treasurers, and also five Clergymen and five Laymen, elected by ballot at the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) It shall be the duty of this Board of Managers [1] to decide, with the approval of the Bishop, what proportion of the whole sum voted by the Diocese shall be raised by, and what proportion shall be expended by each Archdeaconry ; [2] to devise general plans for making Mission Work more effective, and developing a greater Missionary interest throughout the Diocese ; [3] to send to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual meeting, a report containing the following items :

- a. Statement of Missionary Work done since last report.
- b. The names of the Missionaries and Stations.
- c. An account of Annual Receipts and Expenditures, comprising all amounts received and disbursed by each Archdeaconry.
- d. A list of the Parishes contributing, and of the sums contributed by each Parish to Diocesan Missions.
- e. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary Work of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and a schedule of assessments upon the several Parishes.

(III.) Seven members of the Board of Managers, at a regularly called meeting, two of whom shall be Archdeacons, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop, one of the Archdeacons present shall be elected by the meeting to preside.

CANON XIX.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds :

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2d. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows :

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other

* "(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund ; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention, or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

2d. As to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

" . . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

" With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest :

"1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

"2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or infirm to continue his ministry; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

"3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

"4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given ceteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

funds, be divided equally between them. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

CANON XX.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz. :

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination ; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offence, may dismiss it ; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offence, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced ; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board ; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXI.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop taking the Chair, the order of procedure shall be as follows:

1. The Secretary, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

2. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10. The President shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

3. A constitutional quorum (thirty Clergymen and thirty Delegations) being present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business which shall proceed in the following order:

4. Reading of the Rules of Order.

5. The election of a Secretary and Treasurer, the former of whom shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

6. The appointment of five Standing Committees by the President:

(1) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches—to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention, in order.

(2) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(3) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(4) On the General Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(5) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

7. The appointment of Inspectors of Elections: one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical Votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Votes—for the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

8. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows:

(1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.

(2) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocese.

(3) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and appointment of Trustees.

(4) Report of the New York City Mission Society.

(5) Report of the Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York.

- (6) Report of St. Stephen's College.
- (7) Report of Society for promoting Religion and Learning.
- (8) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, and election of Trustees.
- (9) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and supplying vacancies, if any, in the Trustees.

9. Miscellaneous business.

II. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

- 1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
- 2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
- 3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.
- 4. Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he should prefer another time for its delivery. If so, it shall be at any time in order.
- 5. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.
- 6. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.
- 7. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to that officer.
- 8. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
- 9. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
- 10. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
- 11. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
- 12. Report of the Committee on Canons.
- 13. Reports of Special Committees.
- 14. Miscellaneous business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

- 1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
- 2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
- 3. Calling the names of members not present before.
- 4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.
- 5. Miscellaneous business.

IV. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached, or shall be pending, on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed ; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair ; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot, from among the Clergy.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging in this Diocese but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., and from 2 to 5 P.M., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 7½ to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows :

The Secretary shall call the names of the Clergy and of the Parishes entitled to vote, who, as called, are to present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant ; and if, on such second attempt, the purpose shall not be accomplished, the balloting may be resumed at the discretion of the Convention.

X. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it ; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word " Resolved " shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made ; no after-amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXVI. The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect any officer.

APPENDIX J.

THE

WITH

FORMS OF PROCEDURE

REQUIRED THEREBY

RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK SO FAR AS APPLICABLE TO THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Laws of 1895—Chapter 723.

Act in relation to religious corporations, constituting chapter forty-two general laws.

Article I. Provisions applicable to religious corporations generally. (Secs. 1-18.)

Article II. Special provisions for the incorporation and government of Protestant Episcopal parishes or churches. (Secs. 30-36.)

Article VII. Laws repealed; when to take effect. (Secs. 110-111.)

ARTICLE I.

Provisions Applicable to Religious Corporations Generally.

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.—This chapter shall be known as the Religious Corporations Law.

SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.—A religious corporation is a corporation organized for religious purposes.

An incorporated church is a religious corporation created to enable its members to meet for divine worship or other religious observances.

An unincorporated church is a congregation, society, or other assembly of persons who are accustomed to statedly meet for divine worship or other religious observances, without having been incorporated for that purpose.

The term minister, includes a clergyman, pastor, rector, priest, or other person having authority from, or in accordance with, the rules and regulations of the governing ecclesiastical body of the denomination or order, if any, to which the church belongs, or otherwise from the church, to preside over and direct the spiritual affairs of the church.

SEC. 3. FILING AND RECORDING CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION OF RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS.—The certificate of incorporation of a religious corporation shall be acknowledged or proved by an officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of proof of deeds or conveyances of real estate, to be recorded in the county in which the principal office or place of worship of said corporation is or is intended to be situated, and shall be filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of said county. If there is not, or is not intended to be, any such office or place of worship, the certificate shall be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state.

SEC. 4. PROPERTY OF UNINCORPORATED SOCIETY TRANSFERRED BY ITS INCORPORATION.—All the temporalities and property of an unincorporated church, or of any unincorporated religious society, body, association or congregation, shall, on the incorporation thereof, become the temporalities and property of such corporation, whether such temporalities or property be given, granted or devised directly to such unincorporated church, society, body, association, or congregation, or to any other person for the use or benefit thereof.

SEC. 5. GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES OF TRUSTEES OF RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS.—The trustees of every religious corporation shall have the custody and control of all the temporalities and property, real or personal, belonging to the corporation and of the revenues therefrom, and shall administer the same in accordance with the discipline, rules and usages of the corporation and of the ecclesiastical governing body, if any, to which the corporation is subject, and with the provisions of law relating thereto, for the support and maintenance of the corporation, or, providing the members of the corporation at a meeting thereof shall so authorize, of some religious, charitable, benevolent or educational object conducted by said corporation or in connection with it, or with the denomination, if any, with which it is connected; and they shall not use such property or revenues for any other purpose or divert the same from such uses. By-laws may be adopted or amended, by a two-thirds vote of the qualified voters present and voting at the meeting for incorporation or at any subsequent meeting, after written notice, embodying such by-laws or amendment, has been openly given at a previous meeting, and also in the notices of the meeting at which such proposed by-laws or amendment is to be acted upon. By-laws thus adopted or amended shall control the action of the trustees.

But this section does not give to the trustees of an incorporated church, any control over the calling, settlement, dismissal, or removal of its minister, or the fixing of his salary; or any power to fix or change the times, nature or order of the public or social worship of such church.

(Thus amended by laws of 1897, Chap. 621, Sec. 1.)

SEC. 6. ACQUISITION OF PROPERTY BY RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS FOR BRANCH INSTITUTIONS; ESTABLISHMENT, MAINTENANCE AND MANAGEMENT THEREOF.—Any religious corporation may acquire property for associate houses, church buildings, chapels, mission houses, school houses for Sunday or parochial schools, or dispensaries of medicines for the poor, or property for the residence of its ministers, teachers or employees, or property for a home for the aged. The persons attending public worship in any such associate house, mission house, church building, or chapel connected therewith, shall not, by reason thereof, have any rights as members of the parent corporation. The persons statedly worshipping in any such house, mission house, church building or chapel, may, with the consent of the trustees of such corporation, become separately incorporated as a church, and the parent corporation may, in pursuance of the provisions of law regulating the disposition of real property by religious corporations, rent or convey to the new corporation, with or without consideration, any such associate house, church building, chapel, mission house, school house or dispensary and the lot connected therewith, subject to such regulations as the trustees of the parent corporation may make. Any religious corporation shall have power to establish, maintain and manage by its trustees or other officers as a part of its religious purpose a home for the aged, and may take and hold by conveyance, donation, bequest, or devise real and personal property for such purpose, and may purchase and may erect suitable buildings therefor. Any such corporation may take and hold in grant, donation, bequest, or devise of real or personal property, heretofore or hereafter made upon trust, apply the same, or the income thereof, under the direction of its trustees or other officers, for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, and managing such a home, and for the erection, preservation, repair, or extension of any building or buildings for such purpose.

(Thus amended by laws of 1896, Chap. 525.)

SEC. 7. ACQUISITION OF PROPERTY BY RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS FOR CEMETERY PURPOSES; MANAGEMENT THEREOF.—A religious corporation may take and hold, by purchase, grant, gift or devise, real property for the purposes of a cemetery; or such lot or lots in any cemetery connected with it, as may be conveyed or devised to it, with or without provisions limiting interments therein to particular persons or classes of persons; and may take and hold any property granted, given, devised or bequeathed to it in trust to apply the same or the income or proceeds thereof, under the direction of the trustees of the corporation, for the improvement or embellishment of such cemetery or any lot therein, including the erection, repair, preservation or removal of tombs, monuments, gravestones, fences, railings or other erections, or the planting or cultivation of trees, shrubs, plants or flowers in or around any such cemetery or cemetery lots.

A religious corporation may erect upon any property held by it for cemetery purposes, a suitable building for religious services for the burial of the dead, or for the use of the keepers or other persons employed in connection therewith, and may sell and convey lots in such cemetery for burial purposes, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be imposed by the instrument by which the same was acquired, or by the rules and regulations adopted by such corporation. Every such conveyance of a lot or plot for burial purposes, signed, sealed, and acknowledged in the same manner as a deed to be recorded, may be recorded in like manner and with like effect as a deed of real property.

SEC. 8. REMOVAL OF HUMAN REMAINS FROM ONE CEMETERY OF A RELIGIOUS CORPORATION TO ANOTHER CEMETERY OWNED BY IT.—A religious corporation, notwithstanding the restrictions contained in any conveyance or devise to it, may remove the human remains buried in a cemetery owned by it, to another cemetery owned by it, if the trustees thereof so determine, and if either three-fourths of the members of such corporation, qualified to vote at its corporate meetings, sign and acknowledge and cause to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county in which such cemetery or a part thereof is situated, a written consent thereto, or if three-fourths of the members of such corporation qualified to vote, and present and voting, at a corporate meeting of such corporation, specially called for that purpose, shall approve thereof. But if such corporation be a church, previous notice of the object of such meeting shall be published for at least four successive weeks in a newspaper of the town, village, or city in which the cemetery from which the removal is proposed is situated, or if no newspaper is published therein, then in a newspaper designated by the county judge of such county. Such removal shall be made in an appropriate manner, and in accordance with such directions as to the manner thereof as may be given by the board of health of the town, village, or city in which the cemetery from which the removal is made is situated. All tombstones, monuments, or other erections at or upon any grave from which any remains are removed, shall be properly replaced or raised at the grave where the remains are reinterred.

SEC. 9. ACQUISITION OF PROPERTY BY TWO OR MORE RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS FOR A COMMON PARSONAGE.—Two or more religious corporations may acquire such real property as may be necessary for use as a parsonage, and the right, title, and interest of each corporation therein shall be in proportion to its contribution to the cost of such property. The trustees of each corporation shall, from time to time, appoint one of their number to be a trustee of such common parsonage property, to hold office during the pleasure of the appointing trustees or until his successor be appointed. The trustees so appointed shall have the care and management of such property, and may make such improvements thereupon as they deem necessary, and determine the proportion of the expense of the maintenance thereof which each corporation shall bear. If at any time either of such corporations acquires or desires to acquire for its own exclusive use as a parsonage other real property, it may, in pursuance of the provisions of law, relating to the disposition of real property by religious corporations, sell and convey its interest in such common parsonage property to any one or more of the other corporations having an interest therein.

SEC. 10. CORRECTION AND CONFIRMATION OF CONVEYANCES TO RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS.—If, in a conveyance of real property, or in any instrument intended to operate as such, heretofore or hereafter made to a religious corporation, its corporate name is not stated or is not correctly stated, but such conveyance or instrument indicates the intention of the grantor therein to convey such property to such corporation, and such corporation has entered into possession and occupation of such property, any officer of the corporation authorized so to do by its trustees may record in the office where such conveyance or instrument is recorded a statement, signed and acknowledged by him or proved, setting forth the date of such conveyance or instrument, the date of record, and the number and page of the book of record thereof, the name of the grantor, a description of the property conveyed or intended to be conveyed, the name of the grantee as expressed in such conveyance or instrument, the correct name of such corporation, the fact of authorization by the trustees of the corporation, to make and record such statement, and that the grantor in such conveyance or instrument intended thereby to convey such property to such corporation as the said officer verily believes, with the reason for such belief. Such statement so signed and acknowledged or proved shall be recorded with the records of deeds in such office, and indexed as a deed from the grantee as named in such instrument or in such conveyance to such corporation. The register or clerk, as the case may be, shall note the recording of such statement on the margin of the record of such conveyance, and for his services shall be entitled to receive the fees allowed for recording deeds. Such statement so recorded shall be presumptive evidence that such matters therein stated are true, and that such corporation was the grantee in the original instrument or conveyance. All conveyances heretofore made, or by any instrument intended to be made, to a religious corporation of real property appropriated to the use of such corporation, or entitled to be so appropriated, are hereby confirmed and declared valid and effectual, notwithstanding any defect in the form of the conveyance or the description of the grantee therein, but this section shall not affect any suit or proceeding pending on the thirty-first day of January, eighteen hundred and seventy-one.

SEC. 11. SALE, MORTGAGE AND LEASE OF REAL PROPERTY OF RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS.—A religious corporation shall not sell, or mortgage any of its real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court therefor pursuant to the provisions of the code of civil procedure. The trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale, mortgage or lease of its real property unless the rector of such church, if it then has a rector, shall be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property without the consent of the bishop and standing committee of the diocese to which such church belongs; but in case the see be vacant, or the bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the standing committee with their certificate of the vacancy of the see or of the absence or disability of the bishop shall suffice.

The trustees of an incorporated Roman Catholic Church shall not make application to the court for leave to mortgage, lease or sell, any of its real property without the consent of the archbishop or bishop of the diocese to which such church belongs, or in case of their absence or inability to act, without the consent of the vicar-general, or administrator of such diocese.

The petition of the trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church or Roman Catholic Church shall, in addition to the matters required by the Code of Civil Procedure to be set forth herein, set forth that this section has also been complied with.

But lots, plots, or burial permits in a cemetery owned by a religious corporation, may be sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court.

No cemetery lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes.

(Thus amended by laws of 1900, Chap. 521.)

SEC. 12. CONSOLIDATION OF INCORPORATED CHURCHES.—Two or more incorporated churches may enter into an agreement, under their respective corporate seals, for the consolidation of such corporations, setting forth the name of the proposed new corporation, the denomination, if any, to which it is to belong, and if the churches of such denomination have more than one method of choosing trustees, by which of such methods the trustees are to be chosen, the number of such trustees, the names of the persons to be the first trustees of the new corporation, and the date of its first annual corporate meeting. Such agreement shall not be valid unless approved by the governing body of the denomination, if any, to which each church belongs, having jurisdiction over such church. Each corporation shall thereupon make a separate petition to the Supreme Court for an order consolidating the corporation, setting forth the denomination, if any, to which the church belongs, that the consent of the governing body to the consolidation, if any, of that denomination having jurisdiction over such church has been obtained, the agreement therefor, and a statement of all the property and liabilities and the amount and sources of the annual income of such petitioning corporation. In its discretion the court may direct that notice of the hearing of such petition be given to the parties interested therein in such manner and for such time as it may prescribe. After hearing all the parties interested, present and desiring to be heard, the court may make an order for the consolidation of the corporations on the terms of such agreement and such other terms and conditions as it may prescribe, specifying the name of such new corporation and the first trustees thereof, and the method by which their successors shall be chosen, and the date of its first annual corporate meeting. When such order is made and duly entered, the persons constituting such corporations shall become an incorporated church by, and said petitioning churches shall become consolidated under, the name designated in the order, and the trustees therein named shall be the first trustees thereof, and the future trustees thereof shall be chosen by the method therein designated, and all the estate, rights, powers and property of whatsoever nature belonging to either corporation shall, without further act or deed be vested in and transferred to the new corporation as effectually as they were vested in or belonged to the former corporations; and the said new corporation shall be liable for all the debts and liabilities of the former corporations in the same manner and as effectually as if said debts or liabilities had been contracted or incurred by the new corporation.

A certified copy of such order shall be recorded in the book for recording certificates of incorporation in each county clerk's office in which the certificate of incorporation of each consolidating church was recorded; or if no such certificate was so recorded, then in the clerk's office of the county in which the principal place of worship or principal office of the new corporation is, or is intended to be, situated.

(Thus amended by laws of 1896, Chap. 56.)

SEC. 13. JUDICIAL INVESTIGATION OF AMOUNT OF PROPERTY OF RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS.—The supreme court at a special term, held in the judicial district in which the principal place of worship or of holding corporate meetings of a religious corporation is situated, may require such corporation to make and file an inventory of its property, verified by its trustees or a majority of them, on the written application of the attorney-general, stating that, from his knowledge, or on information and belief, the value of the property held by such corporation exceeds the amount authorized by law. On presentation of such application, the court shall order that a notice of at least eight days, together with a copy of the application, be served upon the trustees of the corporation, requiring them to show cause at a time and place therein specified why they should not make and file such inventory and account. If, on the hearing of such application, no good cause is shown to the contrary the court may make an order requiring such inventory or account to be filed, and may also proceed to take and state the amount of property held by the corporation, and may appoint a referee for that purpose; and when such account is taken and stated, after hearing all the parties appearing on the application, the court may enter an order determining the amount of property so held by the corporation and its annual income, from which order an appeal may be taken by any party aggrieved as from a judgment of the supreme court in an action tried therein before a court without a jury. No corporation shall be required to make and file more than one inventory and account in any one year, or to make a second account and inventory while proceedings are pending for the statement of an account under this section.

SEC. 14. CORPORATIONS WITH GOVERNING AUTHORITY OVER CHURCHES.—An unincorporated diocesan convention, presbytery, classis, synod, annual conference, or other ecclesiastical governing body having jurisdiction over several churches, may at a stated meeting thereof, determine to become incorporated by a designated name, and may by a plurality vote, elect not less than three nor more than nine persons to be the first trustees of such corporation. The presiding officer and clerk of such governing body shall execute and acknowledge a certificate stating that such proceedings were duly taken as herein provided, the name by which such corporation is to be known, and the names of such first trustees. On filing such certificate the members of such governing body and their successors shall be a corporation by the name stated in the certificate, and the persons named as trustees therein shall be the first trustees thereof.

The trustees of every incorporated governing body and their successors shall hold their offices during the pleasure of such body, which may remove them and fill vacancies in accordance with its rules and regulations. Such corporation may take, administer and dispose of property for the benefit of such governing body, or of any parish, congregation, society, church, mission, religious, benevolent, charitable or educational institution existing or acting under it.

SEC. 15. PROPERTY OF EXTINCT CHURCHES.—Such incorporated governing body may decide that a church, parish, or society in connection with it or over which it has ecclesiastical jurisdiction, has become extinct, if it has failed for two consecutive years next prior thereto to maintain religious services according to the discipline, customs, and usages of such governing body, or has less than thirteen resident attending members paying annual pew rent, or making annual contribution towards its support, and may take possession of the temporalities and property belonging to such church, parish, or religious society, and manage; or may, in pursuance of the provisions of law relating to the disposition of real property by religious corporations, sell or dispose of the same, and apply the proceeds thereof to any of the purposes to which the property of such governing religious body is devoted, and it shall not divert such property to any other object.

(Thus amended by laws of 1896, Chap. 336, Sec. 6.)

SEC. 16. CORPORATIONS FOR ORGANIZING AND MAINTAINING MISSION CHURCHES AND SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—Ten or more members of two or more incorporated churches may become a corporation for the purpose of organizing and maintaining mission churches and Sunday Schools, and of acquiring property therefor, by executing a certificate stating the name of such corporation, the city in which its principal office or church or school is or is intended to be located, the number of trustees to manage its affairs, which shall be three, six, or nine, and the names of the trustees for the first year of its existence, which certificate shall be acknowledged or proved and filed, as hereinbefore provided. Whenever a mission church established by such corporation becomes self-sustaining, such mission church may become incorporated, and shall be governed under the provisions of this act for the incorporation and government of a church of the religious denomination to which such mission church belongs, and thereon such parent corporation may convey to such incorporated church the property connected therewith.

(Thus amended by laws of 1896, Chap. 336, Sec. 7.)

SEC. 17. CORPORATIONS FOR ACQUIRING PARSONAGES FOR PRESIDING ELDERS AND CAMP-MEETING GROUNDS.

(This section relates only to Methodist Episcopal Churches.)

SEC. 18. APPLICATION OF THIS CHAPTER TO CHURCHES CREATED BY SPECIAL LAWS.—If a church be incorporated by special law, it and its trustees shall have, in addition to the powers conferred on it by such law, all the powers and privileges conferred on incorporated churches and the trustees thereof respectively by the provisions of this article, and also all the powers and privileges conferred by this chapter on churches of the same denomination or of the like character, and on the trustees thereof respectively.

SEC. 19. APPLICATION OF THIS CHAPTER TO CHURCHES INCORPORATED PRIOR TO JANUARY FIRST, EIGHTEEN HUNDRED AND TWENTY-EIGHT.—Any provision of this chapter shall not be deemed to apply to any church incorporated under any general or special law, prior to January first, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, if such provision is inconsistent with or in derogation of any of the rights and privileges of such corporation as they existed under the law by or pursuant to which such corporation was formed, unless such corporation subsequent to such date, shall have lawfully re-incorporated under a law enacted since the first day of January, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, or unless the trustees of such corporation shall, by resolution, determine that the provisions of this chapter applying to churches of the same denomination and to the trustees thereof shall apply to such church, and unless such resolution shall be submitted to the next ensuing annual meeting of such church, and ratified by a majority of the votes of the qualified voters present and voting thereon. Notice of the adoption of such resolution and of the proposed submission thereof for ratification, shall be given with the notice of such annual meeting, and in addition thereto, mailed to each member of such church corporation at his last known post-office address, at least two weeks prior to such annual meeting, and published once a week for two successive weeks immediately preceding such meeting in a newspaper, if any, published in the city, village or town in which the principal place of worship of such corporation is located and otherwise in a newspaper published in an adjoining town. If such resolution is so ratified, the trustees of such church shall cause a certificate setting forth a copy of such resolution, its adoption by the board of trustees and its due ratification by the members of such corporation, to be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the principal place of worship of such corporation is located. Such county clerk shall cause such certificate to be recorded in the book in which certificates of incorporation of religious corporations are recorded in pursuance of law.

(Added by laws of 1896, Chap. 336, Sec. 8.)

SEC. 20. CALLING OF A MINISTER, AND SO FORTH.—No provision of this act authorizes the calling, settlement, dismissal or removal of a minister, or the fixing or changing of his salary, and a meeting of a church corporation for any such purpose shall be called, held, moderated, conducted, governed and notice of such meeting given and person to preside thereat ascertained and the qualification of voters thereat determined, not as required by any provision of this act but only according to the aforesaid laws and regulations, practice, discipline, rules and usages of the religious denomination or ecclesiastical governing body, if any, with which the church corporation is connected.

(Added by laws of 1899, Chap. 720, Sec. 1.)

SEC. 21. WORSHIP.—No provision of this act authorizes the fixing or changing of the times, nature or order of public or social or other worship of any church, in any other manner or by any other authority than in the manner and by the authority provided in the laws, regulations, practice, discipline, rules and usages of the religious denomination or ecclesiastical governing body, if any, with which the church corporation is connected.

(Added by laws of 1899, Chap. 720, Sec. 1.)

ARTICLE II.

Special Provisions for the Incorporation and Government of Protestant Episcopal Parishes or Churches.

SEC. 30. THE MEETING FOR INCORPORATION.—Notice of a meeting for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or congregation, and of electing the first church wardens and vestrymen thereof, shall specify the object, time and place of such meeting, and shall be made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting, either by open reading of such notice in time of divine service, at the usual place of worship of such parish or congregation, or by posting the same conspicuously on the outer door of such place of worship. Only men of full age who have been regular attendants at the worship of such parish or congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to such meeting, or since the establishment of such parish or congregation, shall be qualified to vote at such meeting. The presence of at least six persons qualified to vote thereat shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of such meeting. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, a quorum being present. The officiating minister, or if there be none, or he shall be necessarily absent, any other person qualified to vote at the meeting, who is called to the chair, shall preside thereat. Such presiding officer shall receive the votes, be the judge of the qualifications of voters and declare the result of the votes cast at such meeting. The polls of the meeting shall remain open for one hour or longer in the discretion of the presiding officer, or if required by a vote of a majority of the voters present. The meeting shall decide whether such unincorporated parish or congregation shall become incorporated. If such decision be in favor of incorporation, such meeting shall decide upon the name of the proposed corporation; what secular day of the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, shall be the date of the regular annual election; whether the vestrymen thereof shall be three, six or nine; and shall elect by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters thereat, who have been baptized, one-third of the number of vestrymen so decided upon to hold office until the first annual election to be held thereafter, one-third of such number to hold office until one year after such annual election, and one-third of such number to hold office until two years after such annual election; and shall elect from such qualified voters who are communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, two persons to be church wardens hereof, one to hold office until such annual election, and one to hold office until one year after such annual election.

SEC. 31. THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.—If such meeting shall decide in favor of incorporation and comply with the next preceding section, the presiding officer of such meeting and at least two other persons present and voting thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate of incorporation setting forth:

1. The fact of the calling and holding of such meeting;
2. The name of the corporation as decided upon thereat;
3. The county and the town, city or village in which its principal place of worship is, or is intended to be located;
4. The day of the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent upon which the annual election shall be held;
5. The number of vestrymen decided upon at such meeting;
6. The names of the vestrymen elected at such meeting and the term of office of each;
7. The names of the church wardens elected at such meeting and the term of office of each.

On filing such certificate in the office of the clerk of the county so specified therein the churchwardens and vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the rector, where there is one, shall form a vestry and shall be the trustees of such church or congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this act, be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its governance. Such corporation shall be an incorporated church, and may be termed also an incorporated parish.

(Thus amended by laws of 1898, Chap. 358, Sec. 2.)

SEC. 32. CORPORATE TRUSTEES, VESTRY ; POWERS AND DUTIES THEREOF.—No meeting of the vestry or trustees of any incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the rector in writing either personally or by mail, or, if there be no rector or he be incapable of acting, by one of the churchwardens ; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the vestry or trustees after an annual election shall be sufficient, provided such meeting be held within three days after the election. To constitute a quorum of the vestry or board of trustees there must be present either :

1. The rector, at least one of the churchwardens and a majority of the vestrymen ; or,
2. The rector, both churchwardens and one less than a majority of the vestrymen ; or,
3. If the rector be absent from the diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one churchwarden and a majority of the vestrymen, or both churchwardens and one less than a majority of the vestrymen.

But if there be a rector of the parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such rector. The presiding officer of the vestry or trustees shall be the rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the churchwarden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the votes, if both the churchwardens be present ; or the churchwarden present, if but one be present. At each meeting of the vestry or trustees each member thereof shall be entitled to one vote. The vestry shall have power to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of a churchwarden or vestryman by death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term, until the next annual election at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term. The vestry may, subject to the canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the diocese in which the parish or church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the rectorship of the parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the rector.

SEC. 33. ANNUAL ELECTIONS OF INCORPORATED PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL PARISHES.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal parish, hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated, shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent. Notice of such annual election shall be read by the rector of the parish, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating minister or by a churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the parish be not open for divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election. Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election, the name and term of office of each churchwarden and vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected. The meeting for such annual election shall be held immediately after morning service. The presiding officer of such meeting shall be the rector thereof, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no churchwarden be present, a vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast at such election. The presiding officer of such meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them. Only men of full age belonging to the parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election or since the establishment of such parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of the election shall continue open for one hour, and longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of the majority of the qualified voters present and voting. The churchwardens and vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as churchwarden, unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as vestryman, unless he shall have been baptized. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish hereafter incorporated, one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of the vestrymen of the parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated two churchwardens and the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the terms of office of but one churchwarden or of but one-third of its vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each churchwarden and vestryman shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

SEC. 34. CHANGING THE NUMBER OF VESTRYMEN OF PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL PARISHES HEREAFTER INCORPORATED.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of vestrymen of such parish be changed to either three, six or nine vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry, the fact that the notice thereof had been given with notice of such annual election; that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter. If the number of vestrymen be thereby increased, then, in addition to the number of vestrymen to be elected at such annual election, one-third of such increased number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter. If the number of vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not affect the term of office of any vestrymen duly elected, and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

SEC. 35. CHANGING DATE OF ANNUAL ELECTION, NUMBER AND TERMS OF OFFICE OF VESTRYMEN AND TERMS OF OFFICE OF CHURCH-WARDENS IN PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCHES HERETOFORE INCORPORATED.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, shall by resolution, recommend that the date of the annual election be changed to a secular day in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, or that the number of vestrymen be changed to three, six, or nine, and that the terms of office of the churchwardens be changed so that one warden shall be elected annually, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of the annual election; that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the parish; the number of vestrymen so decided on; and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect churchwardens, so that the term of one warden shall expire annually. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determined to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on by such meeting, and the terms of the vestrymen and churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election shall expire and their successors shall be elected on such day. If the meeting determine to change the number of vestrymen and manner of electing wardens and vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of vestrymen, so determined on, to hold office for three years; one third thereof to hold office for two years; and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one churchwarden.

(Thus amended by laws of 1898, Chap. 358, Sec. 6.)

SEC. 36. CHANGING THE QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS AND THE QUALIFICATIONS OF WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish heretofore incorporated shall by resolution recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of wardens and vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirements of section thirty-three of this statute, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, and that the meeting had ratified the same. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded.

NOTE.—Of these churches, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted in the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

JOURNAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION.

NEW YORK, }
Wednesday, September 25, 1901. }

THIS being the day appointed by the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York for the meeting of the Annual Convention, a number of the clergy and laity assembled for divine service, at 10 o'clock in the morning, at the Church of Zion and St. Timothy, in the city of New York, the place appointed by the Bishop for the purpose.

The Right Reverend the Bishop of the Diocese delivered his Annual Address.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop, assisted by the Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D., Archdeacon of Orange; the Rev. J. C. Tiffany, D.D., Archdeacon of New York; the Rev. A. T. Ashton, Archdeacon of Dutchess; the Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., Rector of Trinity Church, New York; and the Rev. Henry Lubeck, D.D., Rector of the Church of Zion and St. Timothy, New York.

The Bishop of the Diocese took the chair and called the Convention to order.

The Secretary called the roll of the Clergy entitled to seats, when one hundred and fifty answered to their names and took their seats.

The Secretary then called the names of the Lay Delegates whose certificates had been received, when delegates from eighty-five parishes appeared and took their seats.

A constitutional quorum being present, the President declared the Convention organized for business.

On motion, the reading of the Rules of Order was dispensed with, and the President announced the election of Secretary and Treasurer as next in order.

The Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., was nominated as Secretary by Judge Calvin.

On motion, the ballot was dispensed with, and Dr. Harris was unanimously elected.

Mr. James Pott was nominated as Treasurer by the Rev. E. Atherton Lyon.

On motion, the ballot was dispensed with, and Mr. James Pott was unanimously elected.

In behalf of himself and others of the Convention the Bishop of New York presented to Mr. Pott a silver vase and, in an appropriate address, expressed the thanks and congratulations of the Convention in view of Mr. Pott's forty years of faithful and valued services as Treasurer.

Mr. Pott expressed his grateful acknowledgments to the Bishop and to the Convention.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Dix, the Rules of Order were suspended, and the Secretary was instructed by a unanimous vote to cast the ballot for Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson as Lay Deputy to the General Convention. The Secretary having reported that he had cast the ballot accordingly, the President declared that Mr. Stetson had been duly elected.

On motion of the Secretary, the irregular certificate of the appointment of Lay Delegates from Christ Church, New York, and the irregular certificate of the appointment of Lay Delegates from the Church of the Transfiguration, New York, were accepted.

The Chair announced the following Standing Committees :

REMARKS.

The contributions and donations for the Widows and Orphans' Fund increased somewhat this year, but they yet fall short of requirements. The beneficiaries are still on three-quarters allowance. The total resources of this portion of the Fund amount to only $10,655.47, of which $9,000 is invested in capital.

Mr. Bache McE. Whitlock, greatly to the regret of the Board, has resigned Trustee and Secretary. Mr. W. N. Wilmer has been elected Trustee and chosen as Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. HEWSON,
H. C. FAHNESTOCK,
R. B. DODSON,
W. N. WILMER,

On motion of the Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D., the best wishes of the Convention were expressed to the Bishop of the Diocese in view of his approaching attendance upon the General Convention.

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for Mr. Charles F. Roe, of the Church of the Holy Innocents, Highland Falls, to fill the vacancy in the Board of Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, caused by the resignation of Mr. Anson Phelps Stokes, and he was declared to be duly elected.

On motion of the Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D., it was voted that the Convention meet as the Board of Missions at 2 P.M. to-morrow.

On motion, the Convention took a recess until 2 o'clock.

The Convention reassembled at 2 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. D. C. Calvin, the Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., was elected President of the Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article V. of the Constitution.

Mr. Everett P. Wheeler offered the following resolutions, which were adopted :

Resolved, That so much of the address of the Bishop as relates to parish registers, to the clergy without charge, and to the time of holding the Annual Convention of the Diocese be referred to the Committee on Canons.

Resolved, That so much of the address of the Bishop as relates to the preparation of a volume of sermons, set forth to be read in churches, be referred to a special committee of five, to be appointed by the Bishop, and to report at the next Annual Convention of the Diocese.

The Rev. Dr. Dunnell offered the following amendments to Canon XIII., and on his motion they were referred to Committee on Canons :

1. That the caption of Canon XIII. be changed to read "Of Vacant Parishes and Clerical Supplies."

2. That section 4 of that Canon shall be as follows: "Any clergyman without cure resident in or visiting this Diocese and desiring to take temporary or occasional service therein shall signify to the Bishop his wish to officiate in this Diocese. A list of such clergymen as are eligible for such duty shall be kept, and no rector nor parish shall employ the services of any clergyman without cure for more than one Sunday unless such clergyman present a written license from the Bishop authorizing him to officiate.

SEC. 5.—Such official list shall be corrected and amended every three months, and shall contain the names of all persons authorized to take supply and two of the Archdeacons shall act in turn, with the Bishop, as revisers of the list.

Sec. 6.—Such list shall be furnished to any clergyman inquiring for it, and shall be kept standing at the See House, and the name and address of the clergyman to whom the list shall be furnished shall be forwarded to any rector or parish desiring such list, from among those who are thus registered.

On a motion of the Rev. P. Harrower, the Secretary was authorized to transmit to Mrs. McKinley that part of the Bishop's address relating to the death of the President, together with a copy of the resolution authorized for use on the day of the burial.

The Rev. Lester Bradner, Ph.D., offered the following amendment to Canon XVIII., and on his motion it was referred to the Committee on Canons :

Amend Canon XVIII., sec. 3 (iv.), by adding after the words " hereinafter defined " these words—" which report shall be entered in full on the Journal of the Convention."

The Rev. Dr. Peters, in behalf of the Committee on Discipline and Parochial Intrusion, offered the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON PAROCHIAL INTRUSION.

The Committee to whom the Convention of 1900 referred that portion of the Bishop's address which related to parochial intrusion and the definition of parochial boundaries respectfully reports that it has considered the matter referred to it, and recommends the adoption of the Canon appended to this report to take the place of the present Canon XIV. and the repeal of the present Canon XIV.

GEORGE ZABRISKIE.

CANON XIV.

Of Parishes and Mission Districts.

Sec. 1. The Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall determine, and from time to time may alter, the boundaries of the parishes and mission districts of this Diocese, and may constitute new parishes or mission districts, and may erect mission districts into parishes ; and his decision shall be final. He may also, at any time, alter the boundaries of parishes or mission districts, or of the constitution of new parishes or mission districts, and of the erection of mission districts into parishes, countersigned by the President of the Standing Committee, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, to be called the Diocesan Register of Parishes and Mission Districts, and shall furnish a copy thereof, in the case of a parish, to the Rector of the parish, who shall cause the same to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of the Vestry; or in the case of a mission district maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, to the Society, who shall cause the same to be recorded in their Book of Minutes; and in case of any other mission district, to the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the district shall be situated, who shall cause such copy to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of his Archdeaconry.

SEC. 2. Where in any town within this Diocese there is but one parish or mission, the limits of the town shall constitute the boundaries of the parish or mission district, and shall be so certified by the Bishop, unless upon the application of the Rector and Vestry of the parish, or of the Archdeacon in charge of the mission district, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall otherwise determine. Such application shall be made to the Bishop on or before December 31, 1901. The boundaries of a parish or mission district may include more than one town or parts of more than one town.

SEC. 3. Where in any town or borough there are more than one parish or mission, it shall be the duty of the incumbent of every parish and mission—that is to say, in the case of a parish, the duty of the Rector; and in the case of a mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, the duty of the Superintendent of the Society; and in the case of any other mission not maintained by a parish, the duty of the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the mission shall be situated—to frame a proposal for the boundaries of their respective parishes or mission districts, and on or before November 15, 1901, to invite the consent of the incumbents of all parishes and missions whose boundaries they shall judge to be affected by their proposals to the establishment of the boundaries so proposed. In cases where a mission or a chapel is maintained by a parish, the Rector shall include in his proposal or in a separate proposal, the boundaries assigned to a separate district to be attached to such mission or chapel if such mission or chapel be not included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church. All such incumbents shall without delay signify to the incumbent from whom the proposals have been received their consent or their objections thereto in writing; and in cases where proposed boundaries are objected to, it shall be the duty of the incumbents concerned to endeavor by mutual conference or otherwise to arrive at an agreement.

On or before November 30, 1901, the incumbent of every parish or mission shall deliver to the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction such parish or mission is situated his proposal for the boundaries of his parish or mission district, with such consents as he shall have obtained and such objections as he shall have received. The Archdeacon shall thereupon compile a complete scheme of boundaries of all parishes and mission districts within his juristion, and on or before December 31, 1901, shall report the same to the Bishop. Where the boundaries of a parish or a mission district have been consented to, the Archdeacon shall not alter them; where they have not been consented to, and where he shall have received no proposal of boundaries from the incumbent of a parish or mission, he shall report such boundaries as he shall deem best for the interests of the several parishes and missions affected. He shall indicate in his report what boundaries have been consented to.

The reports of the several Archdeacons shall remain open to inspection at the Diocesan House for one month before the Bishop shall take action on them, and within that time objections in writing may be filed to the boundaries of any parish or mission district as reported by the Archdeacon. If the boundaries, or any of them, so reported by the Archdeacon shall be approved by the Bishop, he shall determine and certify them accordingly; if any of the boundaries so reported shall not be approved by the Bishop, or if he approve them, but the Standing Committee shall not consent to his determination, the Archdeacon shall communicate to the incumbent of the parish or mission such recommendations, if any, as may be made by the Bishop, and the incumbent shall immediately frame a new proposal of boundaries, and shall thereupon proceed as in the first instance, and within thirty days after receiving the Archdeacon's communication shall deliver to him such new proposal with such consents as he shall have obtained and such objections as he shall have received. The Archdeacon shall deal with such proposal as in the first instance, and shall make his report to the Bishop as soon as practicable; and his report shall remain open to inspection and objection as before. If the Bishop shall approve the boundaries so reported, he shall determine and certify them accordingly. If he shall not approve them, or if he approve them, but the Standing Committee shall not consent to his determination, he shall proceed, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, to determine the boundaries of the parish or mission district. A draft of his proposed determination shall be furnished to the Standing Committee, and by them shall be communicated by mail or otherwise, before they act upon it, to the incumbent of the parish or mission district in question, and to the incumbents of all contiguous parishes or mission districts, with not less than twenty days' notice of a time and place appointed by the Bishop, at which the Bishop and the Standing Committee sitting together will hear any person interested in such proposed determination.

SEC. 4. If in any parish there be no Rector, or if the Rector be absent or unable to act, the powers and duties of the Rector under this Canon shall devolve upon the Vestry, who may appoint one of their number, or any Vicar or Curate of the parish, to represent them in that behalf at any meetings or hearings at which the Rector would be entitled to be present, and to do any act which the Rector might do.

SEC. 5. If in any Archdeaconry there be no Archdeacon, the Bishop shall issue his commission to any clergyman resident within the Archdeaconry, who shall act in the matter with all the authority that the Archdeacon would have.

SAC. 6. Wherever a chapel or a mission is maintained by a parish, if it be included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, no separate district shall be assigned to it; but if it be not included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, a separate district shall be assigned to it, and the boundaries thereof shall be determined in the manner provided by this Canon; and, when so determined, the territory included within such boundaries shall constitute part of the parish.

SAC. 7. When the boundaries of a parish or of a mission district shall have been determined by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, the territory so bounded shall, in the case of a parish, constitute the parish or cure of the Rector thereof, and in the case of a mission district, of a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, shall constitute the parochial cure of the Superintendent for the time being of that Society, and in all other cases shall constitute the parochial cure of the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the chapel or mission is situated; and such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon, as the case may be, shall be deemed the incumbent of such parish or mission.

SAC. 8. No clergyman shall officiate publicly in this Diocese within the parish or parochial cure of any other clergyman either by celebrating the Sacraments, reading Prayers, preaching, or otherwise, unless he have been thereto invited or have received express permission for that purpose from the Minister of the parish or cure; or, in his absence, from the Vestry, or a majority of the members of the Vestry.

SAC. 9. Save as otherwise in this Canon provided, the boundaries of a parish or mission district shall not be altered, and the boundaries of a new parish or mission district shall not be determined, so as to include any part of the territory of a parish, without the consent of the Rector of the parish, with the advice and consent of the Vestry. A new parish shall not be constituted, and a mission district shall not be erected into a parish, until the proceedings required by the law of the State for the incorporation of a church or parish shall have been taken and a copy of such proceedings delivered to the Bishop. A new parish or a new mission district may be constituted by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, in any town or borough in which no parish or mission district shall previously have been constituted. In any other town or borough a new parish or a new mission district may be so constituted upon the consent of the incumbents of all the parishes or missions, any part of whose territory is proposed to be included in such new parish or new mission district, and of the three parishes or missions whose churches or chapels are nearest to the site of the proposed church, chapel, or other place of public worship, with the advice and consent of the Vestries of such parishes. If any of such incumbents shall not so consent, the Standing Committee may, nevertheless, consent to the constitution of such new parish or new mission district by the Bishop, provided a copy of the Bishop's proposed determination shall be communicated by the Standing Committee by mail or otherwise, before they act upon it, to the incumbent of any parish or mission concerned who shall not have consented, and to the applicants, with not less than twenty days' notice of the time and place at which the Standing Committee will hear any parish interested in such determination.

SEC. 10. In any town or borough in which a parish or a mission district shall have been constituted, a new place of worship (unless upon the site of a former one) shall not be established, nor shall a new congregation be gathered, nor shall a congregation remove from one site or place of worship to another site or place of worship unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license therefor; provided the Standing Committee shall communicate a copy of the Bishop's proposed license by mail or otherwise, before they act upon it, to the incumbent of the parish or mission district within which it is intended to establish such new place of worship or to remove such congregation, and to the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts nearest to the site of the proposed church, chapel, or other place of public worship, and to the applicant for such license, with not less than twenty days notice of the time and place at which the Standing Committee will hear any person interested in the matter.

SEC. 11. Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which it is proposed to prosecute such work, may be prosecuted at any place they may designate, after conference with the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts whose places of worship are nearest to the proposed site; but such work shall not be continued more than one year, nor shall any building for such work be erected unless and until the Bishop shall have issued his license for the establishment of a new place of public worship, or shall have constituted a new mission district or a new parish, for the continuance of such work.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Peters the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That the Canon proposed by the Committee on Parochial Intrusion and the definition of parochial boundaries to take the place of the present Canon XIV. be referred to the Committee on Canons, with instructions to report as early as practicable to this Convention.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower reported, in behalf of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Parishes, that application for admission into union with the Convention had been received from St. Paul's Church, Chester, and that the papers were in due order; and recommended that said parish be admitted into union with the Convention.

On motion, the recommendation was adopted.

The Secretary presented the following report :

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE AND PROPERTY OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF NEW YORK, FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 23, 1901.

The following is a list of the various Trusts:

Diocesan House, 29 Lafayette Place, and an Endowment Fund of $50,000.00, the income of which is to be expended for its support and maintenance. The real estate is leased to the Bishop and the entire income paid to him.

Land, Church Building, Rectory, Parish House, and School House at Eighty-ninth Street and Madison Avenue, leased to the Church of the Beloved Disciple. Endowment Fund and securities of the par value of $180,478.92, the income of which is to be applied to the maintenance and preservation of the church and its work, but no income shall be expended for alterations to the church or for a Mission Church.

Land, Burial Plot, and Glebe Plot, with Church Building, Parish House, and Rectory, near Scarborough, Westchester County, leased to St. Mary's Church, Beechwood. Endowment Fund of $9,206.82; the income to be expended for repairs and conducting services in the church.

Land and Church Buildings at Cruger's, Westchester County, occupied by the Church of the Divine Love.

Land, Church Buildings, and Rectory, at Verplanck's, Westchester County, occupied by St. Barnabas' Church.

Land and Church Buildings at Rosendale, Ulster County, occupied by All Saints' Church.

Land and Church Buildings at Yonkers, occupied by Christ Church. A large addition to the property held under this Trust has been made during the past year. Buildings have been erected and land conveyed.

Land and Church Building at Tuxedo Park, occupied by St. Mary's Church. An exchange of property with the Tuxedo Park Association has been made by which the shape of the plot is much improved.

Land at Ellenville, Ulster County, with Church Building and Rectory, leased to St. John's Memorial Church.

Land and Church Building at Newburgh, leased to the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Endowment Fund of $5,500; the income to be paid semi-annually to the Pastor, Rector, or other head of St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church, in the town of Bedford, Westchester County, in addition to his regular salary.

Land and Church Building known as the Worthington Memorial Chapel, in the town of Greenburgh. Endowment Fund of $5,000, the income of which is to be applied to the repair and maintenance of the chapel and grounds.

Endowment Fund for the support of St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal Church, Mamaroneck, consisting of bonds of the West Shore Railroad Company of the par value of $4,500.

Endowment Fund, All Angels' Church, New York City. This fund is to accumulate until it amounts to $50,000. It amounts at this date to $17,112.01, Land at Yonkers, New York, with Church buildings, leased to St. Andrew's Memorial Church.

Loomis Memorial Chapel has been conveyed, the same to be held as a memorial of Dr. Alfred L. Loomis. The property is situated at Liberty, New York, at the Loomis Sanitarium, and has been leased on the usual terms to the Loomis Sanitarium, which agrees to maintain the property and provide necessary services.

Property on the south side of East Eighty-eighth Street, east of Second Avenue, held by St. James' Church. This corporation holds a reversionary interest in this property in case the church corporation should fail to comply with the terms of the deed of gift. Endowment Fund of $200,000 to be invested and the income paid over to the Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. James' Church, to be applied to the use, maintenance, and support of said property in East Eighty-eighth Street.

In addition to this an Endowment Fund of $89,010 has been received, to be held by this corporation, and the income paid to St. James' Church so long as it shall be entitled under the terms of the agreement to receive the same, and afterwards to Trinity Church Corporation of the City of New York.

Land at Harrison, Westchester County, New York, with Church Building thereon. As no church corporation has been formed to hold this property, a lease was made to Rev. William W. Kirkby, Frank German, James A. Burnham, and William H. Beers, who agreed to maintain the property in repair and provide church services; the property being occupied and held in connection with Christ Church at Rye.

Fund of $5,000 held under the will of Elizabeth D. Eaton, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be used to provide fitting and proper burial of the poor connected with that parish.

The term of office of two of the Trustees, William Alexander Smith and William Watts Sherman, will expire October 1, 1901, and two persons should be elected by the Convention for the term of four years to succeed them.

The Treasurer's report submitted herewith shows in his charge securities and cash of the estimated value of five hundred and seventy-one thousand eight hundred and two dollars and seventy-five cents ($571,802.75).

Income received and paid out, twenty-four thousand one hundred and eighty seven dollars and sixty cents ($24,187.60).

HENRY LEWIS MORRIS,
Secretary.

WM. WATTS SHERMAN, Treasurer.

NEW YORK, September 28, 1901.

The undersigned have examined the foregoing accounts, and have found them correct, and have found the securities and cash as called for.

WM. ALEX. SMITH,
J. PIERPONT MORGAN, } Auditing Committee.
GEORGE R. SCHIEFFELIN, }

NEW YORK, September 23, 1901.

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for Dr. Wm. Alex. Smith and Mr. Wm. Watts Sherman, to succeed themselves as Trustees for the ensuing four years.

The Secretary presented the following report :

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund respectfully report that their work has been done during the year in the ordinary way, the income having been distributed in the usual manner. It has not been customary to publish the names of the clergymen receiving stipends from the funds of the Society. The property 575 West 143th Street, which was taken under the foreclosure of a mortgage of $30,000, and which represents an investment, including the costs of the foreclosure proceedings, of $31,286.19, has not been sold, but with the improvement in the value of real estate looked for from the increased transit facilities now in progress and projected, it is hoped that a purchaser for it may be found at a price sufficient to make good the amount invested. The Annual Report of the Treasurer is hereunto annexed.

The Trustees have to deplore the loss of their late associate, Mr. George Coppel, who died since the last meeting of this Convention, and whose high character and large business experience eminently fitted him for the office of Trustee. His term of office would have expired in 1903. The terms of office of Mr. George R. Schieffelin and Dr. Stuyvesant F. Morris will expire on October 1, 1901.

Three persons should be elected by the Convention to succeed them.

WALTER THOMPSON.

W. PIERSON HAMILTON,

Treasurer.

On motion, the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved. That the Secretary be instructed to cast the ballot for Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie to succeed Mr. George Coppell, deceased, as Trustee of the Parochial Fund for a term expiring October 1, 1903, and for Mr. George R. Chieffelin and Mr. Stuyvesant F. Morris to succeed themselves as Trustees for the term of three years, expiring October 1, 1904.

The Rev. Geo. F. Nelson, D.D., presented the following report :

ReportOF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 15, 1901.

It can well be understood that this Church Mission, after seventy years of growth and service, has now reached too wide a scale of usefulness for a year's record to be made within the limits of a brief statement. At a later date it will be our privilege to publish a pamphlet containing descriptive details. It will include reports from clergymen and others who have been on duty at the Chapels, Mission Houses, and public institutions of our field of labor. Copies will be distributed in such churches as favor the Society with an opportunity to make its annual appeal, and other copies will be obtainable on application at 38 Bleecker Street.

The Treasurer's books show that the sources of the Society's income have been as follows :

Church Collections.....	$14,637 40
Contributions	12,141 14
Interest, Rents, and Dividends.....	18,776 47
Fresh Air Fund.....	4,147 61
Festival Fund.....	2,878 00
Mission News, Subscriptions, etc.....	1,035 26
Legacies	16,007 15
Total.....	$69,673 03

Our Missionary staff during the past twelve months, including seven ordained Ministers on temporary duty, has numbered nineteen clergymen, one deaconess, and five lay readers.

The following is a partial record :

Number of Religious Services	3,568
Celebrations of the Holy Communion, Public.....	608
" " " " Private	98
Baptisms, Adults.....	16
" Children.....	256
Presented for Confirmation.....	118
Marriages.....	56
Funerals.....	198
Pastoral Visits	106,369
Books Distributed in Public Institutions.....	48,153
Periodicals Distributed in Public Institutions.....	123,972

Of the candidates confirmed, seventy-one were presented at the Chapel of the Messiah ; eighteen at the Chapel of San Salvatore ; eleven at St. Ambrose Church, and eighteen at the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, Almshouse, Blackwell's Island.

The usual varied Mission work has been continued, with many tokens of encouragement, at the City Mission's seven chapels : viz., at the Chapels of the Messiah, St. Barnabas', God's Providence, St. Ambrose's, San Salvatore's, the Good Shepherd, connected with the Almshouse, and at the Chapel of Christ the Consoler, connected with Bellevue Hospital.

On Sundays, at St. Ambrose's Church, the morning service in German at nine o'clock, and the later Morning and Evening Services in English have been continued, and we have had there also, during a greater part of the year, an early Communion and an Afternoon Service in Italian. An earnest and faithful work has been done in connection with the last-named services by a competent and sympathetic clergyman, born in Italy of Scotch parentage, and ordained in the American Church ; and, although the numerical results have not been so large as the outlook over the Italian colony in the neighborhood seemed at first to promise, we ought not, perhaps, to be surprised in view of the fact that the English and German services, under separate pastors, have had voice of hours, and that most of the Italian families near by, as we have seen, are Roman Catholic.

As the new Church of San Salvatore is soon to be built in Broome Street, Elizabeth—the plans of Messrs. Hoppin & Koen, architects, having been completed—it is believed that the work among Italians so long and so successfully carried on by the late Mr. Pace, and continued after his death, will be no more than ever strong and useful. The new edifice, to cost not to exceed $100,000, and the new Parish House in Elizabeth Street, adjoining the rear of church site, will be near the homes of a majority of the present Italian congregation, and of its Men's Club and Labor Bureau, and will be fairly convenient to the East or West Side, including the Italian colony in the neighborhood of St. Ambrose's Church. In this connection we gratefully acknowledge our indebtedness to the Ladies' Aid Association. The President, Mrs. George McDoin, and her associates have been a tower of sympathy and practical aid to this work among sons and daughters of Italy who have settled in New York.

At God's Providence Mission and at St. Barnabas' House the past year has left a satisfying record of children cared for in the Day Nursery or taught in the kindergarten or other schools, of penniless women and children provided with a temporary home, and of employment found for the unemployed. Both these Mission Houses have the good fortune to be under the direction of a Deaconess of an Advisory Board of ladies of excellent qualifications for their responsibilities. They regret, as we all regret, that St. Barnabas' House is not larger than it is, because it now sometimes happens that it is too full of beneficiaries to admit others who are seeking such a shelter, but it is a comfort to know that under the roof of this refuge the utmost is being done that can be done to make a good use of all its resources for the benefit of as many as possible of the forlorn and needy ones for whom it is maintained.

A clothing bureau, under the direction of Miss Julia Lathers, was established last winter at No. 309 Mott Street, in the rear of St. Barnabas' House, and we commend it to the kind consideration of Church people outside as well as within the city. Many of the articles of second-hand clothing received at the bureau were given away to persons of extreme poverty, but others were sold for small sums to poor persons who could afford to make such payments out of meagre wages, and the proceeds, amounting to $258.08, were applied toward the temporary care of homeless children. The Special Funds generously contributed for Thanksgiving Day, Christmas, and Easter Festivals, for Fresh Air beneficiaries, and in aid of discharged prisoners in search of work, the amounts specified in the foregoing financial statement, have been most timely and judicious and beneficent use.

During the summer 250 children, in parties of 25 at a time, for a two weeks' sojourn, have been sent to the Rethmore Home, Tenafly, generously supported by Mr. and Mrs. J. Hull Browning, and 250 beneficiaries, mostly girls needing health, have enjoyed the invigorating air at North Mountain Home, Haines' Falls, for a week and a half, or for a longer period. The rent of the Home was entirely paid for last year, and also this season, out of the proceeds of entertainments given by cottagers and hotel guests in the neighborhood, and have become warmly interested in this charity, and we have been favored also by a large reduction of rates of transportation kindly made by the railroad companies. Two hundred children spent two weeks on Life Farm, on the invitation of the proprietors. The choir boys of St. Ambrose's Church had a two weeks' rest at Priory Farm, and those of the Church of San Salvatore enjoyed a like outing at the Pro-Cathedral Fresh Air Home at Tomkins Cove. Six thousand nine hundred beneficiaries have been sent on steamboat and barge excursions to groves on the Sound, and plans for smaller excursions have from time to time been carried into effect.

Our Reading Rooms at No. 38 Bleecker Street, God's Providence Mission, and at No. 625 West Forty-second Street—the rent of the latter being paid for by a young lady of an uptown parish—have been kept open on weekday evenings, and have been well attended.

Our Missionaries have done good service as teachers and pastors at all the institutions on Blackwell's Island, Ward's Island, Randall's Island, and Hart's Island, at such hospitals in the city as are under the direction of the Department of Public Charities, at Convalescent and other Homes for the poor, and at the several prisons. We are glad to report, also, that we have recently arranged for similar ministrations at the Smallpox Hospital on North Brother Island. On Blackwell's Island our clerical staff has been much aided by St. Elizabeth's Guild, and on Randall's Island by a number of Sunday-school Teachers from Grace-Emmanuel Church.

We all have good reason to say that we are citizens of no mean city, but we know it is a city of great contrasts. It is a city of churches and schools and good homes and rich commerce, and large achievement in all that is best in human progress; but it is also a city in which the complete reverse of all this is found in proportions of startling magnitude. On this side of East River many hundreds of thousands of the city's inhabitants live in houses of which a great number are not only unfit for human habitation, but in which the tenants are environed by moral conditions still more deplorable. While it is true that in these densely populated neighborhoods, notwithstanding the continual inflow of some of the worst elements of immigration, the graces of goodness and industry abound as truly as they abound anywhere, it is a lamentable fact that irreligion, gross ignorance, and vicious idleness are also widespread, and that they are helping from day to day to swell the multitudes that drift into our asylums and workhouses and prisons.

To carry the Gospel of light and inspiration to souls that are in danger of this downward drift, and to those also that have yielded to it until they are stranded on the beach of public charity, or swept into the law's strongholds, is the City Mission's earnest and active aim. The men and women and children to whom it ministers from day to day are beyond the picket lines of the good soldiers of the Cross who belong to parochial or other organizations. They are churchless congregations of Christ's poor, who, for the most part, know nothing of the Church until the City Mission gathers them into its Chapels. They are homeless and friendless ones, who find in the City Mission a shelter that shields them for a time from misfortune's storms, and prepares them with fresh hope and strength to renew their toilsome journey. They are lonely sufferers or wretched outcasts, who have learned nothing of religion, or have forgotten its meaning, until its message sounds for the first time in their ears or wakes hidden chords in their hearts in some asylum, ward, or prison cell. And so we remind Church people again that there are in this city multitudes of families in deep poverty, of patients in charity hospitals, of infirm men and women in asylums, of boys and girls in the Reformatory, of witnesses under lock and key in the House of Detention, of accused persons awaiting trial, of prisoners serving their sentence in the workhouse or penitentiary, and of lawless spirits in storm centres of ignorance and desperation, who are as sheep having no shepherd but such as the City Mission sends to them. And we ask the clergy and laity again for their prayers and for such a measure of their practical sympathy and bounty as shall more and more prosper the Church's work in this large Mission field.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. NELSON,

Superintendent.

NEW YORK, September 20, 1901.

The Rev. Wm. Montague Geer offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention, in accepting the annual report of the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, which has just been presented, desires to express its deep sense of the importance of the Society's work, and its cordial recommendation to the clergy and laity of the City and Diocese to give to that work their unremitting and generous support.

The Rev. D. H. Greer, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Deputies from this Diocese be and they are hereby requested to petition the General Convention at San Francisco to take such action as it may deem expedient and practicable toward securing uniformity of practice by the various religious bodies of the United States with reference to Divorce and Holy Matrimony.

The Rev. Archibald R. Mansfield presented the following report :

Report

OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR SEAMEN IN THE CITY AND PORT OF NEW YORK.

In making our report this year, we, the Board of Managers, have a keen sense of the responsibility resting upon us to vigorously extend the Mission's work at the present time. It is true that the attendance at our services has been large—over twenty thousand ; that over one hundred and forty-eight thousand visits have been made to our reading rooms ; that favorable circumstances have enabled us to make our plant more efficient in each branch by enlarging and putting our buildings in better condition, and, what is possibly still more important, that we have succeeded in protecting the sailor more than ever before. But all this falls far short of what we want to do and should do. Is it reasonable for a community to suppose that it can accomplish much toward making religion acceptable to the sailor if it harbors within its borders a horde of harpies constantly preying on him? Only a few years ago a careful estimate was made of the amount of what the sailors in this port were robbed of in one year—and what was it? Not less than half a million dollars. The enormity of the situation aroused the sailors' friends. Our Society took a prominent part not only in securing new legislation, but in energetically endeavoring to have the existing laws on the statute books enforced; and during the past year these efforts have been crowned with more satisfactory results than we could reasonably have hoped for.

The Seamen's Branch of the Legal Aid Society, to aid which this Society makes annual contributions, reports action each month on an average of three hundred and fifty (350) applications for legal aid. The same may be said of our special police officer, who in a single day handled over fourteen hundred dollars ($1,400) of seamen's wages thus saved from robbery, and mostly forwarded to dependent relatives through money orders, officers, and otherwise. The exaction of unlawful commissions or "blood money" by shipping agents—hitherto a prevalent mode of robbery—has also received attention, and one offender was fined one hundred dollars ($100), while others pleaded guilty and escaped with lighter penalties. In hundreds of cases arrears of wages and clothing, unlawfully withheld, have been recovered. It is a matter of congratulation that the Secretary of the Treasury and the Commissioner of Navigation at Washington received the representative of our Board with great courtesy and consideration, and embodied in the new regulations of the Department his suggestions for the prevention of criminal enticements to seamen prior to dockage or anchorage of vessels. Under the new law approved March 31, 1900, and the regulations of the Treasury Department, which became effective July 23, 1900, four "runners" have been brought to trial and punished by the U. S. Courts in this city. Cruelty at sea has been further discouraged, and stigmatized by six months' imprisonment of a cruel officer.

C. H. Abbott, Assistant Counsel of the Legal Aid Society, Seamen's Branch, reports that from March, 1899, to December 1, 1900, 5,778 seamen applied for legal aid: 1,916 for arrears of wages, 447 for personal property, chiefly clothing unlawfully confiscated; 156 made criminal complaints, 87 men were sent to home ports, 69 to hospitals, 69 complained of illegal shipping fees (blood money), 64 of illegal advances, 87 were discharged from ships, 63 applied for prize money, 79 obtained citizen's papers, 16 complained against "runners," 46 of assault and battery, and there were nearly all classes of cases possible for seamen to have. The "Branch for Seamen" collected $19,625.94 in money and $9,975 in value for personal property, being a total of $29,600.94 for seamen.

J. W. Abbott, our Special Police Officer (No. 131), reports that from January 8 to December 1, 1900, his duty has been to protect and aid seamen in and about the foreign consulates and shipping offices and in inspecting sailor boarding-houses in New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, and Hoboken, and in boarding ships in the harbor and at the piers. He has scrutinized the paying off and "signing on" of shipping articles of over 17,000 seamen, and aided in the arrest of twenty-two offenders against seamen on various complaints, delivered thirty-six summonses, obtained clothing or dunnage for 226 sailors, put home for seamen and held temporarily for them, $2,404.25; obtained naturalization papers for 89 seamen who wished to enter the navy, and investigated nearly one hundred sailor boarding-houses. In this work he became acquainted with all the boarding-house masters, runners, shipping masters, or "crimps," and all other solicitors of seamen in the port of New York, and closely watched them, having worked on an average nine hours a day.

The whole field of protecting the sailor is a vast one, and to work it properly will demand generous money support and untiring effort.

The school for navigation and applied seamanship has opened for the season at No. 34 Pike Street, but the outlook is not as hopeful as we expected. It should be a great aid to young seamen, and to young men who intend to become sailors, such instruction tending to diminish inefficiency and cruelty and to improve the service.

Death has taken from us one of our clerical Vice-Presidents, the much respected and beloved Rector of St. Thomas' Church, the Rev. Dr. John W. Brown.

During the year we have received legacies:

From the estates of Cornelius Vanderbilt, Alexander M. Proudfit, and Carolin E. Hollister.

It is to be regretted that our Society is not more frequently remembered when generous testators are seeking to make provision in their wills for a wise disposition of their money. If they would give but a moment's reflection to the fact that from the Battery to Tenth Street on the North River side we have but one station, and from there up to the northernmost point of the island none at all, while on the East River side our equipment is about equally inadequate—it would seem as though they would be convinced of the pressing need for more means wherewith to do this important work.

Great prosperity has come to our country. Will any one deny that our enormous trade with nations across the waters has had much to do with this? and has not the seaman performed an important part in bringing this about? Shall we now neglect him or shall we make some practical recognition of his services, by protecting him and making life in this city a blessing instead of a curse to him?

The Rev. Dr. Richey offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention, in accepting the annual report of the Board of Managers of the Protestant Episcopal Seamen's Missionary Society which has just been presented, recommends the work to the clergy and laity of the City of New York to give to that work their generous support.

The Rev. Frank M. S. Taylor offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention indorse any application which may be made by the Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York to the managers of steamship lines for a portion of proceeds of any entertainments which may be given on board their ships for the benefit of sailors.

The Secretary announced that he had appointed as Assistant Secretaries the Rev. George F. Nelson, D.D., the Rev. Romaine S. Mansfield, the Rev. Robert Morris Kemp, and the Rev. Robert Van Kleeck Harris.

The Rev. Dr. Cole presented the following report :

Report

DIOCESE OF NEW YORK, SEPTEMBER, 1901.

During the past year the work of reorganizing and extending the curriculum of the College has progressed steadily and as rapidly as circumstances would permit. As a result we are now offering 99 separate courses, aggregating 277 hours of work per week for a term, as compared with 59 courses, aggregating 178 hours, advertised in the Catalogue of 1898-99. The character of the work in the various departments has been made distinctly more mature, and part of each of the last three years of the course has been made elective.

Dr. John C. Robertson, whose work last year was carried on with singular efficiency by Dr. Herbert B. Foster, has resumed his duties as Professor of Greek. The Rev. Thomas H. Yardley, M.A., has been appointed Professor of English and History, and has already begun a vigorous reorganization of that department.

In accordance with the plan set forth at the beginning of the present administration, we have now entirely discontinued the preparatory department. As this department constituted two years ago forty per cent. of the total enrollment of the institution, we have not been able—nor did we hope—to make this rapid elimination of pre-college work without a slight reduction this year in the total number of students. However, the number of men taking distinctly college work has increased in two years about sixty per cent. Fourteen men who will be thoroughly prepared for the freshman class have already definitely applied for admission in September, 1902.

But these are mere details. The real crux of our problem at the present time lies in the relation of the College to the Diocese. Each year, as you know, the Warden of St. Stephen's College presents a report to the Convention of the Diocese of New York; the Diocese is represented on the Board of Trustees of the College by its Bishop and two of the members of the Standing Committee, and the Warden, personally, would welcome any further representation on the Board that the Diocese may desire. But, as there should be no taxation without representation, so there should be no representation without taxation of some kind. The Diocese has a weighty responsibility toward the College, which it cannot with justice ignore. We now feel that, with the work we are actually accomplishing, we have the right to insist upon the fulfilment of that responsibility. We would gladly welcome a thorough and intelligent investigation into the quality of the distinctly college work that we are now doing, and are willing to stand or fall before the Convention on the outcome of that examination. The Diocese of New York has now the opportunity to say clearly and definitely whether it wants to have and maintain a thoroughly efficient Church College, whose baccalaureate degree shall represent all that the best degrees of that grade imply. I urge you, my brethren, throw aside indifference and apathy, and act promptly and vigorously in this matter, which, I am convinced, means much to the Church.

If we, at St. Stephen's College, are to meet the needs of our expanding life efficiently, we must have very soon an addition to our general endowment of a quarter of a million dollars. In particular, we need immediately $50,000 to establish a Chair of Science, and two professors' cottages to cost about $3,500 each. We have done and are doing our part. Will the Diocese of New York give us the equipment we shall soon be obliged to have, or must we ask the members of other dioceses to do our work for us?

LAWRENCE T. COLE,
Warden.

The Rev. Dr. Cole offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the Bishop to investigate the present condition of St. Stephen's College, especially with regard to the changes and improvements lately made in the standards and work of the College, to report at the next Convention on that subject, and also upon the relation and responsibility of the Diocese of New York to the College.

The Secretary presented the following report :

The receipts from assessments during the year have been sufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary ; but, no addition having been made to the capital of the fund during the year, the same assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of the year ending September, 1902. The Trustees therefore recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are hereby, authorized to assess the parishes of the Diocese at the rate of one per cent. upon the salaries paid to the clergy, for the purpose of raising the moneys needed for the Episcopal Fund, in lieu of the collections provided for by Canon.

The Trustees report the purchase by them of $26,000 Chesapeake and Ohio General Mortgage 4½ Bonds at 99, and ½% commission, for the "General Fund," and of $12,000 of the same securities at the same price for the "Residence Fund," and request the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese having reported the purchase by them, as an investment of a portion of the funds in their hands, of $26,000 Chesapeake and Ohio General Mortgage 4½ Bonds at 99, and ½% commission, for the "General Fund," and of $12,000 of the same securities at the same price for the "Residence Fund," such action and purchase by the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund is approved.

Report

OF THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL COMMISSION.

e report submitted to the Convention a year ago, called attention to the for which the Commission was originally appointed, namely, to investi-e present condition of the Sunday-school, with a view to determining its for the work of the religious education of the young, and to make such s should be possible to raise its standard, and improve its method and lum of study. The work of the past year was laid out with this end in Following upon the Course of Lectures which had been delivered in St.

Bartholomew's Church in the autumn of 1899, the Commission arranged for a series of Training Classes to be held at different centres in the City of New York. These classes were conducted by trained and experienced educators, such as Dr. Walter L. Hervey, Examiner of the New York Board of Education; Prof. John F. Reigart, and Mr. F. A. Manney, of the Ethical Culture Schools; Prof. Franklin T. Baker, of Columbia University; Prof. George A. Hubbell, of the Erasmus Hall High School, Brooklyn; and Miss Emma G. Sebring, of St. Agatha's School, New York. These classes were remarkably successful, with an attendance of some 350 teachers, and many of these took, voluntarily, examinations upon the courses attended by them. This is the first time in the history of Sunday-schools, in this city at least, that such a series of Training Classes has ever been organized and conducted. Only those who are familiar with the whole subject of Sunday-school work, will appreciate the significance of this simple fact. It has already done much to call attention to the importance of introducing into the field of education the principles and methods of the art of teaching. If nothing more had been done by this Commission, it would be much to have accomplished even this result.

2. From all that can be learned there does not seem to have been any special effort on the part of parishes outside of the city to undertake the work of teacher-training. Reading Course No. 1, on the "Principles of Religious Education," was provided for classes under the direction of the Rector or some public school teacher whose professional training might be brought into requisition for the benefit of the Church. The Commission feels very keenly the natural difficulties in the way of such an effort. Yet in some instances Rectors have tried to do this, and the result has fully justified the undertaking. The simple fact is, that no school can be lifted to the higher educational standard unless some definite effort is made. It will cost trouble, but the trouble will in the end pay a rich dividend. If the full list of books in Reading Course No. 1 is too heavy for any school, a selection can be made. The great point is to recognize the importance of improving the teacher, for the teacher determines the level and quality of the school. Let the Pastor become the teacher of his teachers. Let him believe, and make his teachers believe, that their vocation ranks next to his own, and he will find that his own high ideal has won its way into the hearts of his people, and his school will become a new and living reality.

3. THE CRYPT CONFERENCE. This year's conference was held under the direction and call of the Bishop on Monday, the 20th of May. The following is the list of subjects and speakers:

The Present State of Sunday-school Education.

Report by the Chairman of the Commission, Rev. Pascal Harrower.

Subject I.—The Obligation upon the Pastor to Know Child Nature.

Subject II.—The Desirability of a Comprehensive and Systematic Order of Study for Our Sunday-schools.

(a) How shall such an Order of Study be planned to instruct the child in he things the Church would teach ? By Rev. Lawrence T. Cole, B.D., Ph.D., Warden of St. Stephen's College, Annandale, New York.

(b) How shall such an Order of Study be coördinated with the Development of the Child-mind ? By Prof. Samuel T. Dutton, M.A., of Teachers College, Columbia University, New York.

(c) Adapting the Bible-school Curriculum to the Child. By George W. Pease, Professor of Pedagogy, Bible Normal College, Springfield, Mass.

Subject III.—The Sunday-school Commission and the Education of the Teacher.

Report of the Secretary of the Commission, Rev. Wm. Walter Smith, M.A., M.D.

The Evening Session was held at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, at 100 P.M.

Subject I.—The Child, the School, and the Church.

(a) The Teacher and the Standard of the School. By Dr. Malcolm McLean, Superintendent of St. Andrew's Sunday-school, New York.

(b) The School and the Forward Movement of the Church. By Rev. Lester Bradner, Jr., Ph.D., of the Church of the Ascension, New York.

Subject II.—Summary of the Day's Results.

Sunday-school Exhibit.

During the day of the Conference there was a Special Exhibit of Sunday-school supplies, lessons, books, maps, forms, etc., in the Cathedral House, and permanently thereafter at the Office of the Commission, 29 Lafayette Place.

The dominant note of this Conference was educational. Preceding the conference a series of questions was sent to every Rector in the Diocese, which ended at getting as far as possible a definite statement of actual conditions existing in his own Sunday-school. Based upon these answers, the report was made as noted in the above list of subjects. This report, together with the other papers, has been printed, in response to very urgent requests, by Longmans, Green & Co. (Boards, 116 pages. Net, 60 cents.)

One feature of the Conference was the profound emphasis it placed on the educational relation of the Pastor to the child, together with the necessity of a higher grade of teacher, and an improved curriculum or course of study, properly graded and edited.

It was in response to the impressive words of the Bishop of the Diocese, that a resolution was introduced memorializing the General Convention, at its approaching meeting in San Francisco, to consider the importance of special preparation and training for the work of the religious education of the young, and that to this end the Convention should urge the establishment, in all institutions for theological learning, of thorough, practical training in the Principles of Religious Pedagogics.

This resolution was signed by over 500 names, and the Commission has appointed a special committee, of which the Rev. David H. Greer, D.D., is chairman, to lay this memorial before the General Convention. The other members of the committee are the Rev. Drs. Henry Mottet and W. S. Rainsford, Drs. Nicholas Murray Butler and Walter L. Hervey. In connection with this, it is especially gratifying to state that the Joint Diocesan Committee on Sunday-school Lessons, at its meeting held in this city early last summer, passed a similar resolution; and further, that the New York State Sunday-school Association, representing all denominations, at its Annual Convention in Binghamton last June unanimously indorsed a resolution to the same effect, to be laid before their respective Churches and Theological Schools.

4. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION TRAINING SCHOOL. Reference has been made to the success attending the Teachers' Training Classes last winter, and the question arises, Does the Training Class indicate the need of larger and more permanent effort? The Commission believes that it does, and a resolution to this effect was passed at the Crypt Conference. Let us call attention just here to the fact that at the time when the Commission was originally appointed the hope was cherished that in the course of time the Sunday-school must take its place among recognized educational institutions. It was even hoped that such dignity and earnestness of purpose would be given it that there could be utilized for the improvement of religious education the highly trained teachers of Columbia University and the Teachers College. The Training Classes were organized as a step toward some better and more permanent scheme. That scheme is not yet realized. The Training Classes we have. The Training School is yet to come. But let it be clearly understood that such a school has been, from the very first, in the mind of the Commission.

Let us note the progress of this whole movement. The Lectures given in the Christian Knowledge Course two years ago were published. They met with a large sale, not only in this country, but in England, New Zealand, Australia, and Canada, and the fourth edition is now in press. Last year's Convention Report, together with the twelve Reading Course Circulars, have been even more widely distributed.

The one characteristic note of this movement has been that the Sunday-school is a school, to be dealt with and developed as an institution for religious education. It is therefore deserving of our largest interest and utmost effort to make it a school worthy of our Christian faith. This cannot be done unless we bring to its aid the highest educational skill and enthusiasm. The result of the work so far accomplished has been to draw to us the sympathy and interest of educators, and Christians of other communions have felt the force of the position taken by the Commission. Now, how far can we go towards realizing our ideal Training School for this Diocese and city?

Given a proper endowment fund, and we could establish in this Diocese, in connection with the Cathedral system, a Training School whose work would be of incalculable benefit. It would not only revolutionize the character of our city schools, but every parish in the Diocese would feel the inspiration and benefit of it. It would take its place beside the Theological Seminary and prove an invaluable adjunct to the work of that institution. Such a Training School, connected with the Cathedral system, is eminently practical. It would simply be the organizing at one central point of the scattered work of the Training Classes already started. We have in this Diocese and city the most favorable conditions for such an enterprise, and the Commission most earnestly asks that the members of this Convention will give to this subject their most thoughtful consideration. We shall not as a Church be worthy of our trust unless we bring to this work of religious education the largest wisdom and most serious effort of which we are capable. Until this larger and more permanent school can be established, what shall be done? We propose to go on this coming year with our Training Classes. Circulars of these classes will be issued this week. The following arrangement has been made:

TRAINING CLASSES will be held at the Diocesan House, 29 Lafayette Place.

1. Course on the Life and Character of Jesus Christ. Ten Lectures, by the Rev. Henry Lubeck, D.C.L.
2. Method of Teaching the Life of Christ. Ten Lectures, by Prof. Chas. P. Fagnani.
3. The Founding of the Christian Church. Twenty Lectures, by the Rev. George R. Van DeWater, D.D.
4. The Missionary Work of the Church. Twenty Lectures, by the Rev. Robert Kimber.
5. The Prayer Book and Church Worship. Ten Lectures, by the Rev. Henry H. Oberly, D.D.
6. The Lands of the Book, Geography, etc. Six Lectures, by the Rev. James B. Nies, D.D.
7. Pictures and their Use in Sunday-schools. Six Lectures, by Antoinette Bryant Hervey.
8. Practical Primary Methods. Ten Lectures, by Miss O'Grady, Teachers College.
9. Methods of Teaching the Church Catechism. Ten Lectures, by Miss Ada M. Skinner, St. Agatha's School, Teachers College.
10. Seminar on S. S. Organization and Curriculum. Ten Sessions, conducted by a Committee of the Commission.
11. Extension Classes on the Art of Teaching (Ten Lessons) will be arranged in parishes desiring them.

Prices for the above courses are: $3.00 for the twenty-hour lesson courses; $2.00 for the ten-hour courses, and $1.50 for the six-hour courses. The Commission reserves the right to withdraw any course if the number of entries for the class be not sufficient to meet the minimum stipend of the Lecturer.

As a result of the interest awakened in this work of the Training Class, it is gratifying to state that other classes, outside our own Church, have been arranged for the coming season. Some of the subjects selected for these classes are of common educational value, and the Commission has been asked to coöperate with these so far as to make use of such lectures and subjects as are of mutual interest to all Christian workers and teachers. It is indeed a most grateful fact to record this deepening interest among all Christian churches in so great a subject. Let us be thankful in that our own Church and Diocese has been able to forward such an educational advance.

5. The Commission seeks to be of the utmost possible help to those engaged in the practical work of the Sunday-school.

The Rev. Frank M. S. Taylor offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention indorse any application which may be made by the Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York to the managers of steamship lines for a portion of proceeds of any entertainments which may be given on board their ships for the benefit of sailors.

The Secretary announced that he had appointed as Assistant Secretaries the Rev. George F. Nelson, D.D., the Rev. Romaine S. Mansfield, the Rev. Robert Morris Kemp, and the Rev. Robert Van Kleeck Harris.

The Rev. Dr. Cole presented the following report :

Report

DIOCESE OF NEW YORK, SEPTEMBER, 1901.

During the past year the work of reorganizing and extending the curriculum of the College has progressed steadily and as rapidly as circumstances would permit. As a result we are now offering 99 separate courses, aggregating 277 hours of work per week for a term, as compared with 59 courses, aggregating 178 hours, advertised in the Catalogue of 1898-99. The character of the work in the various departments has been made distinctly more mature, and part of each of the last three years of the course has been made elective.

Dr. John C. Robertson, whose work last year was carried on with singular efficiency by Dr. Herbert B. Foster, has resumed his duties as Professor of Greek. The Rev. Thomas H. Yardley, M.A., has been appointed Professor of English and History, and has already begun a vigorous reorganization of that department.

In accordance with the plan set forth at the beginning of the present administration, we have now entirely discontinued the preparatory department. As this department constituted two years ago forty per cent. of the total enrollment of the institution, we have not been able—nor did we hope—to make this rapid elimination of pre-college work without a slight reduction this year in the total number of students. However, the number of men taking distinctly college work has increased in two years about sixty per cent. Fourteen men who will be thoroughly prepared for the freshman class have already definitely applied for admission in September, 1902.

But these are mere details. The real crux of our problem at the present time lies in the relation of the College to the Diocese. Each year, as you know, the Warden of St. Stephen's College presents a report to the Convention of the Diocese of New York; the Diocese is represented on the Board of Trustees of the College by its Bishop and two of the members of the Standing Committee, and the Warden, personally, would welcome any further representation on the Board that the Diocese may desire. But, as there should be no taxation without representation, so there should be no representation without taxation of some kind. The Diocese has a weighty responsibility toward the College, which it cannot with justice ignore. We now feel that, with the work we are actually accomplishing, we have the right to insist upon the fulfilment of that responsibility. We would gladly welcome a thorough and intelligent investigation into the quality of the distinctly college work that we are now doing, and are willing to stand or fall before the Convention on the outcome of that examination. The Diocese of New York has now the opportunity to say clearly and definitely whether it wants to have and maintain a thoroughly efficient Church College, whose baccalaureate degree shall represent all that the best degrees of that grade imply. I urge you, my brethren, throw aside indifference and apathy, and act promptly and vigorously in this matter, which, I am convinced, means much to the Church.

If we, at St. Stephen's College, are to meet the needs of our expanding life efficiently, we must have very soon an addition to our general endowment of a quarter of a million dollars. In particular, we need immediately $50,000 to establish a Chair of Science, and two professors' cottages to cost about $3,500 each. We have done and are doing our part. Will the Diocese of New York give us the equipment we shall soon be obliged to have, or must we ask the members of other dioceses to do our work for us?

LAWRENCE T. COLE,
Warden.

The Rev. Dr. Cole offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed by the Bishop to investigate the present condition of St. Stephen's College, especially with regard to the changes and improvements lately made in the standards and work of the College, to report at the next Convention on that subject, and also upon the relation and responsibility of the Diocese of New York to the College.

The Secretary presented the following report :

The receipts from assessments during the year have been sufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary ; but, no addition having been made to the capital of the fund during the year, the same assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of the year ending September, 1902. The Trustees therefore recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are hereby, authorized to assess the parishes of the Diocese at the rate of one per cent. upon the salaries paid to the clergy, for the purpose of raising the moneys needed for the Episcopal Fund, in lieu of the collections provided for by Canon.

The Trustees report the purchase by them of $26,000 Chesapeake and Ohio General Mortgage 4½% Bonds at 99, and ½% commission, for the "General Fund," and of $12,000 of the same securities at the same price for the "Residence Fund," and request the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese having reported the purchase by them, as an investment of a portion of the funds in their hands, of $26,000 Chesapeake and Ohio General Mortgage 4½% Bonds at 99, and ½% commission, for the "General Fund," and of $12,000 of the same securities at the same price for the "Residence Fund," such action and purchase by the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund is approved.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the following report :

Report

OF THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL COMMISSION.

The report submitted to the Convention a year ago, called attention to the purpose for which the Commission was originally appointed, namely, to investigate the present condition of the Sunday-school, with a view to determining its fitness for the work of the religious education of the young, and to make such effort as should be possible to raise its standard, and improve its method and curriculum of study. The work of the past year was laid out with this end in view.

1. Following upon the Course of Lectures which had been delivered in St.

Bartholomew's Church in the autumn of 1899, the Commission arranged for a series of Training Classes to be held at different centres in the City of New York. These classes were conducted by trained and experienced educators, such as Dr. Walter L. Hervey, Examiner of the New York Board of Education; Prof. John F. Reigart, and Mr. F. A. Manney, of the Ethical Culture Schools; Prof. Franklin T. Baker, of Columbia University; Prof. George A. Hubbell, of the Erasmus Hall High School, Brooklyn; and Miss Emma G. Sebring, of St. Agatha's School, New York. These classes were remarkably successful, with an attendance of some 350 teachers, and many of these took, voluntarily, examinations upon the courses attended by them. This is the first time in the history of Sunday-schools, in this city at least, that such a series of Training Classes has ever been organized and conducted. Only those who are familiar with the whole subject of Sunday-school work, will appreciate the significance of this simple fact. It has already done much to call attention to the importance of introducing into the field of education the principles and methods of the art of teaching. If nothing more had been done by this Commission, it would be much to have accomplished even this result.

2. From all that can be learned there does not seem to have been any special effort on the part of parishes outside of the city to undertake the work of teacher-training. Reading Course No. 1, on the "Principles of Religious Education," was provided for classes under the direction of the Rector or some public school teacher whose professional training might be brought into requisition for the benefit of the Church. The Commission feels very keenly the natural difficulties in the way of such an effort. Yet in some instances Rectors have tried to do this, and the result has fully justified the undertaking. The simple fact is, that no school can be lifted to the higher educational standard unless some definite effort is made. It will cost trouble, but the trouble will in the end pay a rich dividend. If the full list of books in Reading Course No. 1 is too heavy for any school, a selection can be made. The great point is to recognize the importance of improving the teacher, for the teacher determines the level and quality of the school. Let the Pastor become the teacher of his teachers. Let him believe, and make his teachers believe, that their vocation ranks next to his own, and he will find that his own high ideal has won its way into the hearts of his people, and his school will become a new and living reality.

3. THE CRYPT CONFERENCE. This year's conference was held under the direction and call of the Bishop on Monday, the 20th of May. The following is the list of subjects and speakers:

The Present State of Sunday-school Education.

Report by the Chairman of the Commission, Rev. Pascal Harrower.

Subject I.—The Obligation upon the Pastor to Know Child Nature.

Subject II.—The Desirability of a Comprehensive and Systematic Order of Study for Our Sunday-schools.

(a) How shall such an Order of Study be planned to instruct the child in the things the Church would teach ? By Rev. Lawrence T. Cole, B.D., Ph.D., Warden of St. Stephen's College, Annandale, New York.

(b) How shall such an Order of Study be coördinated with the Development of the Child-mind ? By Prof. Samuel T. Dutton, M.A., of Teachers College, Columbia University, New York.

(c) Adapting the Bible-school Curriculum to the Child. By George W. Pease, Professor of Pedagogy, Bible Normal College, Springfield, Mass.

Subject III.—The Sunday-school Commission and the Education of the Teacher.

Report of the Secretary of the Commission, Rev. Wm. Walter Smith, M.A., M.D.

The Evening Session was held at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, at 8.00 P.M.

Subject I.—The Child, the School, and the Church.

(a) The Teacher and the Standard of the School. By Dr. Malcolm McLean, Superintendent of St. Andrew's Sunday-school, New York.

(b) The School and the Forward Movement of the Church. By Rev. Lester Bradner, Jr., Ph.D., of the Church of the Ascension, New York.

Subject II.—Summary of the Day's Results.

Sunday-school Exhibit.

During the day of the Conference there was a Special Exhibit of Sunday-school supplies, lessons, books, maps, forms, etc., in the Cathedral House, and permanently thereafter at the Office of the Commission, 29 Lafayette Place.

The dominant note of this Conference was educational. Preceding the Conference a series of questions was sent to every Rector in the Diocese, which aimed at getting as far as possible a definite statement of actual conditions existing in his own Sunday-school. Based upon these answers, the report was made as noted in the above list of subjects. This report, together with the other papers, has been printed, in response to very urgent requests, by Longmans, Green & Co. (Boards, 116 pages. Net, 60 cents.)

One feature of the Conference was the profound emphasis it placed on the educational relation of the Pastor to the child, together with the necessity of a higher grade of teacher, and an improved curriculum or course of study, properly graded and edited.

It was in response to the impressive words of the Bishop of the Diocese, that a resolution was introduced memorializing the General Convention, at its approaching meeting in San Francisco, to consider the importance of special preparation and training for the work of the religious education of the young, and that to this end the Convention should urge the establishment, in all institutions for theological learning, of thorough, practical training in the Principles of Religious Pedagogics.

This resolution was signed by over 500 names, and the Commission has appointed a special committee, of which the Rev. David H. Greer, D.D., is chairman, to lay this memorial before the General Convention. The other members of the committee are the Rev. Drs. Henry Mottet and W. S. Rainford, Drs. Nicholas Murray Butler and Walter L. Hervey. In connection with this, it is especially gratifying to state that the Joint Diocesan Committee on Sunday-school Lessons, at its meeting held in this city early last summer, passed a similar resolution; and further, that the New York State Sunday-school Association, representing all denominations, at its Annual Convention in Binghamton last June unanimously indorsed a resolution to the same effect, to be laid before their respective Churches and Theological Schools.

4. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION TRAINING SCHOOL. Reference has been made to the success attending the Teachers' Training Classes last winter, and the question arises, Does the Training Class indicate the need of larger and more permanent effort? The Commission believes that it does, and a resolution to this effect was passed at the Crypt Conference. Let us call attention just here to the fact that at the time when the Commission was originally appointed the hope was cherished that in the course of time the Sunday-school must take its place among recognized educational institutions. It was even hoped that such dignity and earnestness of purpose would be given it that there could be utilized for the improvement of religious education the highly trained teachers of Columbia University and the Teachers College. The Training Classes were organized as a step toward some better and more permanent scheme. That scheme is not yet realized. The Training Classes we have. The Training School is yet to come. But let it be clearly understood that such a school has been, from the very first, in the mind of the Commission.

Let us note the progress of this whole movement. The Lectures given in the Christian Knowledge Course two years ago were published. They met with a large sale, not only in this country, but in England, New Zealand, Australia, and Canada, and the fourth edition is now in press. Last year's Convention Report, together with the twelve Reading Course Circulars, have been even more widely distributed.

The one characteristic note of this movement has been that the Sunday-school is a school, to be dealt with and developed as an institution for religious education. It is therefore deserving of our largest interest and utmost effort to make it a school worthy of our Christian faith. This cannot be done unless we bring to its aid the highest educational skill and enthusiasm. The result of the work so far accomplished has been to draw to us the sympathy and interest of educators, and Christians of other communions have felt the force of the position taken by the Commission. Now, how far can we go towards realizing our ideal Training School for this Diocese and city?

Given a proper endowment fund, and we could establish in this Diocese, in connection with the Cathedral system, a Training School whose work would be of incalculable benefit. It would not only revolutionize the character of our city schools, but every parish in the Diocese would feel the inspiration and benefit of it. It would take its place beside the Theological Seminary and prove an invaluable adjunct to the work of that institution. Such a Training School, connected with the Cathedral system, is eminently practical. It would simply be the organizing at one central point of the scattered work of the Training Classes already started. We have in this Diocese and city the most favorable conditions for such an enterprise, and the Commission most earnestly asks that the members of this Convention will give to this subject their most thoughtful consideration. We shall not as a Church be worthy of our trust unless we bring to this work of religious education the largest wisdom and most serious effort of which we are capable. Until this larger and more permanent school can be established, what shall be done? We propose to go on this coming year with our Training Classes. Circulars of these classes will be issued this week. The following arrangement has been made:

TRAINING CLASSES will be held at the Diocesan House, 29 Lafayette Place.

1. Course on the Life and Character of Jesus Christ. Ten Lectures, by the Rev. Henry Lubeck, D.C.L.
2. Method of Teaching the Life of Christ. Ten Lectures, by Prof. Chas. P. Fagnani.
3. The Founding of the Christian Church. Twenty Lectures, by the Rev. George R. Van DeWater, D.D.
4. The Missionary Work of the Church. Twenty Lectures, by the Rev. Robert Kimber.
5. The Prayer Book and Church Worship. Ten Lectures, by the Rev. Henry H. Oberly, D.D.
6. The Lands of the Book, Geography, etc. Six Lectures, by the Rev. James B. Nies, D.D.
7. Pictures and their Use in Sunday-schools. Six Lectures, by Antoinette Bryant Hervey.
8. Practical Primary Methods. Ten Lectures, by Miss O'Grady, Teachers College.
9. Methods of Teaching the Church Catechism. Ten Lectures, by Miss Ada M. Skinner, St. Agatha's School, Teachers College.
10. Seminar on S. S. Organization and Curriculum. Ten Sessions, conducted by a Committee of the Commission.
11. Extension Classes on the Art of Teaching (Ten Lessons) will be arranged in parishes desiring them.

Prices for the above courses are: $3.00 for the twenty-hour lesson courses; $2.00 for the ten-hour courses, and $1.50 for the six-hour courses. The Commission reserves the right to withdraw any course if the number of entries for the class be not sufficient to meet the minimum stipend of the Lecturer.

As a result of the interest awakened in this work of the Training Class, it is gratifying to state that other classes, outside our own Church, have been arranged for the coming season. Some of the subjects selected for these classes are of common educational value, and the Commission has been asked to coöperate with these so far as to make use of such lectures and subjects as are of mutual interest to all Christian workers and teachers. It is indeed a most grateful fact to record this deepening interest among all Christian churches in so great a subject. Let us be thankful in that our own Church and Diocese has been able to forward such an educational advance.

5. The Commission seeks to be of the utmost possible help to those engaged in the practical work of the Sunday-school.

(1) THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL EXHIBIT. This was prepared for the Crypt Conference by the Rev. Dr. Lester Bradner, Jr., one of the Commission. It is now permanently placed at the See House. It will be found most suggestive, with its maps and charts and the large variety of helpful devices and aids for the school, and its Reference Library of over 400 volumes.

This whole collection, numbering nearly 4,000 separate articles of exhibit (and it is constantly growing), represents the publications of a large number of houses specially interested in furnishing educational supplies. The Young Churchman Co. are to place their various publications on sale with the Commission, and every Church publisher in the country has donated a free set of samples of their supplies for permanent exhibit.

(2) Orders have been placed with the Secretary of the Commission in many cases, and the work of the office and its correspondence has constantly increased. We need not set this out in detail, but when we remember that the Commission has been brought into correspondence with Sunday school workers in every part of the English-speaking world, it must be acknowledged that the scope and influence of our work is no longer limited to our own Diocese.

(3) There will be issued in a few days, from the press of Edwin S. Gorham, a text-book on "The Character and Teachings of Jesus Christ." It is put forth by the Commission for the use of pupils from thirteen to sixteen years of age. The aim has been to produce a text-book of the best possible character, adapted to a certain grade. It is hoped that it will be found a partial answer, at least, to the demand for lessons. The book is divided into chapters, and great pains have been taken to make its questions and the general analysis of the subject-matter thoroughly educational. It is intended to follow this with other manuals adapted to the various grades of our pupils.

6. The Commission cannot report such results as it would wish, regarding work outside the city. An Institute was held last spring in Newburgh, for the Archdeaconry of Orange, and as a result of this there will be established in that city, it is believed, during the coming season, a Teachers' Training Class. A committee was appointed having this matter in charge. The Commission asks that in each Archdeaconry a special committee be appointed at the earliest opportunity to coöperate with it in making the coming year more satisfactory than the last.

7. FINANCIAL SUPPORT. Last year the Convention voted an appropriation of $500. This sum has proved inadequate, and the Commission earnestly hopes that the Convention will see its way to enlarging this appropriation to at least $1,000. Are we justified in this request? We think so, for the following reasons:

(1) The Secretary's work demands so large an outlay of time and effort that it must be a salaried position.

(2) The office is so much visited by Clergy and Sunday-school workers from all parts of the country, in search of information and assistance, that some one must be constantly on hand.

(3) It is further necessary for us to have the services of an office clerk. Many calls come during the afternoon when the Secretary is otherwise engaged in his own parish work.

(4) Frequently, orders have come to us for school supplies, which, while they necessitate a certain amount of trouble, also pay a small profit. Pub-shers are extremely anxious for us to act as agents in the sale of goods represented in our Exhibit.

It is gratifying to note in this connection that a small amount of royalty has already been paid in on the volume of Lectures published by Longmans, Green & Co., and from the Syllabus of DuBois' Point of Contact in Teaching.

In closing this Report, the Commission would simply repeat its deepened conviction, a conviction that has only been strengthened by its experience and observation through the last two years, that nothing radically better can be hoped for in the religious instruction of our youth until the Church realizes in the first place the tremendous need of improved methods and higher standards, and then prepares herself, her clergy and lay-helpers alike, for the work of reaching the young. This movement for a nobler religious education is of incomparable importance, and it is a movement which we cannot check if we would. It has swept into its great current other Dioceses of our own Church, and Christians of every name and in many lands. It is simply part of the vast and earnest life of our modern Christianity, brought face to face with the facts of sin and ignorance, the problems of unbelief and indifference. We stand for the truth of Christ, and we believe that that truth is one which our children must be taught. It must be wrought into the very fibre of character, if it is to save them and save the world. This truth of Christ is as sacred as the truth of science or art or geography or law; and the school that teaches Christ must do so with the highest wisdom and skill it can command. Such a school, in God's good time, will be in every parish of this Diocese. For that great end let us work, because it alone will be worthy of Christ and His Church.

PASCAL HARROWER,

Chairman.

Judge Calvin presented the following resolution :

Whereas, This Convention has heard with keen interest the report of the Sunday-school Commission,

Resolved, That, the Bishop approving, the Convention appropriate the sum of $1,000 for the next year's work of the Commission.

The Rev. Charles A. Tibbals offered the following as a substitute, which was adopted :

Whereas, This Convention has heard with keen interest the report of the Sunday-school Commission,

Resolved, That the Sunday-school Commission be authorized to ask each parish to contribute towards the expenses of the Commission.

The following report was presented :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

Your Committee reports that the condition of the General Theological Seminary continues to be so satisfactory that no comment is necessary by this

College, to report at the next Convention on that subject, and also upon the relation and responsibility of the Diocese of New York to the College.

The Secretary presented the following report :

The receipts from assessments during the year have been sufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary; but, no addition having been made to the capital of the fund during the year, the same assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of the year ending September, 1902. The Trustees therefore recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are hereby, authorized to assess the parishes of the Diocese at the rate of one per cent. upon these circumstances they venture to suggest the desirability of appointing an enlarged representative committee for the consideration of the whole question.

Respectfully submitted,

H. AUGUSTUS LLOYD.

HARVEY VOGELSTEIN.

NEW YORK, September 18, 1901.

TRINITY SCHOOL,

129-147 West 91st Street, New York City.

Founded A. D. 1709. Incorporated A. D. 1896 as "The New York Protestant Episcopal Public School."

Under the charge of the Rector, Reverend Augustus Ulmann, D. D., and a Board of Trustees, consisting of clergy and laymen of the Episcopal Church.

The school building, recently erected, occupies a frontage of 125 feet on the southerly side of 91st Street, between Columbus and Amsterdam Avenues. It is built of stone and is thoroughly fireproof; is one of the best arranged and appointed schools in the city. Its capacity is from 300 to 400 students, who are divided into classes not exceeding twenty-five each. The building includes an assembly hall, a library, a laboratory, and a fine gymnasium, in addition to the class rooms and a dining room seating about ninety boys.

The school is divided into the English Department, for boys between the ages of six and nine; the Intermediate Department, for boys between ten and thirteen; and the Academic Department, for boys between fourteen and seventeen. In the last-named department there are two courses, classical and scientific, the former being preparatory for entrance to college. Instruction is given in all the English branches, and in Greek, Latin, German, French, and the sciences, and in the Church Catechism, the Prayer Book, and Old and New Testament history. Systematic physical training is given in the gymnasium.

The school year begins on the second Monday in September and ends on the third Friday in June.

Boys between the ages of six and seventeen are eligible.

The number of pupils is about 390.

The tuition fees are: In the Primary Department, from $80 to $105; in the Intermediate, from $120 to $165; and in the Academic, from $180 to $225. A certain number of "free scholarships" are awarded annually.

Applications should be addressed to the Rector.

SAINT GABRIEL'S SCHOOL,

Peekskill, New York.

Founded in 1872.

Under the charge of the Sisters of St. Mary.

The school buildings, which are situated on an eminence overlooking the town of Peekskill (41 miles from New York City), are roomy, well heated, and lighted by electricity, and are provided with modern sanitary plumbing. The grounds comprise about fifty acres.

The school is divided into a Preparatory Department, for children over ten years of age, and an Academic Department, which offers three courses—classical, scientific, and English. The classical course is preparatory for entrance to college.

In addition to the usual English courses, instruction is given in Latin and the modern languages, and in drawing, art, history, and music.

The school is provided with a chemical laboratory, a physical equipment, and a cabinet of minerals. Careful attention is given to physical training, physiology, and hygiene. Systematic religious instruction is given, and the pupils are expected to attend service daily. The school year begins September 27th and ends June 4th. Girls between the ages of thirteen and eighteen are eligible.

Terms for board and tuition for the usual course, $450. For day pupils: Preparatory Department, $80; for the Academic Department, $100.

Extra charges are made for music, elocution, drawing in charcoal and painting in water colors. Text books, stationery, etc., will be charged for.

Applications should be addressed to the Sister-in-Charge, Peekskill, N. Y.

SAINT MARY'S SCHOOL FOR GIRLS,

6 & 8 East 46th Street, New York City.

Founded in 1867.

Under the charge of the Sisters of St. Mary.

The school building, situated on 46th Street between Fifth and Madison Avenues, with a frontage of fifty feet, is well adapted for its purpose, and is provided with steam heat, sanitary plumbing, and electric elevator service. It includes dormitories, a gymnasium and a roof garden, and a good library of 3,000 volumes. The entire building was remodelled last summer and the chapel was greatly enlarged.

The school is divided into a Primary Department for children under twelve years of age, a Preparatory Department, and a College Department. The two lower departments offer a very full course in English, with the addition of religious instruction, and the college preparatory includes all the subjects required for entrance to college. Advanced instruction is also given in English history and the sciences. The regular courses are supplemented by lectures by distinguished scholars.

The school year begins October 2d and closes early in June.

Girls between the ages of six and eleven for the Primary Department, and eleven and twenty for the Preparatory and Collegiate Departments, are eligible.

The number of pupils is about twenty-eight resident and 150 non-resident.

The terms for board and tuition in English, French, German, Latin, and Greek are $550 per annum.

For day pupils: Collegiate Department, $200; Preparatory, $150; and Primary, $100.

Applications should be addressed to the Sister Superior.

ST. AGATHA'S SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.

257 West 93d Street, New York City.

Founded by the New York Protestant Episcopal Public School, which maintains Trinity School, and under the same management.

It is intended that the school shall include all grades from the Kindergarten through the High School; but as yet the Elementary School is divided into eight grades, the course including the English branches, nature study, vocal music, art and manual training, French, and religious instruction.

The High School will be opened next year.

The school year begins on the second Monday in September and ends on the second Friday of June.

Girls between the ages of seven and fifteen are eligible. The number of pupils is about sixty. No boarders are received. The terms range from $60 in Grade I., Elementary, to $170 in Grade VIII.

Applications should be addressed to the principal, Miss Emma G. Sebring, M.A.

SAINT JOHN BAPTIST SCHOOL FOR GIRLS,

231 East 17th Street, Stuyvesant Square, New York City.

Founded 1880.

Under the charge of the Sisters of St. John Baptist. The school building adjoins St. John Baptist House, and is nearly opposite to Stuyvesant Square.

There are two courses of study, viz., the general course, which is intended to lay the foundation of a broad general education, special attention being given to English, French, History, and Literature: and the College Preparatory course, including the above subjects and Latin, and Greek or German. Instruction is given in Scripture and Church History, the Old and New Testament, and the Prayer Book. The pupils attend daily services in the Sisters' chapel, and on Sunday in the Church of the Transfiguration.

The school year begins on October 1st and closes on June 4th.

The terms for board, laundry, and tuition are $300 per annum, Latin, Greek, German, and Instrumental Music being extra. Special terms are offered to the daughters of clergymen.

Applications should be addressed to the Sister Superior.

MISS C. E. MASON'S SCHOOL,

The Castle, Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson.

Under the charge of Miss C. E. Mason, LL.M., Principal. The school is situated on the heights above Tarrytown, a short distance from the station, and consists of three modern, well-equipped buildings, surrounded by fourteen acres of land.

The course is divided into Primary, Preparatory, Academic, and Senior, each occupying three years, except the Senior, which is of two years' duration, and includes, in addition to the usual English courses, Latin, Greek, and the modern languages. Students in the upper courses are prepared for college, and advanced courses are given for those not desiring to enter college. The Bible is studied throughout the course, and students are expected to attend Christ Episcopal Church, but will be permitted to attend church elsewhere if it is the wish of parents. Daily outdoor exercise is required, and instruction is given in physical culture.

The school year begins on the last Wednesday in September and closes on June 1st.

Girls between the ages of thirteen and twenty are eligible. The number of pupils is about seventy.

Terms for board and tuition, including the usual courses, stationery and school books, dancing and gymnastics, drawing, and charges for laundry, from $750 to $950, according to room. Extra charges are made for instruction in art, music, special elocution, private physical culture and riding, and for art materials.

Special attention is given to nature study, and to cooking and practical housekeeping. A summer session is conducted in connection with the school.

Applications should be addressed to the Principal.

ST. DAVID'S SCHOOL,

Scarsdale, New York.

The school, which is under the management of the Rev. William L. Evans, a graduate of the University of Glasgow, occupies a large modern building, surrounded by twelve acres of woodland, and is distant about eight minutes' walk from Scarsdale Railroad Station.

The course of instruction includes Greek, Latin, and the modern languages, as well as the usual English branches leading up to college entrance examinations.

Special attention is given to the study of English, and the moral training of boys is regarded as of the utmost importance.

The number of pupils is limited to fifteen or twenty, in order that each may receive individual attention.

The school year opens on October 1st. The fees are, for tuition, $200 to $250 per annum, and for boys under 12 years of age, $150. For resident pupils, $400 per annum.

Applications should be addressed to Rev. William L. Evans, M.A., Scarsdale, N. Y.

The Rev. E. Atherton Lyon presented the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint an enlarged representative committee to consider the subject of Church schools in the Diocese of New York.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Whereas, The Convention of the Diocese of New York in 1900 adopted the following resolution :

Resolved, That, in view of the important responsibility resting upon the Ministry of the Church in the religious education of the young, it is the conviction of this Convention that special preparation and training for this work should be given to all candidates for Holy Orders ; and, secondly, that to this end a thorough practical training in the principles and methods of Religious Pedagogies should form a part of the curriculum of all institutions for theological learning.

Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Delegates from the Diocese of New York to the General Convention be, and hereby are, requested to urge the General Convention to take such steps as may be practicable to secure for the students in the several theological seminaries systematic instruction in the principles and practice of education, especially as it is related to religious instruction.

The Rev. Dr. Peters presented the following report :

Report

OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

The New York Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, being thoroughly organized with an Executive Board, and a Constitution approved by the Bishop, respectfully submits its first annual report to the Convention of the Diocese of New York.

The five Committees, one for each of the four divisions of missionary work—Foreign, Domestic, Indian, and Colored, with a junior department working independently in connection with the Woman's Auxiliary, three of them since 1871—are now united under one board of general officers, while each preserves its own individuality as to methods of work. To these have been added during the past year the Westchester Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Staten Island Branch, and the Woman's Auxiliary of Orange Archdeaconry, all reorganized under the general name of Archdeaconry Committees. The Woman's Auxiliary of Dutchess County will doubtless come in during the coming year, thus making an organization, under six general officers, of five Standing and four Archdeaconry Committees, composed of 128 parish branches, 35 of which have junior societies, representing over 3,100 active members, besides several Sunday-schools. This leaves 107 parishes or missions, 31 within the Archdeaconry of New York, and 76 in the outlying Archdeaconries, not as yet organized in connection with the Auxiliary for missionary work.

During the year Sept. 1, 1900, to Sept. 1, 1901, the New York Branch gave $13,087.66 to Domestic Missions, $8,482.74 to Indian, $8,195.29 to Colored, and $11,987.23 to Foreign Missions, and sent 386 boxes of clothing, etc., to missionaries and missions, to the value of $26,756.91, including $2,878.22 in money, and $2,511.12 in boxes, to all fields from the Junior Department. In addition to this, $1,005.96 was given for work within the Diocese, and 60 boxes, valued at $2,052.49, sent to Diocesan Missionaries and Missions, making a total of $42,758.88 in money and $28,809.40 in boxes for the year. New York has also contributed toward the United Offering of the Woman's Auxiliary, gathered every three years from the different Dioceses, over $7,000, which will be offered in October at the Triennial Service of the Woman's Auxiliary in San Francisco, and is this year to be divided equally among the Missionary Bishops, the Colored Commission receiving a share equal to that of one of the Bishops.

In 1875, twenty-five years ago, New York gave, through its Auxiliary societies, over $18,000 to missions, in 1880 over $26,000, in 1890 over $62,000, and last year, 1900, reported to the Board of Missions gifts in money and boxes to the amount of $75,961.44.

Great as the increase is in dollars, it but barely represents the earnest prayers, the increased knowledge, and wider interest in the Church's missions shown by the women of the Diocese. With the added interest and assistance of the clergy, the women can yet do more and more each year, and the Woman's Auxiliary eagerly looks forward to the day when every woman in the Church, rich and poor, shall be glad to do her share towards the spreading of Christ's Kingdom upon earth.

MARY E. WATSON,
President.

MARGARET A. TOMES,
Secretary.

136 EAST 30TH STREET, July 18, 1901.

On motion of the Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D., the Convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, September 26, 1901.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Morning Prayer was said by the Rev. J. G. Lewis, D.D., Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Walden, assisted by the Rev. A. R. Mansfield, Minister in Charge of the Church of Our Saviour, New York.

The Rev. Dr. Dix took the chair, and the minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

On motion, the calling of the roll of delegates was omitted, and the delegates present to-day but not present yesterday were requested to send their names to the Secretary.

The Secretary reported to the Convention the following nominations, in accordance with the provisions of Canon IX. :

Rev. F. B. VAN KLEECK, D.D.

On motion, the Rule of Order requiring the calling of the roll of the names of the clergy and parishes in connection with the elections was dispensed with.

The Rev. C. C. Tiffany, D.D., presented the following report from the Committee on Canons :

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the proposed amendment of Canon XVIII., Section 3, Article IV., by adding after the words "hereinafter described" the words, "which report shall be entered in full on the Journal of the Convention," respectfully report :

That, in their opinion, in view of the large expense which would be incurred for printing the Archdeaconry reports in full in the Journal, and of the fact that the Journal does not reach the public in general, the adoption of the proposed amendment is not advisable.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred "so much of the Address of the Bishop as relates to Parish Registers, to the Clergy without Charge, and to the time of holding the Annual Convention of the Diocese," respectfully report as follows :

Upon the subject of Parish Registers, they recommend that Canon VII., Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports, be amended by the insertion of a new Section 5, to follow the present Section 4, and to read as follows :

"The Register contemplated by this Canon shall at all times be subject to inspection by the Bishop or by such person as he may appoint";

And that the present Section 5 shall become Section 6, and that these amendments be recommended to the next Convention for final action thereon.

Upon the subject of Clergy without Charge, they have considered the amendments of Canon XIII., Of Vacant Parishes, proposed by the Rev. Dr. Dunnell.

The Committee recommend that the amendments proposed by Dr. Dunnell be adopted in part by this Convention, with certain changes in phraseology, so that Canon XIII. shall be amended as follows :

1. The title of Canon XIII., Of Vacant Parishes, shall read : "Of Vacant Parishes and Clergymen without Cure."

2. A new section, to be Section 4, shall be added to Canon XIII., and shall read as follows :

"Any Clergyman without cure resident in, or visiting, this Diocese and desiring to take temporary or occasional service therein shall signify to the Bishop his wish to officiate in this Diocese. A list of such clergymen as shall be licensed by the Bishop for such duty shall be kept at the Diocesan House. And no Rector or Parish shall employ the services of any clergyman without cure for more than one day, unless he shall have the written license of the Bishop."

Upon the subject of the time of holding the Annual Convention, the Committee have considered the amendment of Article I. of the Constitution proposed by the Rev. J. M. Chew.

The Committee on Canons approve of the general purpose and plan of this amendment to Article I. of the Constitution ; but, in order to secure greater conciseness of statement, they have in part redrawn the same, and recommend in lieu thereof the following :

That Article I. of the Constitution be amended by striking out the first completed sentence of that Article, which now reads as follows : "There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the last Wednesday in September in each year, in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being; or, in case of his inability to act or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee," and by substituting in lieu thereof the following words:

"There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese in each year, at such place as the Bishop shall appoint. It shall be held on the last Wednesday in September, unless the Bishop with the consent of the Standing Committee, shall appoint another date. In case of the inability of the Bishop to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall appoint the time and place of holding the Convention."

The Committee respectfully propose the foregoing amendment of Article I. of the Constitution, and its consideration and approval by this Convention, in accordance with the provisions of Article VIII. of the Constitution.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the report of the special committee on Parochial Intrusion and Parish Boundaries, appointed at the last Convention, recommend, in view of the importance of the subject, that the report be recommitted to the Committee on Canons for further consideration, with instructions to report to the next Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Tiffany, on behalf of the Committee, moved the adoption of the recommendations of the Committee seriatim.

On motion, the recommendation that the printing of the reports of the Archdeacons in full is inexpedient was adopted.

On motion, the recommendation that the proposed amendments to Canon VII., as to the inspection of Parish Registers, be recommended to the next Convention for adoption, was adopted after considerable discussion.

On motion, the proposed amendments to Canon XIII., as to clergymen without cure, were adopted by a concurrent vote of both orders.

On motion, the proposed amendment to Article I. of the Constitution was approved and referred to the next Convention for final action.

On motion, the recommendation that the report of the Committee on Parochial Intrusion and Parish Boundaries be recommitted to the Committee on Canons for further consideration, with instructions to report to the next Convention, was adopted.

The Inspectors of Election presented their reports:

The Rev. W. J. Seabury, D.D., called the attention of the Committee on Canons to the proposed amendment to the Rules of Order, as printed on page 77 of the Journal of 1900, and moved that it be referred to the Committee on Canons to report at the next Convention, which was adopted.

Mr. George Zabriskie offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Whereas, An amendment to the Constitution of this State will, at the coming general election, be submitted to the people for approval, by which amendment the power of the Legislature to exempt from taxation the real and personal property of specific religious, charitable, educational, or benevolent societies or corporations would be abrogated, and

Whereas, If enacted, it might work serious loss to our institutions,

Resolved, That this amendment ought to receive the attention and serious consideration of the members and adherents of our churches.

The hour of recess having arrived, the Convention adjourned till two o'clock.

On reassembling at a quarter past two, the Convention proceeded to sit as the Board of Missions.

Mr. James Pott, the Treasurer of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, presented the following report :

The Rev. A. T. Ashton, Archdeacon of Dutchess, presented his annual report :

The Archdeacon of Dutchess reports that missionary work has been carried on during the past year at the same stations (9) that were reported last September. Some changes have been made in the personnel of the missionary force.

The Rev. Prescott Everts, because of his removal from the Diocese to accept the Rectorship of Christ Church, Cambridge, Mass., resigned his office of Archdeacon in February. His associates desire to express their deep regret at the severance of his official relation, and to assure him that their prayers will follow him to his new field of labor.

The Rev. W. C. Grubbe, for seven years the Missionary at Pine Plains, has been removed by death. His was a consecrated ministry. Fidelity characterized his life. His amiable disposition, his cheerful manner, his kind consideration for others, and his faithful devotion to duty endeared him to all, and left a record which will perpetuate his memory and be preserved as a precious heritage.

The work in the various stations has been encouraging. We have been sorely hampered by the tardiness of offerings and a shrinkage in our income. The invested fund of St. Thomas' Church, Amenia Union, still remains unproductive. It is in the charge of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Diocese, who, more than a year ago, foreclosed the mortgage in which this money had been invested. The amount which came from this Fund (nearly $400) we have been obliged to borrow, to meet our obligations.

The Rector of Amenia Union, the Rev. J. S. Clark, D.D., has also the care of the services at Dover Plains, where there are twenty-four communicants. This is a most encouraging field. A church should be built here and a clergyman put in charge of all the services in the Harlem Valley—at Dover, Pawling, and Millerton. Were the funds available for this purpose, a strong parish could soon be established at Dover, and mission stations at Pawling and Millerton.

The Rev. H. N. Lawrence has recently entered upon his duties as Missionary at Pine Plains. He is carrying on the work on the wise lines laid down by the Rev. Mr. Grubbe.

At Hopewell Junction the work is very encouraging. A rectory is greatly needed for the Missionary. The Rev. Jacob Probst has—much to the people's regret—removed to the Diocese of Long Island, and the mission is under the temporary charge of the Rev. A. R. Macduff.

The Rev. J. H. Ivie, of Fishkill, has charge of the work at Glenham, where the people are very poor, owing to the closing of the carpet mills. In this place, as also at Carthage Landing, he carries on his faithful work, in the midst of many discouragements.

The Rev. W. C. Rodgers is doing an excellent work at Lithgow, and the Rev. Frederick Smith continues his energetic labors at Pleasant Valley.

The work at Stone House is still under the care of Mr. A. C. Burdick, a Lay Reader. He conducts a Sunday-school and service every Lord's Day, and during the rest of the week acts as master of the day-school.

So far as our work is concerned, the outlook is full of promise. Our missionaries are full of zeal, and, were larger means at the disposal of the Archdeaconry, the privileges of the Church might be farther extended. All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. T. ASHTON,
Archdeacon.

The Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D., presented the annual report of the Archdeaconry of Orange :

Three resignations of missionaries have occurred: that of the Rev. A. W. Shaw, of Chichester; that of the Rev. G. L. Nicholas, M.D., of Highland; and that of the Rev. J. F. Milbank, of Monticello. Temporary arrangements for supplying their places have been made. At other stations our force remains unchanged, with the exception of Ellenville and Callicoon Depot. At the former point the Rev. Robert H. Locke ministers, and at the latter a lay reader, Mr. Henry C. Briggs, under the direction of the Archdeacon.

Some items of especial interest deserve mention. The mission at Montgomery, worked by the Rev. Dr. Lewis, of Walden, is responding most encouragingly to his efforts. Afternoon service is held each Sunday and $500 have been secured towards the erection of a chapel.

At Greenwood Lake mission a class of twenty-one was confirmed by the Bishop in his May visitation. During the summer the services have been read by Mr. J. A. Maughan, of the Senior Class of the Seminary, and the attendance has been unusually good. On one occasion the Holy Communion was administered to fifty persons by the Rev. Dr. Peters, of St. Michael's Church, New York, who spends his vacation near by. We own an eligible lot close to the lake and in near proximity to the village, and it is the hope of the Archdeacon that some city parish may erect here a building suitable for the double purpose of Chapel and Reading Room for the village, and of a summer house for its fresh air colony.

At Mead's Mount, in the Canville, summer services were maintained by the Rev. F. B. Darling, of Winsted, Conn., and by the Rev. O. Appleton, Jr., of St. John's Kingston. The church building has been much improved, grounds put in attractive order, and a substantial beginning made of a fund for the purchase of a new stained organ. Many boarders from the vicinity and the village of Winsted, as well as from the Mead's Mount Hotel, contiguous to the church, have attended the services during the season just past.

The Rector of New Windsor maintains a flourishing station called the "Knoxon Mission," ministering here each Sunday afternoon, and the Rector of Tuxedo Park maintains two missions; one at the North Gate and the other at the southern extremity of his parish.

At the Church of the Holy Communion, Liberty, the Rev. P. C. Crevling, Missionary, a class of twelve was confirmed at the June visitation of the Bishop. Mr. Crevling also ministers as Chaplain, each Sunday afternoon, at the Loomis Sanitarium, some three miles distant. Here, in May, on the Monday in Whitsun-week, a beautiful and completely equipped chapel was consecrated under the name of "St. Luke the Beloved Physician." The Consecration services were conducted by the Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Archdeacon and the Chaplain, and the Rev. William A. Sturgis. The building is of stone, with dark wood interior trim and amber windows, and is a gift from Mrs. Loomis in memory of her husband, Dr. Alfred Lee Loomis, for whom the Sanitarium is named.

The Rev. Uriah Synovels continues his faithful work at Port Jervis, where the handsome stone church, with organ and complete interior equipment, stands as a monument to his zeal and perseverance.

The Rev. W. J. C. Agnew completed, in August, his eleventh year of continuous service as Missionary in Charge of Stone Ridge and High Falls; also the Rev. Henry Barker, his ninth year as Missionary at Rosendale and Rifton Glen. Such faithful and spiritually productive service and stewardship should not miss due recognition by the Church.

During the past year the Diocese (outside the bounds of the Archdeaconry of Orange) has given for the maintenance of missionary work within this large district (comprising the three great counties of Orange, Ulster, and Sullivan, and more than half the square miles of the whole Diocese) the sum of $2,930: $3,300 were voted, but we have managed to get along with less—indeed, the general Treasurer, Mr. James Pott, found it difficult to raise this diminished sum, as contributions were slow in coming in and, in some cases, less than he had reason to expect. The Archdeaconry of Orange is most grateful for this acceptable and generous help. Without it, a large portion of our present work would have had to be abandoned. Could the sum be augmented, increased ministrations could be maintained. All expenditures are made with the greatest care and most careful scrutiny, and under the sense of a strict responsibility. It is proper, however, to call the attention of the Diocese to the fact that we are diligent also in developing self-help, and that the balance of the salaries of the Missionaries is raised at home, at a cost of three times the amount that contributes. Each year we are striving to do better than the last, but when we consider the undeveloped possibilities of the field under more thorough culture, which is equivalent to saying, under an increased force of missionary laborers, undeveloped because of lack of funds, the Committee representing the Archdeaconry is impelled to renew the plea made last year, for an endowment of the missionary work of the Diocese, a work than which none can be more important. Money invested in such an endowment will produce a large and assured return: the material sowing will instrumentally yield a spiritual fruitage in truth and righteousness. We hold up the missions of the Diocese as an unsurpassed object of generous endowment—the missions in the five Archdeaconries—the growth of each is to the benefit of the whole. May this plea not pass unheeded!

W. R. THOMAS, D.D.,
Archdeacon.

The Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D., presented the annual report of the Archdeaconry of Westchester:

In the Archdeaconry of Westchester our year has been signally blessed. The first meeting in January, by the courteous invitation of the Bishop, was held at the Cathedral Crypt. While we enjoyed the gracious hospitality of our Bishop, our visit there accentuated a principle of our common Diocesan work which is apt to be forgotten. Parishes, congregations, missions in the Diocese, are not detached, isolated centres of work and soul culture. They are a vital part of Church life and growth. However far off, weak, or struggling a given mission may be, it is rooted and grounded in the greater, stronger life which finds its force and influence from the Diocese and its spiritual head. And while we rejoiced in the foundation of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, we got courage and inspiration there, both from the warm welcome of the Bishop and the assurance that our work was closely allied to this fountain-head of mission and service.

On Sunday, Oct. 7, I held service and organized a mission in Bronxville, Westchester Co. This is a community near Lawrence and Armour-Villa Parks, where many Church people desired the ministrations of the Church. The Rev. W. Walter Smith, M.D., did efficient work during the winter. In April the parish was incorporated under the name of Christ Church, a vestry elected, and steps were taken to build a church. From the first the Mission has been self-supporting. The Rev. Richard Hayward has been called, and has entered upon his duties as Rector.

At Nepera Park the faithful service of two lay workers of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, working under the Rev. Mr. Gilbert, Rector of St. Paul's, Yonkers, has been regular and efficient. They now use St. Mark's Chapel, formerly St. Paul's, in Sawmill Valley, kindly donated by the executors of the late Dr. Henry Drisler to this Mission. This work has also been self-supporting. The Parish of St. Andrew's, Brewster, Putnam Co., was enriched by the gift of a beautiful stone church, fully equipped and adorned, from the late Mr. Seth Howes, Warden of the church. It was consecrated by the Bishop, May 13th. A few weeks later this church, and the old church refitted for a parish house, were entirely destroyed by fire. They are now rebuilding, but can scarcely replace many appointments of the church, endeared by association and use. On June 20th the Archdeacon, by appointment of the Bishop, laid the corner-stone of the new Christ Church, Patterson, Putnam Co. This is also a gift to this venerable parish, from a devoted woman whose family has for long years been identified with the Church in this place. The other work in this Archdeaconry is faithfully served by the following clergy in their respective parishes and missions :

WESTCHESTER CO.

Elmsford, Church of St. Joseph of Arimathæa, Worthington Memorial, Rev. Charles Smith Lewis.
 Mt. Kisco, St. Mark's, and Good Shepherd, Kitchawan, Rev. Henry Chamberlaine.
 Lewisboro, St. John's, Rev. C. M. Selleck.
 Harrison, All Saints', Rev. W. W. Kirkby, D.D.
 Montrose, Divine Love, Rev. G. Cruger.
 Nepera Park, Rev. Wm. M. Gilbert.
 Sherwood Park, Rev. G. H. H. Butler.
 Pelhamville, Redeemer, Rev. C. W. Bolton.
 Pleasantville, St. John's, Rev. S. F. Holmes.
 Tuckahoe, St. John's, Rev. J. W. Buckmaster.

PUTNAM CO.

Patterson, Christ Church, Rev. W. H. Meldrum.
 Mahopac, Holy Communion, and Richardville, Rev. E. D. Sutcliffe.

ROCKLAND CO.

Haverstraw, St. Luke's, Rev. W. A. Masker.
 New City and Spring Valley, Rev. Thomas Stephens.
 Garnerville, Trinity, Rev. C. C. Proffitt.
 Christ Church, Suffern, Rev. R. S. Mansfield, Rector, has relinquished its missionary stipend, and freed this sum for the use of more needy work.

We have again cause for thankfulness that the financial condition under our most efficient Treasurer, Mr. Augustus Wiggin, has been maintained, so that all expenses and stipends are promptly paid, through the generous aid of New York and the gifts from our own parishes.

All which we respectfully submit.

F. B. VAN KLEECK,
Archdeacon of Westchester.

The Ven. C. C. Tiffany, D.D., presented his report of the Archdeaconry of New York :

The Archdeacon of New York is glad to report that the work of the Archdeaconry has gone well during the past year. Its chief work is Church Extension in the Borough of the Bronx, and in this work distinct progress has been made.

The Archdeaconry has administered the affairs of the Church German Society in support of the German Mission at St. Ambrose's Church, and the Archdeacon can report the vigorous prosecution of the missions to foreign-speaking people in the city of New York by the various parishes which support them—especially the German Mission of Trinity Church and the missions to Oriental Peoples conducted by St. Bartholomew's Church, to such an extent that in seven languages the service of the Church may be heard every Sunday within the bounds of this parish. The special reports concerning these missions will be found in the respective parochial reports of the parishes which support and conduct them.

But, in regard to Church Extension, the work of the Archdeaconry is not simply advisory and indirect—it is the sole organ and conductor of the work, and its needs grow apace with the enormous and phenomenal increase of the population of the city—over 100,000 annually in the Boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx.

To meet the growing need of Church centres in the new suburbs beyond the Harlem River, the Archdeaconry has, during the last year, taken steps to strengthen its older missions and to inaugurate new ones, according to the provisions of the Canon passed at the last Convention, covering "Tentative Missions." Several new missions have thus been begun by the labors of two lay workers of St. Andrew's Brotherhood—which give good assurance of permanent usefulness. Some of these, as the Mission of the Advocate, East Tremont, have secured the title to land for building and have arranged for structures of their own in which to worship. Of the older Missions—that is, those about five years old—several have been greatly strengthened during the last year.

St. Stephen's, Woodlawn, has entered its new chapel, a fit and churchly structure which gives it a permanent character and an aggressive power in the neighborhood. St. George's, at Williamsbridge, has been able to purchase lots for a church site and to erect a stone basement for the church, in which it will worship until it can build a superstructure. These two results—the finishing and furnishing of St. Stephen's, and the purchase of land and construction of a basement of St. George's—were made possible by the unsolicited generosity of a devoted Churchwoman of Grace Parish, who, hearing of these needs from our last year's report, sent $3,000 to supply them.

A lot, 25 x 100 feet, has also been given to the Archdeaconry, by a Churchwoman now resident abroad, as the site of a chapel for St. Alban's, the tentative mission of High Bridgeville; and another generous Churchwoman, of St. Thomas' Parish, has sent $1,000 for the erection of the chapel. In addition to the interest manifest in these special gifts, the subject of Church Extension was brought to the notice of the Church in the city by a large public meeting held in St. Thomas' Church last February. This meeting was addressed by such distinguished laymen as Mr. Seth Low, President of Columbia University, and Mr. Hamilton Mabie, Literary Editor of the "Outlook," as well as by a distinguished clergyman. The effect of such indorsement and of such eloquent presentation of the subject has been a more widespread interest, of which the witnesses are larger and more numerous collections for this object than in any former year, and more and larger individual donations.

The Archdeaconry feels that its work is but in its beginning, but the indications are significant of a more general and generous appreciation of its effort to christianize the city and to make paramount the influence of that Church which we believe to be the best exponent of the religion of Christ. And for this we thank God and take courage.

The complete statement of the work of Church Extension, its needs and its promise, will be given at the annual meeting of the Archdeaconry, in Advent.

C. C. TIFFANY,
Archdeacon of New York.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the report of the Archdeacon of Richmond :

The Archdeacon of Richmond would report on the whole a general condition of prosperity in the missions.

Erastina, under Mr. Swan's energetic administration, is doing a good work. The congregations have improved, and an addition has been made to their contribution to the Archdeaconry fund. It is to be regretted that all are not united in their support of the minister in charge ; but with the faithful and earnest workers who second his efforts, there seems to be a most encouraging prospect of success.

At Newdorp Mr. Wilson has done an excellent work, and there is every evidence of life and activity. The Mission is gradually getting rid of the obligations incurred during the building of the church, and the congregations and offertories show steady progress.

Affairs at Eltingville are not so encouraging. There seems to be a general feeling of discouragement on the part of those who, by a little united effort, might put matters on a very different footing. There is no reason why there should not, and every reason why there should, be a prosperous church in this mission, which has so long been an organized parish. With every equipment—church, rectory, and parish house—it needs only united zeal and activity to give new life and hope to the church.

At St. Simon's Mr. Lawrence continued, until his resignation, the good work of the Mission with his usual success. The church plant, with its commodious appointments, is an abiding monument to his energy and perseverance, and though he has consented to give his labors to another field, we can only hope that his mantle will fall on the shoulders of his successor, the Rev. Wm. G. Thompson, and the good work go on without interruption. In many things the Archdeaconry owes him a debt of gratitude, and it gives me great pleasure to express my personal appreciation of his merits.

Mr. Fair has continued his excellent work at Tottenville, though he has been sorely tried in his domestic affairs. He has the most heartfelt sympathy of all who know him, and they are ready to help him in every way.

GEO. D. JOHNSON,
Archdeacon of Richmond.

The Rev. W. R. Thomas, D. D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the sum of $9,900 be appropriated for missionary work in the Diocese outside of the limits of the city of New York, and that sum be apportioned as follows :

For Archdeaconry of Dutchess.....	$2,500
For Archdeaconry of Orange	3,200
For Archdeaconry of Westchester.....	3,000
For Archdeaconry of Richmond	1,200

The Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D., moved that the ballot be dispensed with, and the following persons were elected as members of the Board of Missions :

The Rev. Octavius Applegate, D.D.	Mr. A. P. Stokes.
The Rev. Robert F. Crary, D.D.	Mr. Irving Grinnell.
The Rev. D. H. Greer, D.D.	Mr. James Pott.
The Rev. W. H. Vibbert, D.D.	Mr. George Zabriskie.
The Rev. C. T. Olmsted, D.D.	Mr. S. Nicholson Kane.

The Rev. J. M. Chew offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Archdeacons be requested to append to their annual reports for the information of this Convention the names of parishes receiving missionary aid from the funds of their archdeaconries, with a statement of the amount apportioned to each and of the amount raised by each for its own support.

The Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D., moved that the Board of Missions do now adjourn, which was adopted, and the Convention resumed its session.

The Rev. T. R. Harris, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Standing Committee of the Diocese be instructed by the Convention to take the proper steps to procure the repeal of the amendment to the Religious Corporations Law as to the sale, mortgage, or lease of church property, adopted at the last session of the Legislature, and also to call upon the authorities of the other Dioceses in this State to concur with them in such attempt.

The Rev. O. Applegate, Jr., offered the following resolution, which was not adopted :

Resolved, That the Committee appointed to confer with the other dioceses of the State concerning a readjustment of the territories of the several dioceses be directed to consider also the question of a division of this Diocese, that they may report to the next Convention.

The Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That 1,800 copies of the Journal of this Convention be published and distributed under the direction of the Secretary.

The Rev. H. P. Nichols moved that the Convention extend its thanks to the Rector and Vestry of the Church of Zion and St. Timothy, which was adopted.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower moved that the Sunday-school Commission and the Committee on Arrangements for Convention be re-appointed, which was adopted.

The Rev. J. M. Chew offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That II., 8 of the Rules of Order be referred to Committee on Canons, with a view to giving the Convention liberty to hold its missionary meeting on the first day of its session.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Harris, it was Resolved, That, after the approval of the minutes and the concluding prayers, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The minutes were read by the Secretary and approved.

Concluding prayers having been said by the Rev. Dr. Thomas, the Convention adjourned, with the benediction of the Bishop.

HENRY C. POTTER,
Bishop of New York.

Attest :

THOS. R. HARRIS,
Secretary of Convention.

APPENDIX A.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY :

In the name of our common Master I salute you ! Grace, mercy, and peace be multiplied upon you, and upon all the Israel of God !

Since our last assemblage in diocesan convention the Church has suffered loss in the departure from our earthly fellowship of those whose names let me now lovingly and reverently recite :

DECEASED.

The Right Reverend Wm. Morris Barker, D.D., Bishop of Olympia.

The Right Reverend Abram Newkirk Littlejohn, D.D., Bishop of Long Island.

The Right Reverend Henry Benjamin Whipple, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of Minnesota.

The Rev. John Wesley Brown, D.D., Rector of St. Thomas' Church, New York, member of the Board of Managers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, and Trustee of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

The Rev. James E. Kenney, sometime Assistant Minister of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York.

Mr. John Jewell Smith, Senior Warden of the Church of Zion and St. Timothy, New York.

Mr. George Washington Smith, Senior Warden of the Church of the Incarnation, New York.

Mr. John Hall Watson, for thirty-five years a Vestryman of St. Thomas' Church, New York, and Mr. David T. Hoag, sometime Senior Warden of St. Thomas' Church, New York.

It is becoming that, in connection with these losses from our own immediate fellowship, I should make mention of that other, whose wide and deep shadow still covers our land, and convenes the whole civilized world a mourner at the grave of our dead President. His singularly engaging personal qualities made our late Chief Magistrate, in the judgment of many, the best loved of all our recent Presidents; and those of us who came, as more than once it was my privilege to do, into personal contact with him, will concur with me, I am confident, in bearing witness to a dignity of presence, and a candor, openness, and sympathy of mind, which made his personality one of rare charm and loveliness. In his policies it is easily possible that we may not all have agreed. But concerning his conscientious purpose to discharge a great and august trust with scrupulous and unwearied fidelity no one could doubt; and added to these were personal virtues of a singularly elevated order, illustrated during all his life, and in whatever relation, in a singularly beautiful way. In the face of such a record, the mind stands dazed and perplexed before the malignant cunning that struck at him, and still more at the blind and perverted enmity that murdered him. Such malice and such blindness compel a question which, when grief is sobered a little from its first paroxysm, should most of all concern us; and an answer to which thoughtful and God-fearing men must prayerfully and persistently seek. I may not attempt, within these limits, a discussion so large and in some aspects of it so intricate as that question raises; but I ought not to refer at all to this dark tragedy in our National history without reminding myself, and you, that the assassination of three Presidents in less than forty years, however different may have been their immediate causes, presents a situation that practically arraigns before the bar of the world's judgment civic and social conditions that we dare not ignore. If our American freedoms, whether of speech or of conduct, mean unbridled license, and the knife or the pistol of the assassin; nay, more, if our carelessness concerning our brother means that ignorant and credulous people may be the prey and the tools of a false teaching that strikes at the foundations of our social order, then, first—bitter as it may be to a national conceit much distended with a windy self-confidence—we must own that we have erred in our primary conceptions of what liberty is; and then we must enthrone sound teaching and a just authority in their rightful place. May God show us here, as in much else, our sore need of His wisdom and guidance!

The Conventional year that ends to-day has been one of marked peace, and, what is much better—for peace may be only another name for slumber—of marked and inspiring progress. Of this, the details which are reported to you herewith* will furnish to you gratifying evidence; but I desire to make especial mention of the singular energy and sound judgment with which the Archdeaconry of New York, under the able leadership of its Archdeacon, the Rev. Dr. C. C. Tiffany, and with the unwearied and singularly capable coöperation of our honored and beloved treasurer, James Pott,

* Detailed Account of Visitations and Acts.

Esq., who to-day, God bless him ! completes forty years' service in that office, and with the coöperation of a most devoted band of missionaries and lay helpers, has seized and held important points, especially in our metropolitan suburbs, and laid there the foundations of what will be self-supporting parishes in the future. The phenomenal growth of this city has made this work of paramount and pressing importance, and I commend it, standing as it does for a work which must be done now, in many cases, or not at all, to the confidence of the Church and to the munificence, especially, of the faithful laity.

Concerning this department of our diocesan missionary work, it is proper that I should speak of other agencies which have proved of steadily increasing value in connection with it, and of which it is, I think, our rather unfortunate tradition to make no mention here. More and more it is true, and as to this every well-informed priest and pastor will, I am sure, bear me out, that the Church's work in this Diocese is being done, sometimes in connection with parochial organizations, and sometimes independently of them, by Sisterhoods, Deaconesses, Women's Auxiliary Societies, St. Andrew's and other Brotherhoods, of which, nevertheless, no record whatever is made in our Convention Journals. Why not ? I think it may fitly be asked. It is not necessary for the Convention of this Diocese to assume any administrative or supervisory relation to these societies or communities ; but as a part, and often a very important part, of the story of our diocesan work, we might, I cannot but think, very wisely give them at least the opportunity to tell us annually, in some brief way, what they have done, and give ourselves the privilege of hearing it. It would be well for us to make some canonical provision for inviting and encouraging such reports, and for including a succinct summary of them in our Convention Journal.

In this same connection I find myself constrained to turn to a much less welcome subject—I mean the grave imperfections of our diocesan records as ordinarily embodied in our parish registers. The neglect of due care, scrupulous accuracy, and promptitude in the matter of entries in these is frequently disgraceful ; and cases have been brought to my notice in which, in the case of parishes making annually the canonical report to the Ordinary, there had been no entry in the parish register for twenty or twenty-five years. A woman turning to the register of the parish in which she was married has been unable to find any slightest evidence of the solemnization of that rite, and equally any evidence as to the legitimacy of her children. Such negligence deserves a term as its description which I do not care to use ; and it must be stopped. Provision should be made, by canonical enactment, for the annual inspection, by the archdeacon or his commissary, of every parish register in every archdeaconry ; and, with the annual parish report to the bishop in his hand, such inspection would not be a formal one. If a rector, e.g., reports so many baptisms, marriages, confirmations, and the rest, the demand may very properly be made : " Produce to me the records for which these statistics stand," and a failure to do so should carry with it some distinct penalty, such as forfeiture of the delinquent's seat in Convention, or some other, which should have in it, at any rate, a distinctly punitive note. I commend this matter to your early and serious consideration.

The excuse for such neglects as these is often found in the various and increasing demands of our modern parochial life ; and for one I unreservedly admit them. It is a day of manifold and steadily growing demands upon the parish priest ; and some of these demands are often beyond his ability. Is it not worth while to recognize this fact and to seek for some means of meeting it ? Among demands that are more and more exacting are those in connection with the pulpit. The standards of culture ; the average of ordinary information ; the breadth and variety of our modern life, have made the attitude of the pews toward the pulpit, in our day, one that is increasingly critical and exacting. It ought to be met in ways that would at once afford relief to the parish priest and furnish greater edification to his people ; and to this end, I wish we might restore a good custom in connection with the reading of homilies, whereby it was made possible to draw them from the best sources, and thus to interest and nourish educated and intelligent minds. If there could be selected and published in some inexpensive form, monthly, under the oversight of three experienced presbyters, or of that of the bishop and two presbyters, four sermons which should be licensed to be read in the churches, I believe it would prove a great boon to many a parish priest, and a great blessing to his people. Consider the great wealth, in this connection, at our command ! Ought it not be recognized and utilized ? I hope that the whole subject may be found worthy of your attention.

Akin to it, at any rate from one point of view, is another concerning which we have been content too long to drift—I refer to the miscellaneous and indiscriminating employment of ministers of this Church, who may be without cures, for occasional duty. Some such employment of these is often necessary, and sometimes unavoidable ; but it is at present regulated by no rules, and safeguarded by no sufficient restrictions ; and this ought not to be. Grieved and perplexed as I have often been by the grave faults and frequent mortifications of a system which is without system, and a usage which was wholly uncontrolled—hasty, impulsive, and irresponsible—I sought, some months ago, the counsel of my brethren of the New York Churchmen's Association, addressing them individually as follows :

Reverend and Dear Brother:

Some months ago I brought to the notice of members of the Churchmen's Association a matter which had for some time been giving me a good deal of anxiety, and asked, in regard to it, for their counsel and coöperation. It related to the status and recognition of persons in Holy Orders, temporarily within the Diocese, and seeking engagements for temporary duty.

Our method—or rather want of method—in this connection has grown by very gradual steps from a time when conditions were wholly different, and when a want of method was really of insignificant importance. When the number of the clergy was small ; when their identity and record were easily known or ascertained ; when strangers from other lands in Holy Orders were most rare, the true guardianship of the Church's interest and honor, in connection with the temporary employment of ministers not canonically recognized and settled in the Diocese, was something which needed neither system nor vigilance to regulate it.

But to-day the conditions are altogether different. The large number of our own clergy, and the considerable numbers of persons in Holy Orders, but connected with other dioceses and other lands, who are transiently or temporarily within our borders ; not to mention the facility with which impostors, or those under ecclesiastical discipline elsewhere, have succeeded in a great many cases in obtruding themselves into our parishes, and assuming duties for which they were doubly disqualified, have made it for some time evident that our present usage is both disorderly and dangerous.

In addition to these facts, moreover, there are others which we are bound to consider. It is a sad fact that the unemployed clergy have now become a considerable class, concerning whom, however, a hasty generalization would be most unjust. They are both voluntarily and involuntarily unemployed. They are disabled or superannuated, as the case may be ; or disqualified by hopeless and irremediable defects of gifts, or temper, or adaptability. But these terms represent obviously very different types, and would not, in all probability, be applicable, all of them, to any one person.

The situation calls, therefore, for discrimination and fraternal consideration. There are often worthy and faithful men whose situation, as unemployed clergy, is only honorable to themselves. But there are others concerning whom no charity can be stretched so far as to cover their obvious disqualifications for any ministerial duty. In such cases, my own conviction is that they should be aided and encouraged to seek other than clerical work ; while, in the case of those who are competent to take occasional duty, and whose ministerial record is such as to make them honored and respected by their brethren, especial efforts should be made, under some large and wise plan, to employ them, when required, for such occasional duty.

Some action of this character seems to me to be demanded for two important reasons :

In the first place, to discourage a habit which has been growing among unemployed priests, of late years, to linger in our large centres in the hope of finding transient duty. Such duty, small as is the compensation for it, will usually enable one to live cheaply, and largely idly, in a great city for an indefinite time ; and to live a life which is largely irresponsible, desultory, and unregulated, if not worse. It is a most mischievous and perilous situation ; and no methods of ours ought to encourage or approve it.

Again : Under our present want of system, the supply of vacant parishes, or of persons to take duty for a pastor or curate temporarily disabled, is left to bureaux of clerical employment under wholly lay administration, characterized often by abundant kindness, indeed, but very little real knowledge. Let me make haste in this connection to express my own acknowledgments for all that, in this matter of the service of the Church in parochial emergencies, our friends, the Church publishers, have done for us. For one, I gratefully appreciate their helpful patience and large courtesy. But I think that they will be among the first to own that the situation has now outgrown the old methods, and that the time has come for dealing with a serious condition in some serious and sufficient way.

In answer to my communication last spring to the Churchmen's Association, I have received the following report of its action, for which I ask your careful consideration :

REPORT.

The committee appointed by the Churchmen's Association to consider the question of "Clerical Supplies"—the subject brought to the notice of the Association by the Bishop of the Diocese at their meeting of May 7, 1900—recommend to the Association the approval of the following resolution :

First : That it be suggested to the Bishop of the Diocese that he issue a Pastoral Letter to the clergy, requesting them not to employ the services of any clergyman, without cure, for more than one Sunday, unless he present a written license from the Bishop authorizing him to officiate in this Diocese.

Second : That an official list should be issued, every three months, of persons prepared to take supply duty, to be attested by the Bishop and one Archdeacon.

Third : That two of the Archdeacons should act in turn, for each quarter, as revisers of such list.

Fourth : That this list should be furnished to any clergyman inquiring for it : That it be kept standing at the See House, and that clergy desiring occasional duty should be requested to register their addresses there, with the understanding that, in answer to application by letter, telegram, or telephone, to the See House, the name of an available supply will be forwarded to the parish desiring such supply.

By the adoption of such a plan it is believed that the good order and good repute of the Church will be effectually promoted.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) A. T. ASHTON,

Secretary.

In regard to the first of these recommendations, it will not improbably be urged that it is not likely to be effective unless it take some more definite form. Pastoral Letters are often regarded as "Counsels of Perfection," of which the parish priest indicates his opinion by leaving them to slumber upon his desk. A diocesan canon would plainly be a more direct and efficient method of defining the conditions upon which non-resident clergy could take duty in the Diocese; but this is a matter which it is supposed to be the duty of the general canon law of the Church to regulate. And the competency of the Diocese to enact, for its own protection, some canon regulating this matter, is a question which, in connection with it, I should like to raise.

The second recommendation of the committee of the Churchmen's Association indicates a plan which, with some slight modification of details, is entirely practicable.

I commend the whole subject to your consideration, and trust that such consideration may eventuate, at the next diocesan convention, in full discussion, and some final action in regard to it. Believe me, Reverend and dear Brother,

Affectionately yours,

(Signed) H. C. POTTER.

May I invoke for this matter, dear brethren, your serious thought, and ask for such action as you may be minded to take in regard to it?

Another matter calling, I think, for some action on the part of the Convention, is our constitutional provision for the time of its annual meeting. It is now so fixed as to be practically unchangeable; and this provision, our secretary, who knows everything, tells me was inserted in the constitution because, originally, the convening of the Convention, as to time as well as place, was left to the discretion of the Bishop. He exercised that discretion, it is said, as diocesan conventions did not happen to interest him, by not calling it at all. This was really a trifle arbitrary; but why we, here, should be punished for the uncertain tempers of a prelate who presided here nearly a hundred years ago, I confess I cannot see. I trust the Convention will enact that the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may, in this mater, exercise a discretion which this year would have been, and hereafter easily may be, of general convenience.

It is not my custom, as you know, to discuss here any other legislation than our own. For this I have heretofore given my reasons, and I need not now repeat them. But I depart from that usage in a single connection, simply to correct misapprehension. As you are aware, a scheme for the disintegration of the Church in the United States into provinces has been repeatedly proposed, and, at the approaching General Convention, especially, is to be strenuously urged. As to the unwisdom of such action I expressed myself with great plainness, as some of you perhaps may remember, when, a few years ago, it was discussed in our own secular prints; and whatever other opinions may have been gratuitously imputed to me, I have seen no reason to change those which, on this subject, I have always held. On the contrary, there is much, I think, in our present situation to give emphasis to them. The provincial system will only develop increasingly the provincial mind, which is the partial, fragmentary local judgment, whether of men or of things, whether of doctrine or of practice. We need no new influence to encourage that. Enough exists already to stimulate and distend it. What we do need is not a falling apart into sectional fellowships, which will tend to foster a sectarian rather than a catholic temper, a selfish rather than a fraternal zeal, but the strengthening and tightening of our present ties. It is in vain that we appeal to ancient usage, primitive tradition, Greek, Latin, or Anglican custom, in such a case as this. We are neither Greek, Latin, nor Anglican, but American; and as, in so many other ways, we have been constrained to original action—as witness the constitution, whether of the General Convention, of our own diocesan convention or any other legislative body in our American Church, in order to meet an emergency in other ways than by simply regalvating mechanisms appropriate, perhaps, to other ages and other lands, but not to ours—so we may wisely do here. Two things American Churchmen will insist scrupulously upon guarding—the autonomy of the Diocese, and the limitations of its corporate responsibilities. The Provincial System is admirably adapted to evade both. If we need some mechanism of an ad interim character between the Sessions of the General Convention, let it be a Standing Committee of, say, three bishops, three presbyters, and three laymen, to be elected triennially by the General Convention, to which shall be committed by that body such executive powers as may need to be exercised when the General Convention is not in session. Beyond this, there exists no real want ; and modern, and therefore contemptible, as such a provision will doubtless seem to a certain class of minds, it is, after all, the twentieth and not the tenth century in which we are living ; and it is in a land and among a people where men and things, whether titular dignitaries or other ecclesiastical gauds, are taken for what they are, rather than for what they call themselves.

At our last Convention a resolution was adopted by this body, calling upon me to address the Mayor of this city in regard to the conduct of the police in the matter of a complaint made to them by two of our clergy. The letter sent to our local chief magistrate, in obedience to this mandate, will be found appended to this address ; and the subsequent history of the whole subject to which it referred is so generally familiar that I need not attempt to recall it here. A corrupt system, whose infamous details have since then been steadily uncovered to our increasing horror and humiliation, was brazenly ignored by those who were fattening on its spoils, and the world was presented with the astounding spectacle of a great municipality whose civic mechanism was largely employed in trading in the bodies and souls of the innocent and defenceless. What has been published in this connection is but the merest hint of what exists—and exists, most appalling of all, as the evidence has come to me under the seal of confidence in overwhelming volume and force to demonstrate—under a system of terrorism which compels its victims to recognize that to denounce it means the utter ruin, so far as all their worldly interests are concerned, of those who dare to do so. This infamous organization for making merchandise of the corruption of girls and boys, and defenceless men and women, has adroitly sought to obscure a situation concerning which all honest people are entirely clear, by saying that vice cannot be wholly suppressed. Nobody has made upon the authorities of New York any such grotesque demand. All that our citizens have asked is that the government of the city shall not be employed to protect a trade in vice, which is carried on for the benefit of a political organization. The case is entirely clear. No Mephistophelian cunning can obscure it, and I thank God that there is abundant evidence that the end of such a condition of things is not far off. The police force of this city, only partially tainted, I rejoice to believe, has come to abhor the situation and their own slavery far more widely than is suspected ; and the people—those who dwell in the homes and who make up the households which this infamy most of all invades—are not deceived by the attempts that are made to palliate or excuse it, but rather determined that it shall come to an end. Whether their cry and prayer for help shall be answered, will depend largely upon the answer which we here, and those whom we represent, shall make to it. The classes that call themselves educated and refined, the possessors of wealth and influence, gentlewomen whose moral standards, high as they are, are no higher than those of their less privileged sisters, the clergy and their people, all alike, must bear a hand here, and arise and strive for God, and our city's honor. We face a great crisis. May the Master whom we profess to serve enable us worthily to meet it!

It is a matter of much regret to me that the date and place of the General Convention make it impossible for me to continue with you during the future sessions of this Convention. Our dear and honored brother, the rector of Trinity Parish, has kindly consented, however, to take my place. The whole Church will deplore his absence from San Francisco, but this whole Diocese will rejoice that that loss will have at least the compensation of our own gain.

May God have you, dear brethren, in His holy keeping, and guide your deliberations to His honor and glory!

DIOCESAN HOUSE, LAFAYETTE PLACE,
NEW YORK,

November 15, 1900.

Sir: At No. 180 Stanton Street, in this city, there is a work, for the people resident in that neighborhood, of a missionary, educational, and social character for which for some years I have been directly and personally responsible. Its influence for good order and good morals, to describe it in no other way, has been considerable; and has been recognized, I think I may venture to say, by those who know it, as of real and enduring value. It is not only a centre for the ministrations of religion, but also for training in various arts and handicrafts, for a free library, gymnasium, cooking, sewing, and other schools, etc., etc., and as such, for those whose lives are often hard and narrow and whose pleasures and privileges are few, it has been recognized as an important factor in promoting the virtue and good order of the communities to which it ministers.

In view of these facts it would seem that it has a valid claim upon the sympathy, coöperation, and at least courteous consideration of those who officially represent our city government and the guardianship of decency and good morals. I urge here no other claim for it, and I beg to say that I am not now addressing you because there has been in that which I now desire to bring to your notice a vulgar and brutal absence of these in connection with the treatment of one who happens to have been my own representative. The personal element, so far as he is or I am concerned, is of the very smallest consequence.

But the thing that is of consequence, sir, is that when a minister of religion, and a resident in a particular neighborhood, whose calling, character, experience, and truthfulness are all alike widely and abundantly recognized, goes to the headquarters of the police in his district to appeal to them for the protection of the young, the innocent, and the defenceless against the leprous harpies who are hired as runners andouters for the lowest and most infamous dens of vice, he is met not only with contempt and derision, but with the coarsest insult and obloquy.

You will say that these are strong words. I hold myself ready at any time to submit the facts that substantiate them. The statement now in my possession of two clergymen of the highest character contains the testimony of two men, given without exaggeration, with the most painstaking reserve, and with absolute truthfulness. In substance it is briefly this: that when one of them complained to a police captain of a condition of things in his immediate neighborhood, whose preëminent infamy is a matter of common notoriety, a condition of things easily verified by any intelligent citizen who passes through the streets in which it exists, he was told that he lied; and that when, disheartened by such an experience, he carried his complaint to a higher authority in the police force, he was met with insolent derision.

I affirm that such virtual safeguarding of vice in the city of New York is a burning shame to any decent and civilized community, and an intolerable outrage upon those whom it especially and preëminently concerns. I am not, I beg to say, unmindful of the fact that the existence of vice in a great city is, practically, an inevitable condition of the life of such a community. I am not demanding that vice shall be "stamped out" by the police or any other civil authority. That is a task which would demand for its achievement a race of angels and not of men. But I approach you, sir, to protest with all my power against a condition of things in which vice is not only tolerated, but shielded and encouraged by those whose sworn duty it is to repress and discourage it, and in the name of unsullied youth and innocence, of young girls and their mothers who, though living under conditions often of privation and the hard struggle for a livelihood, have in them every instinct of virtue and purity that are the ornaments of any so-called gentlerwoman in the land. I know those of whom I speak—their homes, their lives, their toil, and their aspirations. Their sensibility to insult or outrage is as keen as theirs who are in your household or mine; and before God and in the face of the citizens of New York I protest, as my people have charged me to do, against the habitual insult, the persistent menace, the unutterably defiling contacts, to which day by day, because of the base complicity of the police of New York with the lowest forms of vice and crime, they are subjected. And, in the name of these little ones, these weak and defenceless ones, Christian and Hebrew alike, of many races and tongues, but of homes in which God is feared, and His law revered, and virtue and decency honored and exemplified, I call upon you, sir, to save these people who are in a very real way committed to your charge, from a living hell, leprous, deadly, damning, to which the criminal supineness of the constituted authorities, set for the defence of decency and good order, threatens to doom them.

I have no methods to suggest, no individuals to single out for especial rebuke and chastisement. These are for you to determine and to deal with. The situation which confronts us in this metropolis of America is one of common and open notoriety and of such a nature as may well make us a byword and hissing among the nations of the world. For nowhere else on earth, I verily believe, certainly not in any civilized or Christian community, does there exist such a situation as defiles and dishonors New York to-day. Vice exists in many cities; but there is at least some persistent repression of its external manifestations, and the agents of the law are not, as here, widely believed to be battenning upon the fruits of its most loathsome and unnamable forms.

I come to you, sir, with this protest in accordance with the instructions lately laid upon me by the Convention of the Episcopal Church of the Diocese of New York. The events which provoked its action occurred some months ago. There has been no haste on my part, or on theirs in behalf of whom I speak, in reaching conclusions as to the situation to which I refer. Months have passed since the incidents occurred to which I have alluded in this communication. But, in all these months, the condition of things in whole neighborhoods has not improved, but rather grown worse. Vice not only flaunts in the most open and ribald forms, but hard-working fathers and mothers find it harder than ever, to-day, to defend their households from a rapacious licentiousness which stops at no outrage and spares no tenderest victim. Such a state of things cries to God for vengeance, and calls no less loudly to you and me for redress.

This, sir, is my case. I leave it confidently in your hands. Confidently, I say, because I cannot believe that you will fail to recognize in it a great duty, a duty which you will set yourself to discharge, no matter how great the cost. I do not forget what has come to be too often expected in our day from those who hold office when those who are their partisan associates are involved in wrongdoing. But I cannot believe that, in such a case as this, you will hesitate as to your duty, no matter where the doing of it may compel you to strike. Great place such as yours demands great courage and great sacrifice. Great crises such as that which has now come in the history of our city, and I think I may be forgiven if I add, in your own career, demand great acts. I cannot believe that you will disdain an opportunity so unique as that which now confronts you for action worthy of your office, your citizenship, your manhood.

I am, sir,

Respectfully yours,

HENRY C. POTTER,

THE HON. THE MAYOR OF NEW YORK.

Bishop of New York.

The new St. Andrew's Church was opened for divine service first on Easter Day, April 7, 1901. Its approximate cost is contained in the parish statistics. On June 13 it was consecrated by the Bishop of the Diocese. Early in the morning of July 3 it was destroyed by fire, together with the old church, the organ, all the furniture, and nearly every historical treasure of the parish. The tower, with clock and bell, and the bare walls, alone are standing. The insurance having been adjusted, the parish are proceeding at once to the restoration of the church and the Sunday-school building, hoping to make them, if possible, better than before.

On May 16, Ascension Day, the Senior Warden of the parish, Mr. Seth B. Howes, was called to rest at the ripe age of nearly 80 years. He had been Senior Warden since the founding of the parish in 1832, and his steady munificence has done much to maintain and to advance its life. The new church, excepting certain memorial windows, was his gift to God and the parish. And he has crowned his previous liberality by leaving in his will an ample sum for endowment.

The statistics given above include those for St. Paul's Chapel, Tilly Foster, and St. Peter's Chapel, Dean's Corners.

On September 1st Rev. C. O. Arnold enters upon his labors as curate in the parish.

This mission was organized in the early part of October, by the Archdeacon of Westchester, Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D., and on October 14th the present incumbent assumed temporary charge. From the inception the work has been entirely self-supporting. The congregation meet in a large store directly opposite the railroad station. They have regular Sunday Services, fortnightly celebrations of the Holy Communion, a nice Sunday-school, and a School of Handicraft. Nearly $1,500 has been already paid in in cash donations, since January 1st, towards a fund for the erection of a stone church. The land for it has been given by Mr. Lawrence, owner of Lawrence Park there, and the plans of the church drawn and donated by Mr. Wm. S. Bates. The new building will be completed early in the autumn. Since the Mission was opened, the following special gifts have been received and are now in use: Hymn board, blackboard, altar linen, 100 prayer books and 100 hymnals, 2 silver collection plates, set of Holy Communion silver and vessels, carved cross for altar, lectern Bible, altar hangings in violet and in white and in green, small organ, kneeling cushions, brass vases for flowers, brass altar book rest. The new work is centred among two large communities of littérateurs and artists, and bids fair to meet with every success.

On the twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity (November 17, 1901) it is proposed to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of the consecration of the church, and to present a class for confirmation to the Bishop of the Diocese. This parish is a distinctly rural one, though in the limits of the City of New Rochelle, and maintains two places of Sunday-school and parochial work. It has an endowment of $8,500, a parish house costing $3,500, and $800 in the savings bank as a Rectory Fund. Large improvements are being made by the city on North Street, and if a trolley system is maintained, as it is hoped it will be soon, we shall be able to report a larger list of families and communicants.

The Moodna Mission, started by the Rector in the neighboring village of Moodna, and since administered by him without stipend, has, during the three years of its existence, had a steady growth and is self-supporting, as it always has been. There is a King's Daughters' Society and a Children's Society connected with the mission. These are both vigorously serving the ends for which they were organized. The Moodna Mission is the only religious organization in the village, which has heretofore been a churchless community.

During the past two years, by the courtesy of the Bishop and the Cathedral authorities, our public services have been held in the crypt of the Cathedral. We have now completed the basement and first floor of our Neighborhood Guild House, covering the same with a temporary roof, and after the first of May will have our services in that building.

We have also built the foundation walls of the church, and it is our hope to raise funds to enable us to enclose the church and occupy it early in the coming year.

The Rector, as voluntary chaplain of the General Memorial Hospital, has held services through the year, and those services are reported in the parochial list.

During the past year we have been encouraged by the assistance of a number of clerical and lay friends, whom it would be gratifying to us to mention here individually, in recording our thanks, if space permitted. A house has been rented and in use during the year, where six ladies have resided amidst many real hardships, devoting their entire services gratuitously to the work amongst the poor, and aiding in the upbuilding of the parish. This house has also served for the Sunday-school, and a most successful store for the distribution of goods—mostly clothing—to the poor. A great field of work has been opened amongst the colored people.

The services have been daily morning and evening prayer, and celebration of the Holy Communion. On Sundays there has been an additional celebration of the Holy Communion, and, for the winter months, two sessions of the Sunday-school, with service in the afternoon.

The work at this mission is new—less than six months old—having been started as an Archdeaconry mission by the Lay Helpers' Association, through Mr. Camp and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, with the present minister in charge, on demand of the people in the neighborhood of Bedford Park, on the first Sunday in Advent, 1900. A new barn was secured on rental, and the people themselves gave the money and did the actual manual labor as well to convert the building into a neat chapel, seating 90 persons, with an additional school-room in the second story. The entire outfitting of chapel and chancel has been through gifts from the congregation, even the full sets of altar hangings, etc., having been already made by the altar chapter. The Ladies' Aid Society are furnishing material support and missionary zeal. Grace Church, Manhattan, has given prayer desk, kneeling cushions, carpet, library books, and fifty dollars for school-room and Young Men's Club. In the organization of the mission, 202 calls were made by the priest in charge and a complete register of families drafted. There has been a total, in six months, of 2,159 actual attendances at services, and 124 Communion made.

In addition to the above report, I beg to report services as chaplain of the Mothers' and Babes' Hospital, not included in the foregoing, as follows: Baptisms, 42; Funeral, 1.

The large amount expended "For the Poor" is due to the generosity of one generous Churchman outside of the parish. We can only afford to appropriate for that purpose, from the parish, the alms received at the 8 A.M. celebrations on Sundays, except Easter Day, and the alms received on Holy Days, except Christmas Day. The sums thus obtained amount to less than fifty dollars a year. It seems to me to be a fact of historical interest that the population of this section of the city is increasing enormously every year by the addition of many families of limited means, thus making St. Mary's Church a most desirable centre for mission work, which cannot be done, to any great extent, without assistance from outside of the parish. Some blocks in this older section of the Borough of the Bronx are densely populated by poor people, more of whom might be helped if St. Mary's Church could have a curate or deaconess, or both.

Owing in part to change in population, this church was for a time closed. At a cost of $341.73, two ladies of the parish redecorated and repaired the interior, and services were begun in June, 1900. A number of gifts, including vestments, communion vessels, prayer books, altar book, etc., were made by different friends, and, through the sale of an endowment bond, $1,150 was paid in settlement of claim of a former rector. For the immediate future the parish will have to depend on the Archdeaconry or Diocese for aid in keeping up its services.

While not yet admitted into union with Convention, the services in Grace Hall (which was erected in 1897, in memory of the late O. B. Potter) have been held by Church clergymen, chiefly by the Rev. Geo. W. Ferguson, Rector of Trinity Church, Ossining. About the beginning of this diocesan year the congregation met and, though largely composed of people of other denominations, voted unanimously in favor of an Episcopal minister and prayer-book services. The Sunday-school is in charge of a Churchwoman; the sewing school is the special work of Grace Circle of King's Daughters, who also contribute to the support of the services. There is a well-selected library of about 1,000 volumes in the hall. Near by is the Martha Summer Home, erected in 1895, in memory of the late Martha G. Potter. The Martha Home has been doing an excellent work since 1881 for poor boys and girls of the city in the hot season, who also form an important part of Grace Hall's congregation during the summer. Its financial report cannot be given with this.

In the summer of 1900 new windows of rippled cathedral glass, in diamond-shaped panes of olive green tint, were introduced in place of the old-time plain glass sashes, and the old stone steps in the approach to the church grounds were reset and made more easy of ascent.

The windows on the Epistle side of the church were presented by St. Agnes' Guild, and those on the Gospel side, and all the remaining windows in the edifice, by St. Agatha's Guild, both associations of girls and young ladies of the parish.

In the winter of 1900-1901 a transept was built near the chancel for the reception of the organ. The latter was thoroughly overhauled and renovated, and a new stop introduced.

In its new position, the instrument was used for the first time on Sunday, March 3, 1901.

The work which we set out to do and which was reported in part last year has, under God's wonderful blessing, been accomplished.

The church improvements are about completed; the mortgage of $2,000 on rectory paid. The parish house has been built, giving us elegant reading room and reception room, elegant rugs, ladies' kitchen, etc., china set, etc.; making all very complete.

The parish house and church grounds have been graded and laid out, forming beautiful lawn. The library, which is being made into a circulating library, contains nearly 600 new books of choice reading, standard works, etc., and is very desirable.

The mission work in Tappan is continued and good work has been accomplished.

The parish house has been painted, varnished, etc., and provided with electric lights. A stone walk has been laid down between the public sidewalk and the main entrance to the church.

A mission was established by the Rector in the village of Montgomery, about four miles distant from Walden, in September, 1900. The attendance has been most gratifying, the average being about 60, and that on special occasions reaching 125. The services have been held in the Grand Army Hall. The Rector has been promised some financial assistance towards the erection of a church edifice. The parish celebrated its one hundred and thirtieth anniversary in the early part of December last. The Bishop's Missionary Meeting taking place in the parish on the same day, and the attendance of clergy and delegates being large, the occasion was one of very great interest.

APPENDIX D

CLERICAL REPORTS

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received reports according to the Canon, from the following clergymen of the Diocese, as having performed or remaining charge:

THE REV. GEORGE ALLEN

"Respectfully reports That during the last year he has officiated as Rector of the Holy Trinity Church, and as St. John's Chapel connected with that church and as Rector of other special churches from the jurisdiction of Rochester, New York, and as Rector of the Holy Trinity Church, New York City, and as Rector of the Holy Trinity Church, New York City."

THE REV. WILLIAM E. BARNARD

"Respectfully reports That during the Conventional year just closing he has officiated as Rector of the Holy Trinity Church, and as St. John's Chapel connected with that church and as Rector of other special churches from the jurisdiction of Rochester, New York, and as Rector of the Holy Trinity Church, New York City, and as Rector of the Holy Trinity Church, New York City."

THE REV. HENRY WILSON BARNARD

"Respectfully reports That during the last 12 months he has officiated as Rector of the Holy Trinity Church, New York City."

THE REV. P. E. CASE, D.D.

"Respectfully reports in the Bishop of New York. That during the past Conventions for the Clerical work has been confined to the discharge of his duties as a Professor in the General Theological Seminary."

THE REV. CHARLES W. CAMP

"I have the honor to report That during the year last past I have officiated as I have had the opportunity and ability, as follows: I have celebrated the Holy Communion 19 times; preached 15 times; baptized 15 times; baptized twice. These services have all been rendered in the House of Long Island, and recorded there."

THE REV. HENRY A. DOWS

"Respectfully reports That during the Conventional year he has officiated as Chaplain of the House of the Annunciation, and has also rendered occasional assistance to the Rector of St. Luke's Church, New York City."

THE REV. W. L. EVANS

"Reports: That, in addition to his regular duties at St. David's Hall, he has officiated occasionally at various places, and since September 15th has been engaged as Deputy Chaplain at Bloomingdale Asylum."

THE REV. RANDALL C. HALL, D.D.

"I beg leave respectfully to report: That during the past year I have occasionally assisted in the services of the Church in different places. During the past summer I officiated and preached in Stony Creek, Conn."

THE REV. J. GOTTFRIED HAMMARSKÖLD.

"I beg leave to report: That during the year ending September 1, 1901, I have been engaged in discharging my duties as General Missionary to Swedes. During the same period I have conducted 216 services, taken part in 72, preached 189 sermons, delivered 36 addresses, administered Holy Communion 75 times, baptized 40 children, officiated at 2 marriages and 15 funerals."

THE REV. A. N. HENSHAW, PH.D.

"During the past year I have preached from time to time, and have assisted regularly in the services of Trinity Church, Plattsburgh."

THE VERY REV. EUGENE AUGUSTUS HOFFMAN, D.D. (OXON.), LL.D., D.C.L.,
Dean of the General Theological Seminary,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as Dean of the General Theological Seminary, and frequently officiated for his brethren in this and other dioceses. He has baptized one person, and officiated at one marriage and four burials, all of which are recorded in the parishes to which the parties belonged."

THE REV. WILLIAM HUCKEL

"Respectfully reports: That during the past Conventional year he has been engaged in the public services of the Church."

THE REV. J. O. S. HUNTINGTON.

"During the past year I have celebrated the Holy Communion every day, with a few exceptions when travelling or at a distance from a church. I have administered Holy Baptism to 2 or 3 children in the city of Chicago. During the year I have conducted one parochial mission and a number of retreats, besides preaching in various parts of the country, usually several times each week."

THE REV. T. A. HYLAND.

"My health during the past year has been much improved, yet I have not been able to do any regular duty. I have assisted in the services of the Church wherever I have been. Otherwise my official acts have been very few."

THE REV. W. G. W. LEWIS.

"Since sending you my last report I have continued to discharge the functions of Acting Chaplain of the Home for Old Men and Aged Couples. I have recommended one candidate for Confirmation, and read the Burial Service for six of the inmates of the Home, in addition to the usual services. The performance of this labor of love has been pleasant without being exacting, and I shall gladly continue in this work and privilege of duty."

THE REV. ARTHUR MASON

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as Chaplain of the House of the Holy Comforter, New York City."

THE REV. D. BRAINARD RAY.

"Since my last report I have officiated as follows: 7 funerals, 3 marriages, 5 baptisms, 3 Communion Services; have preached 24 times and held service 31 times, besides visits to the sick."

THE REV. EDWIN B. RICE

"Begg leave to report: That during the past year he has been occupied with his duties in connection with the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society at its central office in the city of New York."

THE REV. J. J. ROBERTS, D.D.,

"Begg leave most respectfully to report: That he resides in New York City for one half of the year, and from May until November in Sandwich, Mass. Of course, being in his eighty-second year, he is infrequently called on for public services; but now, as in the past, he professes to be semper paratus."

THE REV. C. THEODORE SEIST, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged, without interruption, in his duties as Professor of Moral Theology and Christian Philosophy in the General Theological Seminary."

THE REV. WILLIAM J. SEABURY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That he has attended as usual, since the date of his last report, to the duties of his Professorship in the General Theological Seminary, and has exercised his ministry as often as the somewhat uncertain condition of his health has permitted, having celebrated Holy Eucharist 5 times, assisting once; officiating at Choir services, 16 times; Holy Matrimony, 3 times; Burial of the Dead, 3 times; baptizing 2 infants, and preaching twice."

THE REV. CORNELIUS B. SMITH, D.D.,

Rector Emeritus of St. James' Church, New York,

"Respectfully reports that he has preached very constantly, during the year, in various churches, and has officiated in the Sacraments and Offices of the Church for his old parishioners and others."

THE REV. J. TUTTLE SMITH, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has officiated at the English churches in Nice and Stuttgart; the Holy Trinity, Paris; St. James', Ormund, Florida; St. John's, Washington, and St. Stephen's, Ridgefield, Conn."

THE REV. GEORGE SEABURY

"Respectfully reports: That owing to continued physical disability during the past Conventional year he has taken no part in the public services of the Church except as a worshipper; and that for the same reason, as well as because of local physical obstacles, he has been obliged, with regret, frequently to absent himself from public worship."

THE REV. J. J. ROWAN SPONG, M.A., B.C.L., LL.B.

"For the year ending August 31, 1901, I celebrated the Holy Communion 54 times; assisted at the same 21 times; said the Litany 11 times; Matins 33 times; Evensong 33 times; short services, etc., 6 times; solemnized Holy Matrimony once; officiated at the burial of the dead twice; preached 26 times. In addition to the above, I assisted one gentleman in his preparation for Holy Orders."

THE REV. J. FREDERICK TALCOTT.

"I would report: That during the past year I have continued my mission work in the Diocese of New York, and have performed such other duties in this Diocese and elsewhere as opportunity offered."

THE REV. ERNEST VOORHIS, PH.D.

"I respectfully beg to submit, as my annual report: That I have officiated for two months as Missionary for the City Mission Society, for the past ten months at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, and in addition for the past four months at the Church of the Intercession during the absence of the Rector. I have also continued my scholastic work as formerly."

THE REV. JOHN W. H. WEIBEL

"Respectfully reports: That owing to ill health he has not been able to officiate, but when able to attend church has been a worshipper in the pew."

CONSTITUTION

As Adopted October 11, 1796 ; and Amended October 17, 1827 ; October 2, 1884 ;
October 4, 1889 ; September 29, 1848 ; September 26, 1850 ; September 28, 1860 ; September 28, 1882 ; and September 26, 1889.

ARTICLE I.

THERE shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the last Wednesday in September in each year, in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being ; or, in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause occurring after the designation of the place of the meeting of the Annual Convention, the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church ; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee ; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly received into this Diocese, and settled in some Church which is in union with this Convention ; and of Lay Members, consisting of not exceeding three Delegates from each Church, to be chosen by the Vestry or Congregation : and Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, and Clergymen engaged as Professors or Instructors of youth in any College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, and Clergymen engaged as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated Charitable Institution, may be members of the Convention. No Clergyman, however, shall have a right to a seat in the Convention, unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with prayers and a sermon ; and the preacher shall be nominated by the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention ; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate in one body ; and in voting, the Clergy shall vote by individuals, and the Laity by Congregations ; and when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention, prior to the last Wednesday in September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Delegate or Delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to a vote for each Church or Chapel ; and a majority of votes of the two orders jointly shall be decisive ; but if in any case it be required by five votes, the two orders shall vote separately in the manner aforesaid, and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision. In the case of electing a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, agreeably to the mode last prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows : A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention ; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged ; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only ; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

SEC. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "General Regulations of Ministers and their Duties," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record ; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop ; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received, the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least thirty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least thirty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. A quorum, which shall consist of thirty Clergymen and Delegates from thirty Congregations, being present, the President, ex officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 16. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 17. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention ; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting ; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same ; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York ; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just ; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention ; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC. 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary ; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5.—Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one ; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the next stated Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and of which the collection and distribution shall not be otherwise regulated.

SEC. 2. His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee acting under its authority.

SEC. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee ; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants, Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

SEC. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors ; the name of each adult baptized ; the name of each person confirmed ; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witness or witnesses required by the civil law ; the name of each person buried ; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church ; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

The list of Communicants shall embrace all within his Cure as nearly as can be ascertained, and he shall also keep a list of the families and adult persons in his Cure, as far as practicable.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Funerals ; and of the number of Communicants in his Parish or Church, and of all other matters that may throw light on the state of the same.

SEC. 4. In every case where a Parish is without a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose ; and the annual Parochial Reports shall be presented or forwarded to the Bishop by the Wardens of the Parish.

SEC. 5. Upon the dissolution of a Parish the Register, provided for by this Canon, shall immediately become the property of the Diocese, and the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention shall cause the said Register to be deposited with the Bishop, to be under his care for the legitimate purposes thereof.

CANON VIII.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

A Committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, in accordance with the Canon * thereof, to assist the Bishop in preparing a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, and a list of the Clergy, to be presented to the General Convention.

CANON IX.

Concerning Elections.

SEC. 1. Elections by ballot, when required by these Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election.

* Canon XX., Sec. 5, Title I.

SEC. 2. The mode of conducting the nominations and elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council, shall be as follows :

Any member of the Convention may send to the Secretary, in writing, on or before the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations, signed by himself, for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and for members of the Federate Council. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the second day's session, in the form of a ballot, on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first ballot these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent ballots, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. No ballot shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled, and the number of vacancies to be filled shall be printed on each ballot.

The Secretary shall provide a board, to be hung up in a conspicuous place, near the entrance to the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations so received, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council; and these names shall also be printed on the back of the ballot provided by the Secretary.

CANON X.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall, at each second regular annual meeting next succeeding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. It shall also elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen, as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned; which Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies, or Provisional Deputies, for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. 2. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention, during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. And the Bishop shall in like manner designate from the same list of Provisional Deputies one or more, as the case may be, to supply any deficiency in the representation of this Diocese which may in any way occur. And the person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

CANON XI.

Of Deputies to the Federate Council.

At every stated Convention there shall be an election by ballot of eight Clergymen and eight Laymen to serve as Deputies at any meeting of the Federate Council that may be held before the next Annual Convention of the Diocese. And in case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the Deputies so elected, such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop.

CANON XII.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention a Standing Committee shall be elected by ballot, to consist of four Clergymen and four Laymen. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical members and Lay members of the Committee.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to, or enjoined upon, the Clerical members of said Committee; in which cases such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes, and Clergymen without Cure.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the authorities of such vacant Parish to consult with the Bishop of the Diocese before proceeding to fill the vacancy.

SEC. 4. Any Clergyman without cure resident in, or visiting, this Diocese and desiring to take temporary or occasional service therein shall signify to the Bishop his wish to officiate in this Diocese. A list of such Clergymen as shall be licensed by the Bishop for such duty shall be kept at the Diocesan House. And no Rector or Parish shall employ the services of any Clergyman without cure for more than one day, unless he shall have the written license of the Bishop.

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment of New Places of Public Worship.

SEC. 1. In places where the Church is already established, no new Parish shall be formed, or new Church or Chapel be established, or new Congregation be gathered, nor shall the site of any existing Church, Chapel, or Congregation be changed without the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese and the formal approval of the Standing Committee. But such action of the Standing Committee shall not be taken until previous notice has been given, and due proof thereof furnished the Committee, by the parties moving therefor, to the Rectors and Vestries of the three Churches or Congregations whose places of public worship shall be nearest to the site proposed for the new place of worship, nor until at least one month has been allowed such Rectors and Vestries to present any objections they may have.

SEC. 2. In places where the Church is not established, the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall be sufficient for the formation of a new Parish.

SEC. 3. "Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which such work is situated, may be prosecuted temporarily at such point or points as may be from time to time designated by them, after consultation with the Rectors of the three nearest Parishes; but such work shall not be continued more than one year, nor shall any building for such work be erected, unless the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee shall have been obtained in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sections of this Canon."

CANON XV.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. The fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese, now provided, together with that which may be hereafter contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund for the Diocese of New York," incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 14, 1845. The Trustees composing said corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a congregation in this Diocese to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made by said congregation in aid of the fund for the support of the Episcopate ; and in the case of a vacant parish, this duty shall devolve on the Wardens and Vestrymen. The amount of each annual collection or contribution shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and shall be reported by the Trustees to the Convention at the next stated meeting thereof, after such collection or contribution shall have been made, and shall be entered on its Journals.

SEC. 3. So long as the income of the fund is inadequate to the support of the Episcopate, and an annual assessment shall be made, under the authority of the Convention, for supplying the deficiency therein, the payment of such assessment by a Parish shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined by Section 2 of this Canon.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. A statement exhibiting the condition of the said fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON XVI.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 1. Every congregation in the Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the Day of its annual meeting, such a per cent. on the amount of the salary of its Cler-gyman as shall have been ordered by the preceding Convention, to provide for necessary expenses.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Convention to retain annually out of this fund one dollar for each Clergyman in the Diocese. The moneys thus retained shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of the General Convention at each meeting of the same.

SEC. 3. A copy of this Canon shall be transmitted annually to every Church in the Diocese by the Secretary of the Convention.

CANON XVII.

Of Contributions for Church Objects.

SEC. 1. In every Parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied.

SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the New York Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 2. (I.) The Missionary Work of the Diocese shall be conducted by a Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions, sitting as such as often as the business of the Board may demand.

SEC. 3. (I.) The Diocese shall be divided into five Archdeaconries, to be named, respectively :

1. The Archdeaconry of New York, comprising the County of New York.

2. The Archdeaconry of Richmond, comprising the County of Richmond.

3. The Archdeaconry of Westchester, comprising the Counties of Westchester, Putnam, and Rockland.

4. The Archdeaconry of Orange, comprising the Counties of Orange, Ulster, and Sullivan.

5. The Archdeaconry of Dutchess, comprising the County of Dutchess.

(II.) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three Lay Delegates from each Parish and Mission Station, elected in such manner as the By-laws of the Archdeaconry may direct, provided that such Lay Delegates from Mission Stations shall not have the right to vote upon any question involving the appropriation or apportionment of moneys. It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry [1] to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such Missionary Work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several Parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same; [2] to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all Missionaries and other agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries; [3] to have full management of its funds ; [4] to provide that careful statistics as to the population and condition of communities and the results of Missionary Work be collected and preserved.

(III.) The Executive Officer or Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Bishop, and confirmed by the Archdeaconry at a regular meeting, and shall continue in office until his successor be appointed. It shall be his duty [1] to superintend all Missionary Work conducted by the Archdeaconry ; [2] to have direction of all Itinerant Clergy and Associated Missions ; [3] to make full and regular reports of the same to the Archdeaconry ; and [4] in the absence of the Bishop to preside at all meetings.

(IV.) Each Archdeaconry shall adopt its own by-laws, elect annually its Secretary and Treasurer, and make before the Annual Meeting of the Board of Diocesan Missions a full report of its year's work to the Board of Managers hereinafter described.

SEC. 4. (I.) There shall be a Diocesan Board of Managers, which Board shall also be the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop, the five Archdeacons, Secretaries and Treasurers, and also five Clergymen and five Laymen, elected by ballot at the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) It shall be the duty of this Board of Managers [1] to decide, with the approval of the Bishop, what proportion of the whole sum voted by the Diocese shall be raised by, and what proportion shall be expended by each Archdeaconry ; [2] to devise general plans for making Mission Work more effective, and developing a greater Missionary interest throughout the Diocese ; [3] to send to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual meeting, a report containing the following items :

- a. Statement of Missionary Work done since last report.
- b. The names of the Missionaries and Stations.
- c. An account of Annual Receipts and Expenditures, comprising all amounts received and disbursed by each Archdeaconry.
- d. A list of the Parishes contributing, and of the sums contributed by each Parish to Diocesan Missions.
- e. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary Work of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and a schedule of assessments upon the several Parishes.

(III.) Seven members of the Board of Managers, at a regularly called meeting, two of whom shall be Archdeacons, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop, one of the Archdeacons present shall be elected by the meeting to preside.

CANON XIX.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds :

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2d. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows :

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention, or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

* “(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund ; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop

2d. As to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

" . . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

" With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest :

"1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

"2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or infirm to continue his ministry; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

"3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

"4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given ceteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

funds, be divided equally between them. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

CANON XX.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz. :

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination ; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offence, may dismiss it ; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offence, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop ; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time ; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence ; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively ; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced ; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board ; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted, as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXI.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop taking the Chair, the order of procedure shall be as follows :

1. The Secretary, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

2. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10. The President shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

3. A constitutional quorum (thirty Clergymen and thirty Delegations) being present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business which shall proceed in the following order :

4. Reading of the Rules of Order.

5. The election of a Secretary and Treasurer, the former of whom shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

6. The appointment of five Standing Committees by the President :

(1) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches—to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention, in order.

(2) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(3) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(4) On the General Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(5) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

7. The appointment of Inspectors of Elections : one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical Votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Votes—for the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

8. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows :

(1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.

(2) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocese.

(3) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and appointment of Trustees.

(4) Report of the New York City Mission Society.

(5) Report of the Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York.

- (6) Report of St. Stephen's College.
- (7) Report of Society for Promoting Religion and Learning.
- (8) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, and election of Trustees.
- (9) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and supplying vacancies, if any, in the Trustees.

9. Miscellaneous business.

II. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

- 1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
- 2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
- 3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.
- 4. Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he should prefer another time for its delivery. If so, it shall be at any time in order.
- 5. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.
- 6. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.
- 7. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to that officer.
- 8. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
- 9. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
- 10. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
- 11. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
- 12. Report of the Committee on Canons.
- 13. Reports of Special Committees.
- 14. Miscellaneous business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

- 1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
- 2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
- 3. Calling the names of members not present before.
- 4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in order.
- 5. Miscellaneous business.

IV. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached, or shall be pending, on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed ; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair ; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot, from among the Clergy.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging in this Diocese but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., and from 2 to 5 P.M., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 7½ to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows :

The Secretary shall call the names of the Clergy and of the Parishes entitled to vote, who, as called, are to present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant ; and if, on such second attempt, the purpose shall not be accomplished, the balloting may be resumed at the discretion of the Convention.

X. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it ; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word " Resolved " shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made ; no after-amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXVI. The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect any officer.
